"Natural Gas."

The favorite comedians, Donnelly and Girard, with their new company, will return to this city, opening at the Salt Lake Theatre on Monday next for three nights in their laughing success, "Natural Gas—in a new meter." The play has been revised and is now said to be better and funnier than ever. The comedians have introduced a host of novelties, in the way of music, songs, dances, specialties, striking situations and beautiful costumes, and have a strong farce-comedy company to support them.

Another Ogden Fire.

An alarm of fire was sounded by the bell on the City Hall this morning at 1:15 o'clock. The department quickly responded to the call, but the alarm registered the wrong locality.

The hose wagon and engine went to Twenty-fourth Street, but the fire was located in a barn on the premises of Hon. D. H. Perry, Twenty-fourth Street and Adams Avenue. The hose wagon was directed to the scene of the fire, and in a few moments had a stream on the flames.

The engine broke down, and was compelled to stop on Washington Avenue. Luckily its services were not required, as the city water pressure was sufficient to cope with the flames. After a hard struggle the fire was under control, but not before the barn and entire contents were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $1,000, fully insured. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to be the work of tramps who have been in the habit of sleeping in the hay.—Standard.

CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

The Appenyi Plans Adopted at a Special Meeting Last Night.

PUGILISTIC MANIFESTATIONS.

Mr. R. Kletting to Superintend the Construction of the Joint Building.

A special session of the City Council was held last night for the purpose of accepting or rejecting the plans and specifications of C. E. Appenyi for the joint city and county building. Mayor Scott presided. The following members were also present: Parsons, Spafford, Karrick, Pembroke, Heath, Hall, Noble, Anderson, Cohn, James, Packard and Lynn. Of the county officials there were present, Judge Bartch, Selectmen Howe, Cahoon and Miller, while the Architects' Association was represented by Messrs. Hale, Spher, Carroll, Costerisan and others.

On motion of Councilman Lynn the rules were suspended and the transaction of business proceeded with as mentioned below.

The following resolution was read by Deputy Recorder Woodruff:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this committee that the city and county proceed to erect the joint city and county building on the plans of C. E. Appenyi, with such further changes as may be required under the superintendence of some suitable and competent architect."

Councilman Karrick—I move to adopt the report of the committee.

Councilman Anderson—I move to amend by striking out the words C. E. Appenyi.

Councilman Lynn—Such action virtually kills the resolution. We might as well reject the whole thing.

Councilman Anderson—That is just what we ought to do. I believe the plans and specifications are defective from beginning to end.

Councilman James—Mr Anderson has condemned the Appenyi plans as being entirely defective. As the gentleman has given no reason for condemning them I should like to hear him state specifically the grounds of rejection.

Councilman Anderson—I am not capable of saying whether or not they are really defective from an architectural standpoint, neither do I believe that the council can judge properly in the matter. But I believe if the building is constructed as designed by Appenyi it will be an abortion of the worst kind. I should always look upon it as an eyesore and I believe others would also look upon it with regret.

Councilman Hall—I rise to a point of order. The report is not a correct one.

Councilman Anderson—It is the report of the committee.

Councilman Hall—I beg to dispute it. The signatures of myself and Mr. Lynn are not subscribed to that report.

Councilman Anderson (springing to his feet excitedly and assuming a pugilistic pose)—Sir, do you mean to say that I am a liar?

Mayor Scott—Come to order; come to order, gentlemen.

Councilman Parsons—In my opinion Mr. Hall is right. This meeting was called to discuss the recommendations of the improvement committee, with a view to employing Mr. Kletting.

