DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1904.

Thursday, the second in a series that will be given, . . . Mr. and Mrs. Eli Price gave a Dutch supper on Wednesday night a number of their friends being delightfully entertained. * * *

Judge and Mrs. O. W. Powers yester. day issued invitations for a reception at their new home, "Lingerlonger," on the evening of Feb. 22.

Mrs. Dorsey Ash entertained the members of the Plate club at her home today.

The dancing party given by the young people of the Unitarian church last night was largely attended, and was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

On Tuesday evening, precading the assembly, Mr. Clem Schramm gave a dinner at the Commercial club, covers Mrs. S. H. Babcock entertained at a delightful, though informal dinner on being laid for 10. The table was laid in the private dining room, and decorated with American Beauty roses, the arrangement being most artistic. The Thursday night, covers being laid for eight. The table was effectively decguests were Gov. and Mrs. Heber M. orated, and afterward all attended the Receivedeecooosec

THE NEWEST SOCIAL QUEEN.

ing the marriage service, Miss Schulte played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lo-hengren, and during the cercinony " Promise Me," while the Mendelssohn march followed. The bride was attended by Miss Leila Miller as maid of honor, who was gowned in pink, and carried La France roses. The rooms were effectively decorated in palms, vines and cut flowers, the bridal party standing under a canopy of terns and smilax studded with white carnations a bank of palms forming a background Assisting in receiving and entertaining were a number of the intimate friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will be at home to their friends after March 1, at 41 Church street.

Another interesting wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Carrie Her-mia Swenson and Lieut, W. E. Kneass, mia Swenson and Lieut. W. E. Kneass, N. G. U., which took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Amanda Swenson at 1:30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Dean Eddle. The rooms were prettily decorated, and a luncheon followed the service, the fami-lies and intimate friends being present. The bride wore a going away gown of dark blue gloria silk, with hat to match. Her sister, Miss Olga Swenson, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Elter was best man. Lieut, and Mrs. Kneass left in the evening for Ogden where they will the evening for Ogden where they will make their home.

* * * Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss June McIntyre and Mr. Frei-erick Dern. The wedding will take place Tuesday evening, March 1, at $:30, at the home of the bride's parents. The bride will be attended by Mrs. James Chambers Dick as matron of honor and Miss Elizabeth McIntyre as bridesmaid; and Mr. Frank Judge will be the best man,

Mr. and Mrs. William Pinney announce the engagement of their daugh-ter, Mabel, to Mr. William Bowdidge, the marriage to take place in March.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Freed left this week for California to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fitch of Minneapolis are in the city, guests of Mrs. | a few days.

GRAY WALKING SUIT.

their daughter, Mrs. Louis K. Pastrouich.

THE ARGER Mr. and Mrs. Ohmstead left Monday night for their home in Pocatello, after having spent a few days in Salt Lake.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry La Motte have bert Philadelphia and will return to Salt Lake via Cuba, Panama and San Francisco. They are expected home the second week in March.

Miss Gertrude Hanson, who has been Miss Georgia Vadner's guest in San Francisco for the last two months, has returned. . . .

Miss Dorothy Kinney leaves soon for a visit on the coast.

Mrs. Orin R. Grow is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pike, for the present, but will leave shortly to join her husband in San Francisco, ... Maj. Harry C. Hill nas gone to California for a month's visit.

Miss Kiesel of Ogden was a guest of Miss Margaret Park this week.

Miss Lulu Trane has returned to her home in Lehi, after a pleasant visit with friends in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert E. Kimball leave for El Paso, Tex., about the fisrt of March, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hagenbarth and family leave today for California for an extended visit. Mr. Hagenbarth will go to Ei Paso about the middle of March to be away some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cohn are home from a pleasant trip to New York and other eastern cities.

Miss Blanche Burke will leave the first part of next week to spend some time with her mother at the Burke much in Idaho.

about 50 people. Thursday evening the Women of Woodcraft entertained at their hall. A fine musical and literary program Mrs. George M. Hanson of Ogden, who has been visiting her mother for a few days, has returned to her home. was carried out.

