THE regular monthly meeting of the Salt Lake County W. S. A. will be held at the Thirteenth ward assembly room, Thursday, the 25th, at 2 p. m. All members are urged to be present. The public are cordially invited, as it is expected that the meeting will be a very interesting one.

FIRE department No. 2 worked assiduously for a long time this morning in extinguishing the flames of a hay stack in the corner of Third South and Second West streets. It was the property of J. Hanlon, and was presumably set on fire by an incendiary. The loss was not learned.

THE liquor men, so said a prominent saloon keeper to a News reporter yesterday, will, as a rule, obey the law prohibiting the sale of liquor on Sunday, but they are determined that the sale of all kinds of other goods must also be stopped on that day, including lemonade, soda water and ice cream. As to liquor being sold by the breweries and suburban resort keepers, detectives will be employed to watch and obtain evidence against them.

BRIEFLY stated, at 7:30 the City Council will resolve itself into a board of equalization and review and take up a labor covering a series of ten consecutive sessions. All persons desiring relief from heavy assessment should either appear before the board in person or by proxy, or send in their complaints, clearly defined in writing. All communications should be addressed to the board of equalization and review, Recorder's office, city hall.

A MEETING of the "Liberal" city committee—and not of the Territorial committee, as erroneously stated in a morning contemporary—is to be held at Judge Powers' office some time this afternoon, to consider the question of making the necessary arrangements for the fall campaign. It is said to be the intention of Judge Powers to resign his position as chairman of the Territorial committee, on the ground that he finds the work more than he can say longer undertake.

ALL local veteran soldiers and their friends will join with the George R. Maxwell Post in an excursion to Wagner's Grove on Friday next. An old time army dinner of pork and beans, hard tack and such other crude but substantial edibles as are commonly partaken of by the "boys in blue" when engaged in active campaign service. An interesting programme of exercises has been arranged for. It includes speeches, recitations, relation of personal reminiscences, readings, and vocal and instrumental music.

AT the Council session on Saturday night Deputy Recorder Ellsworth, the mental and physical Hercules of the City Hall, who has made himself considerable of a favorite with the reported and general public by his obliging and strikingly modest manner, began to exhibit signs of weariness at the protracted and unprecedented discussion indulged in by the city fathers. He was observed gradually to yield himself up to the alluring embrace of Morpheus. Soon he was wrapped in slumber, much to the amusement of the city solons. Finland drew up a resolution requesting that Mr. Ellsworth seek out a more refined spot in which to perform his semi-unconscious feats, but before the document was presented the "sleeping beauty" awoke and the merriment soon subsided.

The regular meeting of the officers and teachers of the Sunday schools of this Stake will be held tonight, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Fourteenth Ward assembly rooms. Allison from Tyler, Tex.; Dr. Peter Barkey and wife from Erie, Pa., and D. A. Sandey of Cleveland, Ohio.

Was It An Overlight?

Commissioner Pratt was occupied nearly the whole of this forenoon with the preliminary hearing of the charge against W. S. Ferris, of using certain bottles and horseradish labels belonging to the Salt Lake Pickle Co., with intent to defraud. The defendant, it was alleged, filled the bottles with horseradish of his own preparation, and sold them, with others, to Johnson, Remington & Co. of this city.

Assistant County Attorney Elcheer and Attorney Taylor appeared to prosecute; Attorney Armstrong represented the accused.

The defense was that Ferris, not having enough of his own bottles to fill the order, went to a local restaurant and purchased a number bearing the labels of the Salt Lake Pickle company. It was claimed that he had no intention whatever to defraud, but that he inadvertently omitted to wash off the company's labels.

The commissioner took the matter under advisement until later in the day.

At 8 p. m. he discharged the defendant, on the ground that there was no criminal intent.

RENDERED HOMELESS.

The Residence of a Dairyman Destroyed Near Wasatch.

