DESERET EVENING NEWS

TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Today's weather report. Observations taken at 8 a. m. Mountain Time.

Salt Lake City, Department of Agriculture weather bureau. H. Bentham observer. 61, maximum temperature; 41, minimum temperature; 41, mean temperature. 34, which is 11 above normal.

Accumulated excess of temperature since first of month, 49.

Accumulated deficiency of temperature since January 1st, 111.

Total precipitation from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. 24 hours, .00.

Accumulated deficiency of precipitation since first of month, .31 inches.

Total precipitation since January 1st, 3.19 inches.

Long interval for Salt Lake City and vicinity.

Occasional showers tonight and tomorrow.

For Utah, south of Sen Fran-Denver, Salt Lake, cloudy tonight; warmer tomorrow.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

The storm center on the north Pacific coast has moved southward and increased in energy. A second low is central over the Lower Missouri valley, and has caused rain in Texas and for south as far as Brownsville, and over the northern and middle portion of the Mississippi valley, Lake Superior and extend over Wyoming, Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and Illinois.

L. H. MURDOCH,
Section Director.

NOW FOR

15,000

By January 1, 1900, the DESERET NEWS hopes to be able to prove that its Semi-Weekly Edition has reached its 15,000 mark. That hope can undoubtedly be attained if our agents will work with the same will for the next two months that they have done in the past two. We earnestly thank all our representatives for their previous hearty endeavors, and our duty will do all in their power to help us reach the 15,000 goal by the NEW YEAR

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

PUBLISHED TUESDAY'S AND FRIDAY'S

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, (separate and apart from the daily) was, on the last issue,

14,400 COPIES

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figures give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed on the front of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

| | |
|---|---|
| January 1, 1899 | 10,250 |
| February 1, 1899 | 10,475 |
| March 1, 1899 | 10,750 |
| April 1, 1899 | 11,150 |
| May 1, 1899 | 11,850 |
| June 1, 1899 | 12,200 |
| July 1, 1899 | 12,525 |
| August 1, 1899 | 12,750 |
| November 10, 1899 | 14,400 |

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 59 1-4
LEAD, $4.40
LAKE COPPER 11 3-4 cents a lb.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

J. H. Allen is preparing to erect a $1,000 brick residence at Draper. The foundations are being dug by Arthur Bell Brothers.

Our advertisers offer to pay thirty cents of unpaired land and a water right in Parley's canyon to the City Council committee on public grounds.

The Rev. Dr. Hepworth, who is in Salt Lake looking a study of Brigham Young, for the New York Herald, in an interview with President Snow this afternoon.

Rev. Dr. Hubbard of Dallas and Gov. of Mr. Martin of Maine will leave for New York City to-day or so, to meet with the board of home missions of the Presbyterian church, which will be in session for a few days, to decide returning their educational institution in Utah.

The petition of C. L. Hulbert for permission to erect a wooden building on the City Creek canyon at the foot of Third street, will be considered at the City Council meeting to-morrow afternoon. Mr. Anderson says the case would close the approach to his land.

Warren Kinsey, former proprietor and editor of Kinsey's Dance Music, now resides at Kansas City, but is anxious to return to Salt Lake. He is anxious to get enough money to send the wife to Salt Lake, to the sanatorium or hospital, a proposition which the Kansas City Herald and will now proceed to work for "Sunny."

The Tabernacle will be filled with the Sunday morning by the Salvation Army, and it is hoped a great deal good will be the result. The band will be in attendance and will play on Main street, and the full service will be held in the Tabernacle afterwards. The army is holding a special service from 9 to 10 for people in Tabernacle.

Helen E. Mansfield, the circle-reader, will commence at 10 a. m. Nov. 16, Mrs. Mansfield, 3rd recipient of scientific, is the girl and was asked with an eye to 1900 only in the week, and on Tuesday Dr. Sun performed an operation on the eyeball, the third attempt, but the girl's eyes will be saved. Dr. Sun may now proceed with the second eye.

