

DAVIS ON TRIAL FOR BURGLARY.

Accused of Stealing a Set of Tools from Emerson School Building.

MISSED ON VOLUNTEER DAY

Mrs. Anna Houston Accuses Neil Houston of Gross Cruelty—Other Court News.

George Davis, well known to the police and sheriff's officers, was placed on trial before Judge Norrell and a jury today on the charge of burglary. Ray Van Cott appeared for the prosecution and the accused was represented by J. M. Hamilton and S. P. Armstrong.

The information against Davis contains two counts, the first of which alleges burglary, and the second accuses him of housebreaking. The principal witness in the case was L. O. Gordy, who testified that last August he was engaged doing carpenter work at the Emerson school building, in the annex, and the day the volunteers returned home he missed a set of tools. These articles were later found at the residence of Mrs. Miller in the Twenty-first ward, where Davis boarded.

The trial had not concluded at press time.

RIDDLE AND REEVES IN LUCK.

Two Men Held for Trial Secure a Dismissal of Their Cases.

Hank Riddle, charged along with others with the crime of grand larceny, secured a dismissal of his case against him today, on motion of the prosecution. William Reeves, undergoing a three years sentence for breaking into the Salt Lake & Los Angeles railroad shops, also moved to luck today, the prosecution dismissing another charge of housebreaking against him.

It will be recalled that Reeves was tried for entering the residence of Joseph Smith in this city, and for getting away with a gold watch. The jury found him guilty, when John W. Peterson made an affidavit in which he averred that Reeves was innocent, and that he himself was guilty of the crime.

On the strength of this showing Reeves was granted a new trial. The prosecution then filed an information against Peterson, who later pleaded guilty, and on December 23rd, was sentenced to three years in the State's prison. A few weeks prior Peterson was given three years along with Reeves for the Los Angeles robbery. Reeves' trial on the Smith case was set for today, but the prosecution believing a conviction under the circumstances highly improbable moved for a dismissal, which the court granted.

An order was made today requiring Reporter Pike to return to Mr. Smith the watch stolen by Peterson.

HARMAN AGAIN CONVICTED.

Will be Sentenced on Two Charges Next Wednesday Morning.

George Harman, convicted Thursday of receiving stolen property, was found guilty of petit larceny by a jury last evening in Judge Norrell's court. He will be sentenced on both charges Wednesday morning next. The two cases were appeals from justice courts. On the first case, Judge Harman was fined $75, and on the second $150. The offense for which he was convicted yesterday was the stealing of a cow.

TESTIMONY IN DIVORCE CASE.

Clerk Blair Will Recommend a Decree in Case of Lindholm vs. Lindholm.

Deputy Clerk Blair took testimony yesterday afternoon in the divorce case of Amelia A. Lindholm vs. Axel Y. Lindholm, and will recommend to Judge Hiles the granting of a decree in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

Mrs. Lindholm was represented at the hearing by Attorney C. M. Nelson, and in answer to question propounded by counsel, she stated that she married the defendant at Stockholm, Sweden, on November 2, 1879. Mrs. Lindholm further testified that her husband was addicted to the excessive use of intoxicants, and that he failed to provide his family with the common necessities of life. In August, 1892, plaintiff, with her two children, came to Utah, the understanding being that her husband would follow her as soon as possible. He failed to keep his word and plaintiff said she had not heard of him since she left Stockholm. Corroborative testimony was given by Annie M. Larsen.

THREATENED HER LIFE.

Mrs. Anna Houston Makes Sensational Charges Against Her Husband.

Anna Houston filed a suit against Neil Houston in a district court today in which an annulment of the marriage relationship existing between the two is prayed for on the ground of extreme cruelty.

The complaint alleges that the marriage took place at Murkshire, Scotland, during the year 1879.

At numerous times, it is alleged, the defendant, within the last two years has struck and beat his wife, used vile and indecent language towards her, called her vile and disgusting names, time, plaintiff alleges, defendant threatened and accused her of unchastity. At one a lighted kerosene lamp at his wife, knocked her down with a chair, and a week ago threatened to take her life and burn down the house. It is further set out that the defendant told his wife that he had purchased a revolver for the purpose of shooting her.

damage. Mr. Jones, plaintiff says, has not lived up to his agreement and, what's more, has refused to further compensate plaintiff for the injury done him.

E. W. Genter vs. the Conglomerate Mining Company; motion to suppress depositions overruled.

Orders by Judge Hiles.