Mrs. D. D. Houtz has returned to he home in Provo after a visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. William H. a few weeks visiting.

James Watherspoon returned home Tuesday from a month's pleasuring on Richard A. Keyes has gone north for the coast. . . . Thursday evening B. of L. E. gave an enjoyable dance at Dignan's hall. * *

Miss Julia M. Clark and Walter T. Trwin were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. There were present a large number of their relatives and friends. A bounteous wedding supper was served.

OGDEN.

the Virginia hotel Tuesday afternoon.

is usually known, has posterity of 173.

Ladies' auxiliary to the B. of L. E. and their friends. The hours passed and their friends. The hours passed quickly at dancing, vocal and instru-mental music, cards and other pleas-ures. The high-five prizes were won by Mrs. Lethbridge, Mrs. Shields, Mossrs. F. Neesley and George Hinley.

5 6 6

them every happiness.

Dates: 13

. . . Last evening the Weber Stake Sunday school board gave a very delight-ful dance at the Parry Hall, which was largely attended.

At the home of the bride's parents of At the home of the bride s parents on Twenty-fifth street Miss Margaret Rob-erts was ruarried to Archie H. Fift, Judge H. H. Rolapp performed the marriage ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends. The happy young couple left for California Thursday morning on a month's visit. They will return to Og-dent to make their future home. They are both popular in the city. The bride has been cashier at Wrights for a considerable time ad the groom is employed in the clerical department of the Southern Pacific.

PROVO.

Provo.-Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jones en-tertaired on Wednesday evening in honor of the birthday of Mr. Jones present.

. . .

BRIGHAM CITY.

Brigham City-Homer J. Rich ar-rived home from England this week where he has been laboring as a mis-

J. W. D. Hurren of Hyde Park stop-ped over at Brigham Sunday last on his way home from a mission to Hol-. . .

Ogden, Utah, Feb, 13 .--- Miss Alice A L. N. Stohl was a visitor to Logan during the week. Bingham, one of the most popular young ladies of Wilson ward, was mar-young ladies of Wilson ward, was mar-ried Wednesday in the Sait Lake Tem, ple, to John Elitton, Jr., of this city. The bride is a charming and accom-plished young lady, and the groom is a popular employe of W. H. Wright & .Sons company. They both have a host of friends, who will join in wishing them come have been Mrs. J. F. Bowring and children has been spending the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Midgley at Sait Lake.

. . . Prof. E. W. Nichols was a visitor to Ogden Wednesday and Thursday,

The Messrs. Clark of Ogden were in this city during the week and attended the ball at the Opera house Wednes. Sunday, Feb. 7, Mrs Charlotte Etherday evening.

budday, Feb. 7, Mrs Charlotte Ether-ing.... or this city celebrated aer minet.eun birthday. The following day a large number of her relatives and friends gathered at the home of her son-in-law, Charles M. Cole, on Twen-ty-sixth street, to spend a few pleas-ant hours with her. A number of con-gratulatory speeches were made, songs were sung and a bounteous repast was The high school will give a grand ball at the opera house Saturday even-ing, Feb. 15. A most enjoyable time is anticipated. . . .

The Nichols minstrels expect to go down to Willard on the 17th Inst. and were sung, and a bounteous repast was served. Grandma Etherington, as she appear in the Willard opera house, H. E. Bowring went down to the capi-

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Cave celebrated their thir-tieth wedding anniversary at their apartments in the county courthouse. There were present the members of the factor is an in the county of the second secon tal Wednesday expecting to remain a few days, . . .

Kindly send me some more envelopes. I haven't any left.

LEHI,

About 50 guests were present at a de. lightfully appointed reception given by Mrs. Chas. Ohran at her home Monday evening. A very tasty lunch was serv. After cards the guests were ushered in-to the dining room, where a bounteous repast was served. The tables were artistically decorated with cut flowers and evergreens. There were present about 20 apapte ed, with punch, and games were indug-ed in. An impromptu program was givan which proved to be very entertain. ing.