When order was restored the report from the committee on improvements was read. It is as follows:

"Your committee on improvements, to whom was referred back the attached papers and reports in regard to engaging an architect for city and county building, with request that we confer with the county authorities as to the propriety of having entire new plans prepared, respectfully report that we have consulted with the committee representing the county in this matter and at a joint meeting held December 27th, it was voted to recommend to the City Council and County Court. First, that they proceed to erect the joint city and county building on plans furnished by C. E. Appenyi. Second, that R. Kletting be employed as architect to superintend the construction of said building and to make such changes in the plans and specifications as may be required, provided a contract can be made with Mr. Kletting that will be satisfactory to both parties. After that action of the joint committee, the plans for the building were placed in the hands of Mr. Kletting for consultation, with the request that he inform your committee, as soon as possible, as to the terms of a contract under which he would undertake to revise and perfect the plans and specifications, and superintend the construction of the building. He has notified your committee that, after a careful examination of the plans, he adheres to the main features of his proposition, viz.: first, $2,500 for revising and perfecting the plans and specifications. Second, 1½ per cent of the cost of the building for superintending the construction of the same, he guaranteeing that it shall not cost over $300,000. If desired, he will submit the revised plans to Prof. Ware, of Columbia college, and obtain his approval of same, and pay $500 towards the fee charged by Prof. Ware. As to the details of an agreement with him, he only asks that they be made clear and full, so as to bind both parties and leave as little chance as possible for misunderstanding, and thinks those details can be best arranged by the attorney in conference with him and the joint committee. If he is employed, he offers to furnish a bond for any reasonable amount, guaranteeing the city and county against loss from any defect in the plans and specifications, and providing that he shall faithfully and honestly perform his work as architect and superintendent of construction."

More fruitless discussion followed the reading of the report.

Finally the report was adopted on motion of Councilman Karrick. The vote stood as follows: Yeas—Spafford, Heath, Cohn, Hall, Karrick, Lynn, James, 7. Noes—Anderson, Parsons, Noble, 3.

FROM THE COUNTY COURT.

The following communication was received from the County Court:

Hon. G. M. Scott, Mayor Salt Lake City:

Dear Sir—The following is of record upon the minutes of the County Court under date of January 8, 1891. "Moved and carried, that it is the sense of the County Court that the Joint City and County Building be constructed upon the site already selected, after the plans of C. E. Appenyi, with such changes and modifications as may be adopted by the joint committee on said building, subject to the approval of the City Council and this court."

Respectfully submitted,

C. E. ALLEN, Clerk.

Mayor Scott invited County Selectman Miller to address the council on the subject at issue. Mr. Miller responded in substance as follows: I have given the matter [illegible] careful attention. In my [illegible] work on the structure [illegible] commenced at once. There [illegible] too much delay already. The county has no offices suitable for conducting its business. I have examined the credentials of Mr. Kletting and find them to be satisfactory. I think he should be employed to supervise the construction of the joint building.

Councilman Parsons moved that a blue-print copy of the plans be furnished to each firm of architects in the city to revise and submit back to the joint committee within thirty days thereafter, and that the plans selected by the committee be accepted as the plans of the building.

Councilman James—Further competition in the matter is impracticable. As a matter of fact there has been competition, but the matter has now reached a point when we can go no further in that direction. The report of the committee has been adopted; therefore the motion of Mr. Parsons is out of order.

Mayor Scott so decided and Councilman Parsons withdrew his motion.

Judge Bartch spoke as follows: The architects of the city had asked for thirty days in which to present plans and offer changes to the Appenyi plans. He did not think it would delay things any to keep the matter open for that length of time, and therefore he would not oppose it. However, the plan had been delayed so long that he thought something definite should be done at once. The county was very much limited for room, and the city also needed room. If the whole question could be settled at once, he would be glad of it.

County Selectman Howe—I am already on record in this matter and will only say that I am in hearty accord with the action taken by the City Council.

As a majority of the members of the County Court had expressed themselves in harmony with the City Council, further action was temporarily deferred and the Council adjourned until Tuesday evening, January 13.

ON THE SAMOAN ISLANDS.

Elder Dean's Lecture Before the Students' Society.

Last night a select audience assembled in the Social Hall to listen to a lecture on the above subject by Elder Joseph H. Dean, before the Students' Society of the Latter-day Saints' College. A map of the Samoan group of islands was exhibited to the audience, and contributed largely to a clear understanding of the geographical points touched upon. In addition to this, specimens of cloths, war clubs, fly brushes, baskets, necklaces, fans, ava-bowl, etc., were shown, and viewed with great interest.

