

Mrs. Annie Felsted's request for a reduction of her tax, amounting to $10.40, was denied.

The valuation of $24,100 on the property of Henry Reiser, in the Sixth Ward, was confirmed.

The tax of $2.20 assessed against Mrs. Counsell, of the Sixteenth Ward, was remitted.

The valuation of $11,500 on the property of Mrs. Mary E. Smiley, on South Main Street, was confirmed.

The tax assessed against Eliza J. Jones, $8.40, was reduced to $3.40.

The valuation of $62,680 on B. G. Raybould's property was confirmed.

The valuation of $700 on the property of Mrs. Kallstrom, of the Nineteenth Ward, was confirmed.

The valuation of $20,500 on two lots belonging to Joe Baumgarten, was confirmed.

The tax of Mrs. M. G. Atwood was reduced from $20 to $15.

Mrs. Marian Ross failed to get a reduction of her tax, amounting to $12.

The valuation of $3140 on Mrs. Kingdon's property, was confirmed.

The tax of $11.60 against Eliza Standing was reduced to $6.60 because her husband was blind.

The valuation on the property of Mrs. M. J. Thurston was confirmed.

The valuation of $3,350 on the property of W. C. Spence was reduced to $2,850.

Five dollars was taken off the tax of Mrs. E. Decker of the Sixteenth Ward.

The request of Mrs. E. Harris, of the Tenth Ward, for a reduction of her tax, $19.60, was denied.

Mrs. N. P. Brichell's request for a reduction of her tax, $16.40, met with a similar fate.

The tax of Mrs. B. Clawson, of the Eighteenth Ward, amounting to $2.80, was remitted.

The valuation of $23,700 on Mrs. Hanks' property in the Thirteenth Ward, was confirmed.

The board sustained Clute's assessment of $45.60 against H. Ensign of the Eighth Ward.

The valuation of $2700 on Mrs. E. Mason's property in the Nineteenth Ward was confirmed.

The board sustained Clute's valuation of $2500 on John Donkin's property in the Eleventh Ward.

The valuation of $1728 on Mrs. A. Erskin's property was confirmed.

Samuel McKay's request for a reduction in the valuation of $9000 on his lot in the Eleventh Ward was refused.

The valuation of $19,800 on S. A. Woolley's land in the Ninth Ward was confirmed.

The valuation of $4400 on A. M. Woolley's lot, in the same ward, was confirmed.

Clute's valuation of $2400 on Eliza Smith's property in the Twentieth Ward was confirmed.

B. B. Bitner was allowed to make a statement when his case came up. His lot in the Sixteenth Ward was valued at $9,000, while he paid only $6,000 for the property in December last. Mr. Bitner also objected to the valuation of $24,600 on his lot 10x15 rods, at the corner of Fourth South and Third East. The first case was passed for investigation, while the valuation in the second case was confirmed, although Councilman Hall protested against that property being assessed as business property.

The valuation of $10,600 on the property of Mrs. L. M. McCullough was confirmed.

The board refused to reduce Clute's valuation of $1,850 in A. J. Oliver's lot.

The valuation of $1900 on the property of Arthur Hulbert, in the Twentieth Ward, was reduced to $1400.

The council sustained Clute's valuation of $950 per foot on F. D. Clift's Overland House property, and $61,700 on the Clift Row property.

The valuation of $23,800 on J. S. Groesbeck's property on Fourth East Street, between State and First East streets, was confirmed.

The board then adjourned.

At the board of equalization meeting Thursday, September 11, Mayor Scott presided. Assessor Clute was not in attendance.

The valuation of $32,100 on the property of the estate of R. B. Margetts, in the Nineteenth Ward, was confirmed.

The valuation of $5000 on the personal property of Amelia Button was confirmed.

The valuation of $8800 on Mary Mayer's lot on Fifth South Street was confirmed, but $5 was knocked off her tax.

The tax of Mrs. Ann Pickerlug, amounting to $4, was remitted.