Outside of the probate matters Judge Hiles did very little business today. The following were the most important items attended to:

James Adams vs John Blazard et al; thirty days additional time allowed to prepare bill of exceptions.

PRIESTHOOD MEETING.

Payment of the Pioneer Monument Fund is Urged by Speakers.

A meeting of the Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake convened this morning in the Assembly Hall, at which Elder John Henry Smith of the quorum of Twelve Apostles, urged the payment of the balance of $3,211.91, due on the Pioneer monument fund. Several of the speakers urged its payment before the State is divided, which will shortly be done.

Elder Joseph E. Taylor referred in the course of his remarks to the indebtedness of the Latter-day Saints College, and urged the people to unite in wiping out of the debt before the division of the State takes place.

Elder C. W. Penrose expressed his confidence in the efficacy of the order and the healing power of the Latter-day Saints College, and urged the people to unite in wiping out of the debt before the division of the State takes place.

ENFORCING QUARANTINE.

That is About All Health Officers Have to Do.

Smallpox is complete! Under Control—The Alleged Cases at Eureka—State Board to Meet.

The smallpox scare is rapidly dying out, as no new cases have developed, and the efforts of the health authorities are devoted to enforcing the quarantine regulations.

It develops that the man Hobbs, who was found to be out peddling fish, was not W. A. Hobbs, Jr., at all, but a brother of that individual. License Inspector Seeley, who reported this infraction of the quarantine rule, made a very natural mistake, however, as he had issued the license to W. A. Hobbs, Jr., and the brother was peddling under that license. When interrogated regarding the matter, the brother said that as W. A. Hobbs was held under quarantine, and had the fish on hand, he simply took hold to help the suspect out.

W. A. Hobbs, Sr., caused a little trouble yesterday afternoon by starting up town on a street car. He was promptly ordered off by the conductor, but refused to move, and Officer Hemphill had to be called to the scene.

The board of education has decided to extend the public school vacation one week from Monday.

John A. Kirby's View.

Superintendent John A. Kirby, of the Bullion-Beck, came in from Birmingham last night and will leave for Flint today or tomorrow. He says that if Eureka men who have been isolated have genuine smallpox, then several others have had the disease and recovered without knowing the true nature of their malady. He says that one man whom he saw from day to day passed through the various stages of the disease, but kept at work and fully recovered. The only person to whom he communicated the disease was his wife and she, too, recovered without knowing she had had smallpox. Mr.

"Pride Goeth Before a Fall."

Some proud people think they have strong constitutions, and ridicule the idea of disease. Such people neglect their health, let the blood run down, and their stomach, kidneys and liver become deranged. Don't be foolish about your health. Use Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will prevent the fall and save your pride.

Bladder Troubles—"Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me so much good for my stomach and bladder troubles that I want to recommend it heartily to others. I am in better health than I have been for the past 20 years." Rev. E. I. Monroe, Dublin, Virginia.

Impure Blood—"I was troubled with pimples, resulting from impure blood. Since taking four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, the pimples have disappeared and I am well." W. H. Mallins, Steubenville, O.

Rheumatism—"I had rheumatism three or four years. Could not dress or undress. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me good and I am now able to do all my work." Fannie L. Derricotte, Athens, Ga.

1900 HAS ARRIVED

And we desire to remind our friends when they are making good resolutions, not to forget one of the best, and that is to always use Three Crown Baking Powder—Three Crown triple flavoring extracts—Three Crown pure home ground spices. Why? Because there is none better made. Because they are economical. Because it is hardly fair to send your money away when it is possible to receive a better value for it.

HEWLETT BROS. CO.

Kirby says it was generally supposed at Eureka that these people had chicken-pox and that opinion is still held.

State Board of Health.

The State board of health will meet at 11 o'clock this morning at the State Capitol, Dr. T. B. Beatty in the Atlas block at 11 a. m.

George Meeks is Well.

G. W. Meeks, a well known Salt Lake laborer who was with the J. S. Lindsay Company, and contracted the disease at Spanish Fork, has now fully recovered.

For Free Vaccination.

The action taken by the board of education last evening does not compel vaccination. It does provide, however, that only children who have been vaccinated shall be allowed to enter when the schools commence, a week from Monday. To this end a movement is on foot this afternoon to provide free vaccination for children, and President Wilson says it will doubtless succeed.

University to Close.