The speaker prefaced his remarks by referring to his missionary experiences, calling attention to the map and giving a brief description of the group. The climate, vegetation, etc., also received attention. The islands, said the lecturer, are of coral formation. Some of them are surmounted by volcanic islands and coral reefs. The natives were described and some of their peculiar customs narrated. Their food was said to consist of bread fruit, bananas, cocoanuts, fruit, fish, etc. Their chief vegetable is the "kalo," which tastes more like a potato than anything else known to Americans. The cocoanut is one of the most useful of the articles known to the Samoans. The fibres of the husks are used for ropes, etc., their shells for cups, and so forth, the juice for seasoning, the leaves for fans, baskets, and the fluid for oil. The drink made from the "ava" is the equivalent in use to the "pipe of peace" of the American Indian. The ava-bowl is made from the cross-section of a tree.

The speaker gave a brief account of the late Samoan difficulty, and especially dwelt upon that portion with which he came in contact. He spoke of the respect shown toward the missionaries by the belligerents. A description of the terrible disaster in the harbor of Apia followed. It began, said the lecturer, on a Thursday evening, and was first signalled by a heavy wind, which continued during the night and the next day. He witnessed the terrible scene attendant upon this storm, and was therefore now able to give a graphic description of the same.

Elder Dean closed with a statement of the advantages attaching to the Samoan mission, and the condition of that mission at the present time.

An organ solo by Miss Jennie Smith and a song by Miss Cumorah Smith made up the remainder of the evening's programme.

A Bad Fall.

A man whose name could not be ascertained fell into the cellar of the Utah Loan and Trust Company's building Thursday evening, at Ogden. The sidewalk on Twenty-fourth street is very narrow where the building is being constructed.

The unfortunate individual who met with the accident stepped to the inside of the walk to allow a party of ladies to pass. The locality is rather dark, and he stepped into one of the many holes which are unprotected by a guard rail. The man went into the cellar and was considerably bruised and shaken up by his fall. Fortunately no bones were broken, and the party remarked that he considered himself lucky that he did not break his neck.

Third District Court.

J. F. Marks vs. W. H. Cassidy; stay of judgment pending decision of new trial.

W. H. Cassidy vs. Marks; same order.

Christina Peterson vs. Ole Peterson; motion of defendant to open default and vacate decree argued and submitted.

Fred McGurrin vs. Salt Lake County; demurrer to complaint argued by Walter Murphy for defendant. Case under consideration.

Ada M. Saxton vs. George Saxton; J. H. Harris appointed referee to take testimony.

Literary Notes.

Sister Rose Gertrude, the young lady about whose work among the lepers of Molokai so much has been written, has been induced to reply to the charges made against her for renouncing her work. Her article the first from her pen, is to be published in The Ladies' Home Journal for February, and will contain a full explanation of what she has accomplished among the lepers, and why she was obliged to forsake her work.

Hood's Calendar for 1891 is out. This calendar has become so popular that it is regarded almost as a household necessity. Three bright children playing musical instruments are pictured on the card, while the days and weeks and months are given in clear, plain figures below.

R. K. Thomas' Bargains.

One of the most popular stores in town, and deservedly so, is that of R. K. Thomas on First South Street, the patronage of which is steadily increasing. Among the reasons for Mr. Thomas' success may be mentioned the excellent quality of the goods he carries, which are carefully selected in the eastern markets by himself, and the uniformly reasonable prices at which they are sold. The politeness and attention of the salesmen and saleswomen constitute another factor in the attractiveness of the store, and the confidence which the public has evinced in the institution and the goods there offered for sale is attributable, in part at least, to the fact that when a bargain sale is announced the advertisement means just what it says. For instance, Mr. Thomas offers the Ladies Mojeska Wraps, the making of which cost from $15.00 to $25.00, at $3.50, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 each, for one day only—on Monday, Jan. 12th. There is no doubt but the demand for these goods will be equal to the supply, and as a result the store will be more than usually crowded with customers on Monday to secure the bargains.

A CONFERENCE

Between Railroad Officials and Members of the Transportation Bureau.