. . . Mrs. and Mrs. W. W. Southworth have returned from a three weeks' pleasure jaunt in California,

Mr. T. H. Edwards, superintendent

Mr. T. H. Edwards, superintenent of the Utah Sugar company at Garland, Utah, is down this week visiting rel-atives and friends, John Watson and wife and daughter left Wednesday for California to spend Mrs. Wm. H. Cutler of Idaho Falls is here visiting relatives and friends.

Messrs. David Hodge, Frank Ingalis and Lawrence Peterson, who hold prominent positions with the Idaho Sugar company, have returned to their homes here for a vacation.

Friday evening the Sunday school of. floers, teachers and parents of the Fourth ward, were present at a very enjoyable social, given in the bank building.

. . .

Next Monday evening the M. I. A. will give a shadow ball in the open house. The feature of the evening will be bidding for the shadows of young ladles who will be placed behind a cur-tain. The young ladles who are hid in are expected to furnish supper for self and partner. . . .

The ball given in the opera house Thursday evening by the Firemen was a grand success both financially and socially and a very enjoyable time was had by those present.

Mrs. Laura E. Cutler of Salt Lake was visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Friel, here Wednesday, Mrs. Wm. McOmie has returned to her home at Rexburg, Ida., after visi ing with her relatives here the last six weeks.

CELE

McMillan.

y, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Mis Geddes, Miss Zane and Miss

* * *

Mrs. Alexander MacAdam Paul, one of the Leauties of New York society, was, before her marriage, Miss Louise de Solis Pizzini, of Richmond, Va. Her mother, who was a Miss Davis, is said to have been as lovely in her youth as her daughter is at present.

expressed at men's funerals, if uttered before, might have kept heart in them for the struggle of life.--Mathew Deland.

16

The pre-eminent event in the social realm of the week and indeed of the season was the University club recep-tion on Thursday night. The hand-some new building was thrown open from attic to basement, and beautifully fecorated, while an immense throng of elegantly dressed women and their es-corts filled the luxurious apartments. American Beauty roses, red carnations, palms, ferns and vines were used with artistic taste, and made an appropriate complement to the handsome fur-nishings. A number of well known and popular young society girls assisted in entertaining, and several former presi-dents of the club aided Mr. Lyon, the present official, in receiving. About 600 guests were present to enjoy the not-

An elaborate home event of Thurs day night was the reception held at the home of Mrs. A. W. McCune in honor of the general boards of the M. I. A. The rooms were lavishly and beauti-fully decorated-red and green predominating with American beauty roses and carnations used with plumosa and palms. Among the guests were the First Presidency of the Latter-day Saints Church, a number of the Apostles of the same, and other prominent officials, and the affair was in every way an enjoyable one.

King.

.... The largest affair planned for next week will be the reception to be given by Col. and Mrs. E. F. Holmes in honor of the officers and ladies of Fort Doug-las on Tuesday night. The new art gallery, in which are many beautiful and valuable treasures of art, will be opened for the farst time on the oc-casion, and the event in many ways promises to be a notable one. ...

Mr. and Mrs. John Dewey entertained a few of their friends very pleasantly last evening, cards being the feature. The rooms were decorated with hearts, in commemoration of St. Valentine. Delicious refreshments were served.

A number of pretty home events were given during the earlier part of the week in honor of Miss Mabelle Snow, whose marriage to Mr. A. L. Cole took place on Wednesday. Among them were a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Hyde Tingey, and a china shower party by Mrs. Will Folland, at which the guest of honor was presented with nu-mer is dainty pieces of china.