A lady who came in from Wasatch yesterday afternoon reports that a dairyman's house, which stood near the railroad track in the mouth of Big Cottonwood canyon, was burned to the ground with all its contents. The family were rendered entirely shelterless and were observed by the passengers to walk contentedly about the premises bewailing the catastrophe that had befallen them. The lady did not ascertain the name of the unfortunate people. Some generous hearted individual went up in Wasatch and took up a collection among the campers and pleasure seekers. Quite an amount was thus raised. The origin of the fire was not learned.

KESLER'S GOOD HUMOR.

He Disposed of Cases with Unusual Alacrity This Morning—The Cases He Heard.

Justice Kesler was in better humor this morning than at any time since he was "roasted" by the preachers at the indignation meeting held in the Wasatch hall recently. Business was transacted with more than usual alacrity and the court was observed to smile frequently. The first on the docket was James Malin, charged with vagrancy and assault and battery. He was adjudged guilty and fined $5.

William Westcott, an alleged all round idler, arraigned for vagrancy, was discharged.

Pat Hollywood acknowledged that he had acquired a Sunday drink of such extensive proportions that he was unable to walk on account of the alleged walls rising up and hitting him in the face.

Thomas Kelley, charged with breaking the splendor of the Sabbath by loud and boisterous demonstrations. His case was set down for this afternoon.

John Brown, a penniless tramp, is in durance vile for seeking alms on the public streets.

Wm. Shaw, for disturbing the peace, went on his way rejoicing there being "no case" against him.

Al Smith had been taken in tow on a similar charge. The court concluded to make an example of Smith and mulcted him in the sum of $5.

Charles Wing was called upon to pay a $5 bill for driving on the sidewalk.

Robert Foster, one of Uncle Sam's boys in blue, is booked on the trial docket for resisting an officer.

F. Wagner and John Ellis are booked on a charge of fighting. The case was fixed for hearing this afternoon.

Thomas Kelley will be compelled to meet the charge of an aggravated assault and battery case this afternoon.

Sam Kwong and Yo Ing Chong, a brace of benighted Chinamen, will appear in court this afternoon for assault and battery.

Walter Evans paid the police clerk $5 for the privilege of getting drunk.

James Lynch was run in last night for indulging in a similar pastime. His case was fixed for hearing this p.m.

Bonds for liquor licenses approved and ordered issued in cases of Zimmerman & Hantzer, Bingham; Bourgeod & Co. and D. C. Williams, Murray.

Petition of W. A. Parkhurst for relief on account of tax sale referred to attorney.

The committee to whom was referred the petition of Robert McKay reported recommending that the same be referred to attorney. Adopted.

Harvey Hardy presented his resignation as selectman of Salt Lake County. Resignation not accepted. Mr. Hardy contemplates allying himself with the Republican party, and hence his reluctance to hold office as a "Liberal."

Returned Elders.

Elders H. M. Rawlins and Frank F. Merrill have just returned from a mission to Indian Territory. Brother Merrill enjoyed good health up to the 15th of July, when he was overcome by the heat and prostrated with fever. There was every indication of the effects of sunstroke. Everything was done for his comfort, and preparations were made to bring him home as soon as possible. He is now at his father's residence in the Ninth ward and rapidly recovering. The fever has left him.

Elder Rawlins reports all well in the mission in Indian Territory and says it is generally in a good condition.

A New Kind of Diamond.

Jos. Kirk & Co., of Chicago, whose advertisement appears in the News, have put upon the market lately, as a result of their half century's experience, their Dusky Diamond soap, a soap adapted to all household uses. It's a happy but peculiar combination they are enabled to use far in this soap, and there is no one that needs to be told that far is recognized as the greatest of the boiling agents. It also is recognized for its softening qualities, and any one troubled with hard hands, cracked hands, sore hands, will become enthusiastic over the "Dusky Diamond" soap after once using it. Your grocer keeps it.

THE LEHIGH VALLEY STRIKE.