Yesterday afternoon a conference took place in this city between the railroad officials and members of the Bureau of Transportation of the Chamber of Commerce. Among those present were Messrs. Fred Simon, G. F. Culmer, T. G. Webber, W. H. Remington, Henry Cohn, A. L. Williams, H. C. Lett, H. P. Mason and Commissioner W. C. B. Allen of the Transportation Bureau; Messrs. J. A. Munroe, traffic manager of the Union Pacific Railway, S. W. Eccles, general freight agent of the Union Pacific Railway, J. H. Bennett, general freight agent of the Rio Grande Western Railway, and A. N. Oliver, general agent of the Denver & Rio Grande. The object of the meeting was to present the situation in its various bearings, to state the wishes of the community and to try and arrange for co-operation of the companies in the settlement and development of Utah, also for such adjustment of tariffs as would encourage and assist in finding a market for good manufactured products and the immense mineral and other deposits, as well as to establish the wholesale and jobbing interests of this city.

The position taken by Salt Lake is that on account of the great amount of freight and passenger traffic, and the natural advantages of its location, the merchants of this city are entitled to the rates on the basis adopted in transcontinental tariff and offered to the terminal points; for instance, when the rate from the Missouri River to San Francisco and Portland is 90 cents per 100 weight that the same rate should apply to Salt Lake City instead of the greater rate, which is now and always has been applied to "intermediate" points. This would be a general reduction from $1.25 to 90 cents on a certain class and a proportional reduction upon all other classes. In addition to this basis of rates desired, the members of the Bureau insisted that passenger rates to Utah should not be greater than to Montana common points, as they believed that this was a direct discrimination affecting the settlement and prosperity of the Territory.

A third proposition discussed by the committee in its meetings, and generally adopted by the merchants and manufacturers of this city, was that a distributing rate was essential to the expansion of the wholesale trade to the surrounding territories. Another proposition included within the last named, was the existing status of affairs which established so many common points in Utah on the same basis of rates as Salt Lake City. A number of questions arising in this local territory required the joint action of the Rio Grande Western and the Union Pacific companies to change or adjust, so as to meet the views of a great many shippers and conflicting interests. The Chamber of Commerce has already protested against any advance in freight and passenger rates to this city.

In the course of the discussion a great mass of details was elicited, showing both sides of the question in regard to local and through freight and passenger rates. One important fact presented for the consideration of the railway companies was the necessity for cheap fuel for manufacturing purposes, in order to build up a great industrial city and utilize the valuable deposits nature has deposited in Utah.

As a result of the conference the matter was referred to the local freight agents, Messrs. Eccles and Bennett, to be taken up by the Bureau and settled from time to time as an agreement can be arrived at.

Other matters were discussed, but it was decided to allow them to remain in abeyance until such time as the Bureau could authoritatively make them public.

Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and Incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found before he had used half of a dollar bottle that he was much better; he continued to use it and is today enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest Trouble, try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drug Store.

I had Stone in the Bladder.

And my kidneys were affected. None of the means taken produced any benefit until I began the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy of Rondout, N. Y. The pain ceased—the stone having been dissolved by the action of the medicine. I am ready in public or in private to testify that my recovery is due to Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.—E. D. W. Parsons, Rochester.

How Severe Colds are Broken in Montana.

(From the Virginia City, Mont. Madisonian.)

When we find a medicine we know to possess genuine merit, we consider it a duty, and we take pleasure in telling the public what it is. Such a medicine we found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, last winter, when la grippe was prevailing. We are satisfied that we warded off several attacks that were threatening by the use of this syrup, and we have since relieved, in a few hours, severe colds, and in the course of two or three days, entirely broken them up by its use, as have several of our friends to whom we have recommended it. It is all that it is represented to be by the manufacturers. If you have a cough and want to stop it Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will do the work. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Short Work of a Troublesome Case.

One day I was taken with Paralysis of the Bowels. The stomach and other organs lost all power of action. Although opposed to proprietary medicines I tried Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y. To make a long story short it saved my life. It is the best medicine in the world for difficulties of the kidneys, liver and bowels.—A. J. Gifford, Lowell, Mass.

A Card.

We take pleasure in advising our friends and patrons, and the public generally, that we have sold our boot and shoe business to Spencer and Lynch, who will continue the business as before at 103 So. Main St.