Miss Rachel Lewis was the recipient of a surprise party on Wednesday night, a large number of her friends gathering at her home and spending a delightful evening with games and mu-sic. The winners in the prize contest were Misses Hannah Samuelson and Selina Littleford and Messrs Earl Wat. son and Herbert Lewis. Present were: Misses Selina Littleford, Tressa Lewis, Rachel Lewis, Annie Carlson, Hannah Samuelson, Stella Snow, Lizzie Harrup, Martha Littleford, Melissa Pitts, Eva Stillman and Margie Sanford: Messrs, Bert Rasmussen, Herbert Lewis, Ben Harmon, Fred Rowland, Earl Watson, Tom Harrup, Ralph Lewis, Will Webb, Peter Morris, Harry Lingreen, Will Lewis, Frank Harmon, Bert Curtis, Eldred Gourley, Jean Wilson, Harry Snell, Henry McEwan and W. Allsworth.

The character ball given at the Eighteenth ward hall on Wedneeday night, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind that have been given there. It was for the benefit of the M. I. A of the yeard and was have as L. A. of the ward, and was large y at-tended, the affair being in every way successful. Prizes were offered for the best sustained characters, the ladies' prize being awarded Mrs. Seiden Clawson as the Princess Louise, and the gentleman's to Mr. Marlow L. Cummings, who went as "Sunny Jim," the famous picture ad. of "Force," Mc. Cummings was the living copy of the picture, and in representation of his character, carried packages of the cer. cal in his hand which he offered as re-freshments to the guests. There was good music and a general good time.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Glosz entertained et a dinner on Tuesday night for their daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Glosz Whitney, covers being laid for 10. The col-ors were red, white and green, and were carried out in carnations, plumosa, and green and white shades. The place cards contained a small photograph of the guest of honor. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Niles, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Boyd and Miss Bauer, Mrs. George Rose entertained at a pretty luncheon on Thursday at the home of her mother, Mrs. McGrath. The decorations were charmingly carried out in violet, the four tables at which the guests were seated having violet ratin ribbon in streamers extending from the center of the table to each place, where they were caught with a cluster of violets. The guests were: Mrs. Dick, Mrs. Ernest Ramberger, Mrs. Reber, Mrs. Jack Keith, Mrs. D. C. Roberts, Mrs. Tom Elythe, Jr., Mrs. Charles Wilkes, Miss Read, Miss KinWells, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Mrs. Bel-vin of San Francisco, Miss Katherine Judge, John S. Critchlow.

On Thursday night, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Keith gave a dinner at their home in honor of their guest. Mrs. Thomas Blythe, who left yesterday for her home in Wyoming. The table was decorated with American beauty roses, and cov-ers were laid for nine. The party af-terward attended the University club reception.

. . . The cotillion given tast night by Miss Judge at the Ladies' Literary club was one of the social successes of the season. The hall, reception rooms and dining room were prettily decorated, and a large number of the friends of the hostess enjoyed the affair.

No pleasanter event has taken place at the U, of U, than the valentine ball given by the Alpha Pl fraternity last night. Some unique and enjoyable features were introduced, the music was delightful, the halls, attractively decorated, and the event in all ways successful. . . .

Tuesday evening Mrs. Daniel Har-rington entertained in honor of Miss Brinton and Miss Ellerbeck of the University training school, and Miss Freebairn of the Sugarhouse schools. Supper was served and the evening was entertainingly and pleasantly spent with music, literary numbers and an informal discussion of schools and school work.

. . . An enjoyable time was spent at the Elks' clubhouse on Thursday night, the wives, daughters and lady friends of the members being delightfully entertained. . . .

On Wednesday Mrs. F. T. McGurrin entertained at dinner in honor of Mrs. Frank Peters, the occasion being her forth birthday. There was a birthday cake with 60 candles, and other tok-ens of remembrance, while flowers and folicitations made the scene a bright and happy one.

On Tuesday the last assembly dance to be given before Easter took place at Christensen's and the event was as us, ual a most enjoyable one. The hall and side rooms were simply but off by decorated, and in the support was served, the guests sat at 15 tables, each of which had for a centerpiece a wreath of smiax field with deep red ribbon. About 200 were present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kahn entertained at an enloyable card party at their home on Monday. Progressive high five was the game and prizes were won by Miss L. Smith. Miss Lillian Alexander, and Messis, S. Seckles and E. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Filar entertained at a delightful dinner on Tucsday in honor of Miss Buford of Tennessee.