Special Police Sworn In—In the Dales.

BUFFALO, Aug. 15.—The police commissioners today are busy swearing in special policemen on account of the railroad strike. The sheriff is also swearing in deputies outside the city limits at the yards. The sheriff will call on the military, only as a last resort. In the mills of one of the cots burned last night, the police have found the remains of an empty kerosene can, showing the manner in which the fire was started by the incendiaries. The car department claims that the work of the men at the Buffalo shops that was more than repaired by the cutting of the hose by unknown parties. Twelve lengths of hose were cut and rendered useless in the night.

It is estimated that from 100 to 200 cars were destroyed by incendiary fire. Everything was quiet in the yards up to noon. The reported strike will be likely to spread to the Erie yards at Hornellsville. Grand Master Sweeney emphatically endorses the action of the strikers, and states it was the work of irresponsible individuals, who could not be controlled, and not of the strikers.

What an Anarchist Says.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 15.—Anarchist Knobl, who was released on bail Saturday night does not feel sanguine as to the result of the case against him. He said: I am almost positive I will be convicted, not because I am in any way guilty of planning assassination of Frick, or because I was in any way implicated in the attempted assassination, but merely because I admit that I am an Anarchist and say I am proud of it. Anarchists do not believe in the murder of capitalists. What possible good would it do to me, if my employers were to be blown to atoms by an explosion of dynamite? That would not better my condition one bit. Neither would it help the cause of anarchism. It would only far more harm than good to our cause."

Thermometer Mix.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—The cholera situation is more favorable here. Yesterday only twelve deaths were reported. Official reports show that throughout the infected districts the daily average is still now cases of cholera and 42% deaths.

The gale increased and it is supposed the "Thessalo" capsized. When day broke no trace could be seen of the vessel.

An Expensive Vote.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 15.—When the general assembly met this morning to adjourn for the summer, Governor Brown sent in his veto of the revenue bill which had been under consideration for over nine months, before its adoption. This was the only measure upon which the assembly failed. The state is out several hundred thousand dollars, as the legislature will have to go back to the beginning.

Discharged for Color Blindness.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 15.—During the two weeks past four Illinois, Ohio and Indiana engineers have been discharged on account of color blindness. The men are among the oldest in the employ of the company and have run on the road night and day for years. It was found to be better than the average and the men have asked to be returned to their positions as it is understood that the Illinois will not accept them. The Brotherhood of the men have say that unless the men are reinstated trouble will follow. The railroads in Jersey City from the West are being partially suspended. Two Enormous Ice Bergs.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The British ship "North," Captain Newson, at Hilo from Portland, Oregon, reports that on June 11, in latitude 43 degrees 10 minutes N., longitude 32 degrees W., she passed two enormous icebergs, while many more were visible ahead. The "North" sailed north with a solid ice blink of bergs ranging from seventy to two hundred feet in height, while the open water was filled with great quantities of broken ice. At 10 o'clock on the night of June 11th the vessel was entirely surrounded by ice and it was feared that she would be crushed, but she finally succeeded in forcing the wind changed and enabled her to clear the bergs. She had many marvelous escapes from destruction. The bergs were of most exact shape, mike long, resembling a large volcanic wave. The report of "North" bears out the reports from other vessels from Boston, Cape Ann, and states it was the work of irresponsible individuals, who could not be controlled, and not of the strikers.

Returned from Europe.

Bishop George Romney, of the Twentieth Ward, has returned from an extended trip to Europe. He was accompanied on the return day, and was welcomed home by numerous friends. He visited France, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium and Holland, besides the British Isles. The journey has benefited him greatly in health, and he looks stout, robust and hearty, and feels as well as he appears. During his long stay he was accompanied by his daughter, who has been the seat and diligence of the young Elders laboring in the British Mission.

Rather Funny.