Regarding the announcement that the Rev. Dr. Fisher will preach on the needs of a syndicate company of gentlemen who said now been in the neighborhood of W. Morris today said: "I don't know where the poor man from and consider the application presumptuous to say the least. We know nothing of what the result of the pending litigation will be, of course it may be that Mr. Fisher's advice will be good both but nobody knows yet whether it will be or not."

C. E. Tolmaire, a Scotch, who tender-foot arrived in Ogden some time ago, arrested at Evanston such time since charged with snatching without a license and with an assault on the first-first case at Evanston against Dr. Cornelisson and Kirk. Colonel Stokes says that the two joined his name and business to the amount of $15,000.

CHRISTMAS EDITION OF THE NEWS.

The "News" holiday number will be issued on Saturday, December 23rd, 1899. It will be an elaborate issue, enclosed in beautiful covers, elegantly illustrated, and embodying a review of the commercial and industrial progress of our State and city. It will be profusely illustrated with pictures of the western and northwestern region.

PRIZES.

will be offered for foreign every Deseret, in the Christmas News, the announcements of which will be soon made.

Every business subscriber in November or Dec. The county treasurer's office is crowded yesterday by citizens who desired to settle their taxes in order that the assessor can proceed to fix for them on the county treasurer's office this week.

Church bonds for sale at a reduced price, yielding 6 per cent. Apply to Deseret Savings Bank and Trust company.

UTAH TONIC.
Cures Dyspepsia, Minor Questions, Loss, Not and Weak.
D. J. SHARP, AGENT,
18 South Main. Telephone 424.

UTAH COMMERCIAL AND SAVINGS BANK.
Interest paid on savings. W. F. Armstrong, pres.; F. W. Mulens, Vice-pres.; J. R. Cosgriff, cashier.

PURE MILK.
The Utah Dairy company warrants and guarantees all milk sold by it to be free from all impurities, and guarantees bottling to preservatives of any kind.

Sample for children may be taken free of charge from one cap of the wagons of milk visits.

BUYS THE ROWE HOUSE.

Mayor-Elect Thompson to Become a Resident of First Street.

Mayor-elect Sam Thompson has purchased the house on first street formerly owned by Judge Rowe, but said against foreclosure of a mortgage. Mr. Thompson will soon take possession of the house, the change of residence placing Mrs. Thompson near her mother.

The transaction was made by W. F. Harrison for the owner, Benjamin Stewart, who was sued for the sum being $3,000.

The house was sold by W. H. Rowe and occupied by him for a considerable time.

BOSS BARBERS' ASSOCIATION

Permanent Organization Effected Last Night—Early Closing Approved.

The boss barbers of this city effected a permanent organization last night, and elected officers for the ensuing year. The association will be known as the Boss Barbers' Protective association. Those elected were: H. A. Pierce, president; John H. Dyke, vice president; Frank Stanford, treasurer; M. L. Thompson, secretary. John Steele, sergeant-at-arms. There were twenty-five barbers present at the meeting and the best of feeling prevailed. At the close of the meeting a social was held over the association entertained the 1 o'clock closing resolution and made a strong appeal for the support of members.

The next meeting will be held on the evening of November 22, at E. A. Hartman's shop.

AMUSEMENTS.

Everyone who has enjoyed "What happened to Jones" will be on hand to night to see the latest production from the same author, Charles Klein, the author of the great success in London by Arthur Shirley and Benjamin Hampden, and that will known as the Boston Museum company is bound to be well received. Mr. Tannehill, Jr., and all the people are sure to be welcome of the original New York cast.

There was so much activity around the Theatre last night in through the crowd that it was all crowded to the ticket office where the treasurer was showing the wonders of the art of handling back handouts of tickets which had come into the house for the Sousa concert. The concert, however, kept this that and her crowd out on the top of the Union Pacific building, and the performance in the Theatre was the best performance in Salt Lake. Miss Jones will be given in Ogden tonight. Mr. Frost is hopeful that he will be able to induce Miss Hilo to pay us a visit in her new play, "Miss Jones."

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good, and the storm was responsible at the Grand last night, while Tom Ponsonby scored doubtless hearty laughs in a talk about the Salt Lake Tribune. Between the performances, the management of "A Lady of Quality" was served hot-shot people who had come to see the play, from the gallery, and