Invitations have been issued by the officers of the Continental Life Insur-ance company for a banque: Saturday evening, Feb. 20, at the Commercial club.

. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Parker will entertain at a Washington birthday party on the evening of Feb. 22 in honor of the Spirit of Liberty chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution,

Mrs. Mary M. F. Allen of Park City has issued invitations for a funcheon on Washington's birthday, and among the guests will be several Sait Lake

The Billie club gave an enjoyable dancing party at Ogden last night in the Dignan hall. Miss Lawson entertained informally at her home on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss McIntyre, "Pit" being the amusement. Miss Olive Jennings entertained informally at tea on Tuesday.

University club reception.

. . . An informal dancing party will be given at the Ladies' Literary club to-night, a number of well known society ladies being the hostesses.

Mrs. H. C. Edwards was hostess at a charming valentine party yesterday,

Mrs. Brownlee entertained the mem-bers of the Third Street card club on Wednesday.

Mrs. E. F. Root will entertain at cards next Thursday.

Mrs. G. L. Snow will give a valentine party on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Quayle entertained the C. C. C. at "63" very pleasantly at their home in Farmers' ward last evening.

The most elaborate home wedding of the week was that of Miss Ida Noble and Lowis C. Robinson which took place on Tuesday, at noon, with Father Kleiy of the Catholic church officiating. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the drawing room having a canopy of plumosa under which the bridal party stood, its vines enwreathing two hearts formed of white carnations. Palms formed the background, and at each Palms side stood vases of calla lilles. Pink azalias were used with palms in the library, and the dining room was done in American Beauty roses and ferns. The bride wore a handsome costume of white Venetian lace over chiffen, and a long veil of tube. Lilles of the valley were in her hand. She was at-tended by her slater, Mrs. Robert G. Smith as matron of honor, and by Miss Margaret Noble as maid of honor, while ittle Miss Noble was flower girl. Mr Will Hall acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left after the wedding for an eastern trip after which they will return here to reside.

On Wednesday Miss Mabella Snow, laughter of the late President Loronzo snow, and Mr. Alfred L. Cole of Logan were married, the event being solemned in the Temple, and an informal contion being held in the evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs unle Jensen Snow. The rooms wer-ettiny decorated in red and green d carnations with red ribbons and aseff carnations with red ribbons and as-magues plumona being artistically used a all the rooms, the stair banister be-ag laced with the ribbons, while pains and vines alded in the effect. Red baded lights were used throughout, and made the scene a charming one. The bride wore a becoming gown of chile volte, elaborately trimmed with ees. She had no attendants. Mr and lace. She had no attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Cole left after the reception for a shert trip, after which they will reade in Login.

8 8 8 On Wednesday Miss Eugenia Young G. Hardy daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Hardy of this city, and James H. Rampton were married, the ceremony being performed in the Tample, at noon, and a dinner following at the home of he bride, in the afternoon, Pink and white were the colors used in the de crations, cornations and roses carrying ut the scheme, while palms and smill x alded in the pretty effect. The din ng room was especially artistic, the ing room was especially artistic, the table being a picture with its pink and white carnations, ribbons and pink-shaded candelabra. The bride wore a dainty costume of white mulie with trimmings of point lace, and carried bride's roses. About 20 were present, comprising the near relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Rampton will leave shortly for Canada, where they will make their Canada, where they will make their home. . . .

A pretty home wedding of Wedness day was that of Miss Jessie O. Miller and Mr. Homer R. Robinson, the ceremony being performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. W. A. Paden, and a wedding Twaggon sult of mixed gray by a gaude on becoming and simple lines. The three-quarter coat is trim and, front and back, with narrow stitched box pleats, fastened with gilt buttons. The sleeves, very wide above the cuff, are trimmed with fancy braid. This braid also forms a vest and girdie. The narrow gored skirt is relieved by pleats and stitching.