University, announced today that that institution has deferred its opening until Monday, January 15. Should circumstances require the opening may be further postponed. In the meantime, Dr. Kingsbury says he would advise all University students to get vaccinated.

L. D. S. College to Be Closed.

In consequence of the recommendations of the board of health, and the action of the city board of education, the Latter-day Saints College will not be re-opened next week. The opening will be postponed for one week, that is, until Jan. 15. Each student at that time may be required, before entering, to sign an affidavit stating that to the best of his knowledge he has not been exposed to the contagion. Any students from towns in which the disease has been suspected or reported may be excluded pending special examination, of the probability of their exposure. These precautions will be a guarantee to the students that they will be as safe attending the college as they would be anywhere.

Health of the City.

The report of the local board of health for the week ending today says there are nine cases of smallpox in Salt Lake, all the patients being confined in the pest house.

The number of births given are 24; male 12, female 12; deaths 1, equally divided between the sexes. There are 29 contagious disease flags outstanding, covering 23 cases of scarlet fever and 9 cases of smallpox. There were no infectious diseases reported.

POLICE POINTERS.

A telephone message was received at the station last evening conveying the somewhat startling information that Pete Nystrom's saloon was the scene of a very lively mix-up and the fight was at that moment in its most interesting stage. Officer Sperry seized a stuffed club and made tracks for Commercial street, followed by the police. The police, however, did not find the scene of the fight, but the saloon was closed for the interior of the saloon was as quiet and tranquil as a summer's morn, with the exception of the buzz of the family over which he is lord and master are afflicted with smallpox is continually violating the quarantine law. Last evening the old man boarded a street car, despite the protests of the police, and was taken to the pest house. At the corner of Second South and East Temple streets Officer Hemphill took Hobbs in charge and notified the health department. The old man was ordered home and told to remain there.

Fifteen brand new quilts, the last of the five dozen, made for the city jail by the St. Mark's Guild, were turned over to Jailor Sol Kimball this morning.

At 9 o'clock last night, word was received at police headquarters that two dangerous-looking characters were hanging around Seventh South and West Temple looking into windows and acting in a very strange manner. Officer Davies at once proceeded to the point mentioned, but the men, whoever they were, had levanted.

Louis F. Mosely, a colored newsboy, broke into the basement of a saloon on Second South this afternoon and purloined about two dozen bottles. He was arrested and booked on the charge of housebreaking.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

Marriage licenses were issued today to following parties: Peter A. Sorensen, 36, and Nina M. Hicks, 22, both of Salt Lake; Joseph S. Barlow, 19, and Laura Lee, 20, both of West Bountiful; Eli W. Butler, 21, of Butterville, and Elizabeth Lark, 18, of Big Cottonwood.

"FIGHTING MAC," A GENERAL FROM THE RANKS.

Brigadier General Hector Macdonald, who succeeded the late General Wheeler as commander of the famous highland brigade which was so badly cut up at Magersfontein, is a veteran of 25 years' service and is one of the few active British officers of prominence who have risen from the ranks. He knows all about the fighting qualities of the Boers, for when he was only a sergeant he tested them at Majuba Hill. He has been mentioned in dispatches for gallantry on numerous occasions and is idolized by his men, who affectionately call him "Fighting Mac."

PAYING IN THE TAXES.

Someone Still Tardy in Paying on Personal Property.

Must Settle at Once to Avoid Seizure—Total So Far Paid Treasurer Lynch.

The amount of taxes so far paid in to Treasurer Lynch, exclusive of receipts from sales of real estate, is, in round figures, $956,000, while the total of taxes payable was $1,011,149.17.

There is still uncollected a considerable sum made up of personal taxes. These are all, of course, delinquent, and men are in the field giving final notifications. If paid at once, they will cost but $1.20 in excess of the amount of taxes, but if the matter is still neglected after notification, until seizure becomes necessary, the extras will amount to $3.

Those delinquent on personal property will see the necessity therefore, of at once paying up.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

Mike Boyle, the game grizzled old imbibor, remained on his seat when his name was called and scorned the arise. He was charged with vagrancy. "Vagrancy, is it? Sure I don't know what it is, but I'm guilty," said Mike, as he stroked his beard thoughtfully. "Thirty days for you," said the court.

Charlie George Scott was drunk, true enough, but he has only been here six days. He didn't mean to do it; for he had a job on the Rio Grande Western. He was ordered to leave immediately.

