PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - NOV. 25, 1894.

Hughes Sentenced.

This morning being the time set for sentence of George Hughes, convicted of robbery, defendant was in court accompanied by his Attorney R. A. King. Mr. King submitted and argued a motion for a new trial, on the grounds of error in the failure to admit testimony and error in the charge to the jury.

The motion was denied and Hughes was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

OTHER SENTENCES.

The cases of the People vs Anna Maria, and the People vs J. J. Boate, were continued for the term.

In the case of Lewis vs Hale, twenty days granted to prepare and file statement on motion for a new trial.

In the case of C. A. Mott vs J. W. Allred, defendants were granted till December 15 to prepare and file statement on motion for a new trial.

In the case of J. H. Evans vs the D. P. Coal Co., defendants granted twenty days to prepare and file statement on motion for a new trial.

In the case of Hunter et al vs Robinson, twenty days to prepare and file statement on motion for a new trial was granted.

A. E. Loose has commenced suit against Evan Wride to collect $1,000 on a promissory note, and for foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate given to secure payment of the note. The note was given to Joseph Chamberlain and transferred to plaintiff. The 5th Pioneer Commercial & Savings bank, Jacob Johnson and the First National Bank of Provo, who claim an equity in the property, are made defendants in the suit. Plaintiff asks for $300 attorney's fees.

The case of Carey Bros. vs J. S. Black was continued, by consent, to the February term.

Notes and Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Dunn are happy in an addition to their family, through the birth of a son.

The rails of the Provo street railroad, which were twice taken up to be used on the Salt Lake & Mercur Railroad, were levied upon yesterday under a judgment of J. Davey et al in favor of the National Bank of Commerce for over $3,000. The judgment was obtained against the parties for amounts of capital stock subscribed by defendants to the defunct Provo Gas Foundry & Machine Co., but not paid by the subscribers. The Gas Foundry & Machine Co. had some interest in the street railroad.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Thurman, who prosecuted J. B. Robinson, whose death by suicide occurred on the night of the 20th, as chronicled in the NEWS of Wednesday, says that another charge of assault with a deadly weapon was hanging over Robinson in addition to the one he was convicted on. Mrs. Robinson also obtained a divorce from Robinson shortly after his conviction, which may have had a sobering effect upon the deceased.

Company A, Second regiment, National Guards of Utah, will give a military ball at the Opera house on the evening of Thanksgiving Day. A banquet will be a feature of the Cosmopolitan hotel. Officers of West and staff will be among the guests, and many officers and privates of the militia from different parts of the Territory will be in attendance.

A burglar entered the residence of Dr. Hamberg at an early hour yesterday morning. He first visited the doctor's room and took a watch and chain belonging to him. The doctor heard the thief in an adjoining room. Thinking it was the hired man making a fire, he gave the matter no further attention. The intruder was not so fortunate in Mrs. Hamberg's room, for while he was examining some clothing belonging to the lady, a purse, which could not be located when gone, gave the alarm. This woke Mrs. Hamberg and in response to her outcry Dr. Hamberg appeared, armed with a revolver. The burglar fled, however, made his escape, and Dr. Hamberg was unable to give immediate pursuit for the reason that the visitor had taken the doctor's trousers with him. They were found in the garden yesterday morning.

TERRITORIAL PARAGRAPHS.

Items From The Park, Brigham City, Coalville and Box Elder.

Brigham Jugler: A. H. Gleason has come down from Sunset. He reports that some of the farmers in that section are not much better off this fall than has an account of the low price of grain. But the prospects for next year's crops are very encouraging. The fall grain is growing nicely and gives every promise of yielding immense crops next year. The recent rains brought it up to fine style. The farmers are encouraged over the outlook of 1895.

Box Elder Times: Last Wednesday an infant, age about 3 months, died at Pitts's coal house near the depot. It was discovered by W. H. Craghead to be in fits. Mr. Craghead accused Norman Lee, who sleeps at the depot, and they carried water from Craghead's room and succeeded in extinguishing the fire, but not before the house and scales were a total wreck. The only thing saved were the platform and separator beneath it. The balance her, copper, was melted and the scales so doubled that they will have to be replaced almost entirely. The fire was, no doubt, the work of tramps, who had crawled through the side window and made a fire in the house. The loss will be about $[illegible] no insurance.

Coalville Times: Frank Wright, a wiper here in the shops, had had a narrow escape while in the act of cleaning the oil pan of a locomotive. The engineer started the engine, not knowing that Frank was unnecessarily. Hearing attracted a bystander, who signaled the engineer just in time. But the engine gave a few jerks before he would so doubt have been killed. Outside of being bruised up and badly scared he came out all right..... Word has been received here that a sleigh of David Adamson, while hauling up between Kamas and Park City, has met with an accident which resulted fatally. While crossing the hill at Rock Ridge the brake broke, throwing him under the wheels, the overloaded wagon passing over his neck and killing him. The horses were literally cut up..... The new cases for county jail have arrived and been placed in position, and Officer Brandon is now trying to walk for the first time in last their strength. It is said that escapes from the jail will be next to impossible, and there is no question but that they have long been needed here.

Park City Record: A force of men is now engaged, under the direction of the city council's committee on city property, in constructing snow fences on Treasure hill. It is believed that these fences will cause the snow to drift far enough from the view of the mill to prevent the positioning of its sliding, several lines of fencing will be erected.

——Deputy United States Marshal Timmons appeared in the Park on Monday with seven and six subpoenas upon D. C. McLaughlin, Ben Webster, Walter Scott, H. S. Townsend and some fifteen other citizens, summoning them to appear before the grand jury at Salt Lake next Wednesday morning in connection with witnesses in the case against the Park City bank failure.

FOR

Supreme Excellence,

OF THE

PUTNAM

HOT FORGED AND HAMMER FORGED HORSE

NAILS.

At the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago. A medal and diploma awarded "Superior excellence in material, method in manufacture, and quality of finished product; elasticity and smoothness combined with holding power in clinch. It allows the use of very small nails."

There is nothing based excepting excellence and it does nothing compared to a lower and cheaper "the nearer lower which it is made." "The method of manufacture," and "quality of finished product." Putnam Nails, by their "elasticity" are slightly in the expansion and contraction of the hoof when the horse is in motion, by their "smoothness," do not injure the hoof fibres in the hoof, while their "superior holding power in the clinch" assures there is not the slightest chance of a shoe being lost.

By the use of small nails large holes are avoided and money saved in the clinch.

"Time is will be seen that the efficient of the World's Columbian Exposition, because of what qualities go to make up a good hoof nail and that only the "Putnam" nail has all these qualities."