Fitch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. | Walter C. Shoup is home from McMaster, pleasant visit in San Francisco.

. . . .

Working Night and Day.

. . . Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Henderson have returned to their home in Ogden, after from a very pleasant visit York and other castern cities. a pleasant visit with Judge and Mrs. Henry P. Henderson of this city,

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Newitt of Field. B. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. B. Newitt of $41 East Temple street.

Mrs. Fred Earl and Miss Welby left Thursday for Denver, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney have re-turned from their eastern trip.

ind Mrs. H. G. Whitney have re-from their eastern trip. I. E. Thorn has just returned very pleasant two months' visit Mrs. I. E. Thorn has just returned from a very in St. Louis. custern eities.

Mrs. Bubb and Miss Helen Bubb of Fort Douglas will not accompany the troops to the Philippines, but remain Miss Katherine Geddes will leave the latter part of next week for a lengthy here until fall. stay in Boston.

Miss McCuloton, Wyo., has been for a short time the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Keith. guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter at the Kenyon.

Miss Dusenberry of New York is at the post, the guest of Major and Mrs, Smith. W. E. Lawson is home from an

The busiest and might and Day. The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Fills. These pills change weak-ness into strength, listlessness into en-ergy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c a box. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store. eastern trip of several months. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stoner from Mrs. David E. Hemphill entertained supper and reception following. Preced- Evanston are spending a few days with | M. I. Drug Store.

ning.

... her recent illness.

Miss Jennie Dusenterry gave a very enjoyable party at her home on Wed-nesday evening.

The ladies of the L. D. S. Church have about completed all arrangements for the opening of their great carnival and bazar to be held in the church on Feb.

This new spring model is made of mixed tan and brown straw. The brim, which is wide, droops gracefully front and back. The trimming consists of a huge soft taffeta bow in a delicate sha do.

Hon. Thos. R. Cutler of Salt Lake City was here Thursday on business.

Miss Julia M. Thomas and Mr. Wesley M. Prestwich were married Wed-nesday and the same evening a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents. After the suppor the guests repaired to the Third ward amusement hall, where dancing was in-dulged in the rest of the evening.

Mr. Walter Webb, who held an important position with the Washington State Sugar company at Waverly, Wash., has returned to his home here.

The Ladies' Literary society met at the home of Mrs. Mostah Evans and the discussion of prominent authors was the feature of the resting.

Mr. Ed. Campbell was down from EUPEKA.

Garland this week.

Messrs, Jas. H. Gardner and M. W. Ingalls returned from the east Wednesday, where they have been the past elaborate supper was served, and the evening was replete with music, song and social cheer. About 30 guests were 10 days on business in the interest of the sugar company.

Mrs. J. T. Farrer gave a very enjoy-able children's party on Friday eve-ning in honor of her son Leland. Mr. Geo. A. Smith of Salt Lake City vas visiting relatives and friends here Wednesday. . . .

The marriage of Miss Minnie Van Wagonen and Mr. J. Penrod took place on Wednesday.

Mrs. D. D. Houtz has returned from her trip to Salt Lake.

Mrs. William String returned this past week from a very enjoyable visit with friends in Salt Lake.

Mrs. S. J. Jones was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Brown, at American Fork, this past week.

Word received from California by Mrs. Mrs. W. B. Searle states that her sister. Mrs. George Havercamp, is rapidly gaining her health.

The ladies of the Episcopal church gave a very enjoyable ball at the Mozart hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dunn entertained Eureka .- Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vin-cent, who have been the guests of Mr. on Monday last in honor of Mr. John Findley.

and Mrs. D. C. Sullivan, have returned Mrs. R. A. Barney is out again after to their home at Bingham Junction.

Mrs. William Nichols returned to her home at Welser, Ida., this week, after a sojourn with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Chivrell and Mrs. A. L. Ritchie.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Belmont were hap-ily surprised by a large number of friends at their home on Thursday eve-

FANCY STRAW AND RIBBON.

