OGDEN AND WEBER COUNTY TAX LEVY

Aggregates 33 3 and 21 6 Mills for All Purposes. Slight Increase Over Previous Year.

OGDEN CITY SCHOOL AFFAIRS

Another Libel Suit Against Mayor Glasmann—Young Ladies Injured in Merry-Go-Round—Wedding.

Ogden, Utah, July 27.—The tax levy in Ogden city and Weber county has been fixed for the year 1905. There is a slight raise over last year's levy, both in the city and county necessitated by the increase in the city of one-tenth of a mill in the interest fund. The county school tax levy was decreased from one and three-fourths mill to one and seven-tenths mill this year, but the valuation of the county property has been considerably increased this year, hence the county schools will have a larger fund than last year.

The levies, as compiled for 1905, are as follows:

	Mills.
State tax, for general purposes	5
State school levy	3
County, general purposes	5
County, poor levy	1
County, bond interest	.4
County school	1.7
City levy	10
City school levy	7.2
Total tax levy on all property within Ogden City limits	33.3

Outside Ogden City, tax levies are as follows:

	Mills.
State and state school	8
County, including general, poor, interest and county school levies	8.1
Consolidated Weber county school district	5.5
Total on property outside Ogden city limits	21.6

The above is the levy except in the following districts, where a special road tax of 5 mills has been voted by the taxpayers: Garland, Randall, Uintah and Warren, making the total tax levy in these districts 26.6 mills.

In addition to this a levy of three mills on each one dollar's valuation has been made by the state board of sheep commissioners on all sheep owned in the county.

CITY SCHOOL MATTERS.

Teachers Must Sign Contracts or Forfeit Positions—High School Changes.

The board of education will meet tomorrow night for the purpose of filling all vacancies in the teachers' force in the grades. A number of teachers appointed have failed to sign their contracts and unless they do so before tomorrow night their places will be filled by other teachers as the board has many applications filed for positions in the various grades.

The High school faculty will also have two changes besides the new principal, Prof. L. B. Austin. Miss Joyce, who has been at the head of English department, has resigned and Miss Grace F. Hayman, a graduate of the University of Chicago with the Ph. D. degree, will take her place, and Miss Alice Kneson will be assistant instructor in English.

ANOTHER SUIT FOR LIBEL.

Alice Lewis Richards Sues Mayor Glasmann for $10,000.

And still the libel suits come against Mayor William Glasmann and the Standard Publishing company. The latest suit to be brought against Mr. Glasmann and the company was filed last evening in the county clerk's office by Attys. C. C. Richards and J. D. Skeen, representing Alice Lewis Richards who asks for damages in the sum of $10,000 against the mayor and his papers for alleged defamation of character. The complaint recites that the plaintiff is the wife of T. G. Richards, who, a few days ago, brought a libel suit against the same parties for $20,000, is also the mother of Viola Lewis who is also suing for $20,000. She alleges that on the 10th and 11th of this month Mr. Glasmann caused to be published in his papers, the Ogden Standard and Morning Examiner, certain articles connecting Mrs. Richards with being implicated in the charges on which her husband was arrested and discharged. That the publication of the alleged malicious articles has greatly injured plaintiff's good name and character, for which she desires $10,000 damages. The members of Mrs. Richards' family now have libel suits pending hearing in the district court aggregating $50,000, all against the mayor and his publishing company.

INJURED ON MERRY-GO-ROUND.

Miss Eva Blair and a companion, while riding on the merry-go-round at the carnival about 5 o'clock last evening met with a slight accident. While the machinery was in motion one of the seats in the boat broke, letting the young ladies fall to the ground with considerable force, injuring Miss Blair's knee and the other young lady's aim.

SUSPECT ARRESTED.

George Moore was arrested about 2 o'clock this morning by Police Officer Carlson on suspicion of being one of the "grafters" who "fleeced" T. B. Tuson, a rancher from Wyoming, of $1,060. For the past week Moore has been flashing all kinds of bank "rolls," but has spent but a few dollars. At the race track yesterday he carried a $500 roll, but placed no bets. When he was arrested this morning on Commercial street by Officer Carlson he had only a few dollars.

Moore answers the description of the "banker's son" who got Tueson's money. He has been here but a short time and it is believed that he was mixed up with a gang of "bunco" men who were in Salt Lake recently. His bail was fixed at $500, but he was unable to furnish it.

STATE SCHOOL BOYS RETURN.

The sixty-two male inmates of the State Industrial school who have been having a ten days' outing at Camp Conroy, named after one of the board, returned home to the school yesterday, highly elated with the trip. They left the school 10 days ago and marched to the mountains east of Huntsville, where they pitched their tents, and took up real camp life. They were given their freedom to fish, hunt, play ball and have a general good time, which they did. Not one of the boys attempted to run away, and when roll was called at each meal every one answered.

