

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

ANY FLIES ON BLI'S LOGIC?

U. S. Secretary Will Please Read This.

Perhaps, the Philistine, Would Want You to Follow If He Would.

The whole of the time is in reply to the following incoherent letter from Bill Furling, who, it will be remembered, made his first name a little over four weeks ago. At the moment he is not wearing a gold coat to support the silver side of the average scale, and as "anybody is the value of his" money is nothing but a letter to the editor of the "Bl" to "straighten the other side. Here is his communication:

New York, May 12.

Mr. John G. Harbo, Editor General News, and Editor.

I always found you dear old Harbo to be a man who was honest and fair and that was the reason I was a subscriber to your paper.

But why do you keep on publishing that article about the silver? It is a lie and you know it. I have seen the gold and silver and I know the value of each.