Mrs. Ellen Lovesy, of the Tenth Ward, was relieved from paying her tax of $8.20 because she was a widow.

J. A. Janey's protest against Clute's valuation of $3000 on his lot in the Nineteenth Ward was overruled.

The tax assessed against Mrs. Andrew Jensen, of the Tenth Ward, amounting to $6, was remitted.

Clute's valuation of $17,400 on the property of John Coulam, on Seventh East Street, was confirmed.

The assessment on the property of Mrs. W. W. Erickson, valued at $2,600, was wiped out, because the lady had recently been released from the insane asylum and had no means.

The valuation of $51,900 on W. H. Folsom's property in the Fourteenth Ward was confirmed.

The assessor's valuation of $27,500 on the property of James Hague on Third South Street was confirmed.

The valuation of $5,150 on E. A. Keller's property was confirmed.

Five dollars was knocked off the tax of Mrs. B. C. Anderson because of widowhood.

The valuation of $3,800 on the property of Mrs. E. Eardley in the Seventh Ward was confirmed.

Clute's valuation of $13,200 on the property of the estate of John McDonald, situated on First South Street, was confirmed.

Five dollars was remitted of the tax assessed against Mrs. Alice Bruner.

Mrs. Annie Johnson, of the Nineteenth Ward, was granted the same relief.

Five dollars was remitted from the tax assessed against J. L. Maxwell, of the Ninth Ward.

The tax assessed against J. J. Witch, of the Nineteenth Ward, on property valued at $2550, was wiped out on account of old age and sickness.

The valuation of $11,800 on the property of J. H. Almond, of the Nineteenth Ward, was confirmed.

The board confirmed Clute's valuation of $14,200 on D. McKenzie's property.

The request of Harriet Hocking to be relieved from taxes amounting to $21 was denied.

The valuation of $58,500 of the property of Mary E. Woolley, corner of Second South and Second East, was confirmed.

The valuation of $5600 on O. A. Woolley's lot on Ninth East Street was confirmed.

The valuation of $2500 on the property of George Hewlett on First South Street was confirmed.

The assessor's valuation of $7350 on H. A. Woolley's Third South Street property was confirmed.

Mrs. Woolley's protest on the valuation of $8200 on her property on Fourth Street was also overruled.

The valuation of $6100 on Mrs. J. Price's property on Fourth South Street was confirmed.

The valuation of $5860 on Caroline Fullmer's property in the Fourth Ward was confirmed.

The valuation of $5900 on Sophia Nadle's property on Fourth South Street was confirmed.

The valuation of $8500 on D. L. Murdock's property, in the Twentieth Ward, was confirmed.

Clute's valuation of $5300 on the property of G. O. Jensen, situated in the Nineteenth Ward, was confirmed.

The valuation of $8630 on the property of Robert Patrick, in the Eighteenth Ward, was reduced $130 on account of the Twentieth Ward ditch running through the land.

The valuation of $5,225 on the property of W. M. Anderson, in the Sixth Ward, was confirmed.

The valuation of $5,300 on the property of George Openshaw, in the Eighteenth Ward, was reduced to $4,000.

The valuation of $36,000 on property belonging to the estate of Joseph Toronto was reduced $1,000.

The valuation of $8,500 on the property of L. C. Trent in the Eighteenth Ward was confirmed. The valuation of $20,600 on the old American hotel property, owned by Mr. Trent, was confirmed.

Mr. Rowe's request that the tax assessed against Z. C. M. I. shoe factory be remitted was overruled.

The assessor was ordered to correct an error in the assessment of L. F. Taylor, of the Fourteenth Ward.

The valuation of $90,700 on Mil-an Atwood's property, corner Second South and State streets, was confirmed.

The valuation of $181,000 on the lathing house property, held by the receiver, was confirmed.

The valuation of $11,900 on the property of Mrs. C. J. Young, in Eighteenth Ward, was reduced to $5500.