NINE MORE BARBERS.

President J. H. Harris, Dr. C. M. Benedict and A. E. Walker, of the state board of barber examiners, held a meeting and examination in Ogden yesterday. Twelve applicants took the examination, nine of them passing successfully, while the other three were carried over until the next meeting. The board also examined 26 barber shops and found them to be in good sanitary condition and considerably improved since the former visit of the board a few weeks ago.

UINTAH RESERVATION MAP.

One of the best relief maps of the Uintah reservation, which is to be opened up by the government for settlement, has just been completed by County Recorder D. W. Ellis. The map is 3 feet long by 3½ feet wide, and gives much valuable data concerning the reservation, and the best lands to be had there.

SWAN-PENDER NUPTIALS.

The home of Detective James F. Pender, on Twenty-seventh street, was the scene of a pretty home wedding last evening when Miss Katherine Swan became the happy wife of James F. Pender, Jr. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred Brown in the presence of relatives and friends. The contracting parties are both popular in Ogden.

GOOD SAUCER TRACK RACES TONIGHT.

The management of the Ogden saucer track has arranged some excellent races for tonight. Half-mile match team sprint, professional, best two in three heats, Emil Agraz, San Jose, Cal., Jack Burris, Los Angeles, vs E. E. Smith, Salt Lake and W. A. Bardgett, Buffalo, N. Y.

Two-mile open lap race, professional. A large number of professionals have entered.

Three-quarters mile handicap, consolation, professional.

Ogden's favorite race, the unlimited Australian pursuit, amateur, with 20 good riders.

Quarter-mile open dash, amateur; three heats and final.

Perhaps a motor race.

MORTGAGE ON CARNIVAL PROPERTIES.

A mortgage covering all of the properties of the Monarch Carnival company, which is playing in Ogden this week, was filed with the county recorder yesterday afternoon. The mortgagor is G. E. Meyers, proprietor of the company. One of the mortgages is in favor of Mrs. Jennie Kelley of New York, for $2,500, and the other mortgage is made to A. Z. Zisler of Chicago, for $920. The mortgages cover all of the shows with the carnival, their tents, fixtures and other paraphernalia, used by them.

SUIT OVER LAND.

Suit has been filed in the Second district court by Lafayette Skeen against W. A. Skeen, administrator of the estate of William Skeen and Caroline Skeen to quiet title to a certain piece of land.

ARRESTED FOR NEVADA BURGLARY.

Through much work on the part of Sheriff Bailey, two men who gave their names as J. H. Cook and T. E. Webster are behind the bars at the county jail at Evanston, being held for the Reno, Nev., officials on the charge of burglary. A few days ago these two men were in Ogden and pawned a number of knives and guns at Hymen's second hand store for a coat, vest and hat. Sheriff Bailey had learned that such goods had been stolen from Reno and immediately took the goods into his possession and notified the sheriff at Reno, who sent an exact description of the goods taken from the store and the goods pawned here were part of the identical stuff, but the two men had gone east. Sheriff James was notified and placed the two men under arrest, and secured about $75 worth more goods. The Reno officers have notified Sheriff Bailey that they will start for Evanston for the prisoner just as soon as they can get requisition papers.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for FOLEY'S Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

M. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

DOWNEY, IDAHO.

VICTIM OF PARALYSIS.

Mrs. Robert Bloxhrm Called at 32—Death Of an Infant.

Special Correspondence.

Downey, Bannock Co., Idaho, July 20.—Mrs. Martha J. Bloxham, wife of Robert Bloxham, died Sunday, July 16, of paralysis. Funeral was held the following Tuesday, Elders Riley L. Dixon, Wm. N. Woodland and Bishop Hyde were the speakers.

Mrs. Bloxham was a daughter of John J. and Sarah Bybee, and was born at Honeyville, Utah, Nov. 17, 1873. Most of her life has been spent in the settlement of Nine Mile, near Downey. She was an estimable young woman, and her sudden demise was a shock to the community. She leaves a husband and four young children, besides parents and brothers and sisters to mourn her departure.

An 11-pound girl was added to the family of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hyde on the 11th inst. Mrs. Hyde is at Kaysville.

The 13-months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wakley died the 14th inst. This was their only child, and makes the eighth one they have buried.

Grain headers began operation this week. Crops are fairly good, but have been damaged considerably by the hot and windy weather.

Downey has shown a spirit of progress during 1905. A general merchandise store, a meat market and an ice cream parlor have been added. The town now supports two stores, a hotel, a saloon, a meat market and a blacksmith and machine shop.