James Gillsby, a 12-year-old youngster, pleaded guilty to breaking car windows at the Oregon Short Line depot. Amid tearful expressions of grief he promised to be good in the future. The court gave him a good lecture and told him to inform the rest of the boys that if any of them are arrested in the future for throwing rocks, they would get six months in jail.

THE SUCCESS OF UTAH ARTISTS

Edwin Milton Royle Enthusiastic Over Clawson and Dallin.

PRaises CLAWSON'S PICTURE

And Declares It to be Worth "Millions" of Paintings Which He Saw at the Paris Salon.

Edwin Milton Royle is very enthusiastic over Clawson and Dallin, who represent Utah in the world of art, as may be seen from the following letter written to his father, Judge Royle, of this city:

Utah has always been uniquely loyal to her artists, and I am sure her artists are gratefully sensitive to that interest. Last summer I stood before a heroic bronze entitled, "The Medicine Man," in the Paris Salon, and it thrilled me with pride to read the name of "Dallin" on the pedestal; to see that in all that vast forum of the world's best efforts in sculpture, a Utah boy had received "honorable mention."

Much to my surprise, by the way, the sculptures seemed to me vastly better than the paintings. When I reached San Francisco recently, the name of another Utah artist was on everybody's lips. The citizens of Salt Lake in particular will be gratified to hear of Will Clawson's success. At a recent notable exhibition at the Bohemian club, Will's picture was the sensation of the collection; everybody was talking about it. Of course, my opinion isn't worth this paper it is written on, but there wouldn't be many opinions if we had art that distant as I am going to say that Clawson's picture in my unenlightened judgment, is worth many miles of pictures I saw in the Paris Salon this past summer. From conception of execution; from its negative excellences to its positive ones; from choice of subject to treatment of details; from its frame to its central idea—it is good art. As artists say, "it hangs together." Did I say it was a portrait? A picture of one of those beautiful California women who are almost Eastern and Oriental (though occidental) in their luxuriance.

Some silly people have criticized the picture as fleshly. Such people would be incapable of understanding the difference between the nude and the lewd. The picture is full of splendid contrasts. The black velvet gown against the exquisite flesh tints and all against a deep reddish background make a simple but complete conquest of the eye.

It is a picture that Clawson has a right to be proud of—and that his friends have the right to be proud of. EDWIN MILTON ROYLE.

Repulsed, but the Fighting St. Continues—Report from Gen. White.

Assault Was Made on Caesar's Camp, at 2:45 a. m., in Considerable Force.

London, Jan. 6.—The war office this evening issued the following: "From Buller, Pieter Camp, Jan. 6.—The following telegram was received from Gen. White, January 6, 9 a. m.: 'The enemy attacked Caesar's Camp at 2:45 a. m., considerable force. The enemy was everywhere repulsed, but the fighting still continues.'"

Shot a Cacher.

Russellville, Ky., Jan. 6.—Edward Sinclair, cashier of the Deposit bank of this city, was shot and seriously wounded last night at Keysburg, this county. It is alleged the shooting was done by Will Elliott, a brother-in-law of Mr. Sinclair. No details can be obtained.

Once more the case against H. R. Watrous, charged with embezzlement, has been postponed. The continuance was granted by Judge McMaster on account of the illness of Attorney Strapp, counsel for the defendant. Time set for hearing is January 20th.

CHINESE FLOUR TRADE.

Denver papers complain that Colorado flour is shut out of the Oriental markets by reason of California having determined to do the supplying. The Californians furnish flour at San Diego at a figure which is prohibitory to the Coloradoan when the latter's railway haul is paid for. Utah's trade in China has not been affected so far as learned; indeed, no shipments in that direction have been offered by Utah millers.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS SICK?

Here is an Easy Way to Find Out.

Be sure you need medicine before you take it, but having once found out that you need it—lowdown—get the best. If it's for the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder or Blood, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Chronic Constipation, or the sickness peculiar to women, the best is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. And a very simple way to find out if you need it, is to put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it then has a sediment or a milky, cloudy appearance; if it isropy or stringy, pale and discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that you should take Favorite Remedy at once. It speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, burning, scalding pain in passing water, the staining of linen by your urine and all the unpleasant and dangerous effects produced on the system by the use of whisky and beer. All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy at $1.00 a bottle, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

By special and particular arrangement with the manufacturers, our readers can try this grand medicine absolutely free.