Of all the offenders arraigned in the police court this morning only two or three were for drunkenness notwithstanding that nearly all the cubicle occupants had to sleep off the effects of their debauch. The many arrests made by a City Marshal that seemed to throw considerable light on the question. He intimated that it was necessary for the administration to make a good showing on the Sunday saloon closing prosecution and therefore when men are upon his beat on the Saturday night intoxicated, trifling charges of different kinds are preferred against them and of course the list of closing cubicle is thus made a very meagre one.

The Knights of Pythias Must Help Themselves.

W. A. McKenna, of the order of Knights of Pythias at Salt Lake City, has written to the Chancellor of Commerce to the following effect:

"The Knights of Pythias are contemplating going from here to Kansas City August 23, to attend the anniversary of the order on August 29-31, five days' meeting. An effort is being made to get all the uniform division from Salt Lake to go in a body and with a band if possible, but cash is short with us for that purpose."

Mr. McKenna says that if the Chamber also in the transportation to Kansas City the Knights will distribute literature advertising Utah, and will do anything in the interest of the city and Territory.

Secretary Sears, in reply, said: "We are powerless to help you financially. We exhausted our resources by sending four men to Denver last week to work among the Teamsters' assemblies there. These men paid all their own expenses. Only $50 in the whole city contributed for the purpose and only one hotel man."

BROWN LEGHORNS.

How to Obtain the Most Profitable Egg Layers from This Popular Variety.

Mentioned with other popular varieties of poultry in the Brown Leghorn. This specialty bird is to be found every where—in the farm poultry yard, in the fancier's yard of the city resident, and holding a conspicuous place among the favorites of the fancy. Such a wide distribution betokens solid worth, for while the fancier and city resident may for form and feather, the farmer, the farmer's wife and the city housewife want eggs and flesh. The Leghorn will give as many of the former as one could reasonably ask a bird to give, although individual specimens of the breed have proved a source of fault as individuals of some other breed. As for beauty, it is difficult to find birds of more pleasing color or graceful form.

It is a generally known fact that Brown Leghorns can be bred to quite a large size, when Wyeth Dorcas, a Massachusetts gentleman, in The Country Gentleman from which this out is reproduced, Mr. Dorcas, who knows decreasing the size of his stock, as he usually uses an Leghorn Dorcas, says:

To get the greatest possible value from the breed, the individuals should be hatched as early as possible. It is a great mistake to suppose they can well be hatched late in the season simply because they mature quickly. Hatches late, the pullets will rarely lay before the following spring, when eggs will shortly be at their lowest point. They should be hatched so as to be put to laying by the 1st of September. The six dozen of eggs which each one ought to lay between that time and late winter, meeting the highest prices of the year, will go a long way toward making the Leghorn one of the most profitable breeds. But if one expects to secure good results with these fowls, he must make up his mind to give them plenty of room and plenty of opportunities to indulge their natural habits of roaming, and under conditions they will prove exceedingly unremunerative.

Looking at the breed from a fancy point of view, it should be the aim of the breeder to secure birds with rich cherry red combs, holding this color to the back, with a metallic black stripe through each feather, with rich black breasts and bellies, and with wing bows of solid red, not intermixed with black feathers. It is difficult to secure good striping in the saddle feathers, though this should be sought. It is generally that the females should be of a rich dark color, both on body and breast, and that the cockerels should be of an appearance as often one. Such rich looking birds, with buckles that bar with black stripe, free from pencil, will prove a source of much satisfaction to their owners.

Healthy Potatoes.

In addition to the not that is occasionally so destructive to potatoes, the crop is more or less subject to scab. Various theories are advanced as to cause, but let the primary cause be what it may experience leads to the conclusion that the occurrence of scab depends on certain conditions of moisture and soil, within a New Jersey farmer, who formerly lost much by scab.

While we may have more or less rain that we desire some season, one can, by adopting a favorable soil for planting, greatly lessen the prevalence of scab. If a sandy soil can be secured, one may
