NEWS OF THE WEST.

How School Children of San Francisco Will Feed The Hungry.

COLORADO FARMERS WAKING UP.

The Way To Shut Off Gambling Hells.—Gems Stolen Gallton.—Wyoming To The Fore.

Boulder, Colo., coal camps are shipping not more coal than ever before.

Confidence is expressed that Oliver Junction, Colo., will be reopening by time the close of 1894.

At Golden, Colo., Mrs. M. F. Harris of the Hotel Ivy Vista has beaten an woes to $10,000 in Pennsylvania.

Grand Junction, Colo., merchants are revealed to be start small garden and fruit nurseries as "subject lessons."

Thomas Carvelle, an Italian, was shot and killed by unknown parties in front a saloon at Las Cruces, N. M.

Only the gate case of the Hotel Nash, cable line are now running. Two passenger cars have been taken in.

Reports from Salida, Colo., confirm the finding of a substantial vein near that town, in Chaffee county, which yields free gold per ton.

Around Florence, Ariz., all the canals are running bank full and the prospect for the crops, it is said, was never brighter.

At Casper, Wyo., they heat oil from fuel cents to Denver home for shipment of the East. A pipe line is being constructed.

In Lincoln county, Nevada, the Big Rock antimony mines have been leased for $25,000. The antimony was formerly very well worth.

They are still surveying the boundary between Arizona and Mexico. It seems money consists, says an exchange.

In Ouray county, Colorado, there is the Colorado, probably known that all the Rico and Telluride in Ouray county are volcanoes by moving beds of lava cattle.

The machinery for the college of mechanic arts at the university has been in place for the past week and is now in proper operation says the Lockport Enterprise.

At Frankstown, Douglas county, Colorado, a cash of ten gallon, hungry wolves were seen on the main street early one morning. Wolves are very rife all over the state this winter.

Sweetwater valley, Wyo., is being flooded by railroad surveyors. The road will be extended down from Cassper early in the spring and cross the range at the South pass.

South Park ranchmen in the vicinity of Fairplay, Colo., are traveling in coal sheets for fat cattle in the New Bullfoot mines. Plenty of snow, lots of hay and sunshine are making the South Park people feel jolly.

Hunters in the Yellowstone park have been captured by soldiers while killing game on that reservation. Their guns and skulls were confiscated and they have been confined in the guard house at Fort Yellowstone.

Gloom begins to strike the cattle men of Routt county, Colorado. Their cattle are fat on last year's grass and fine sunny weather, but they wonder where the nourishment is coming from to cause early grass grow in the spring.

Platteville, Colo., is getting a first class move on. There is talk there of constructing a large reservoir for irrigation east of the depot. It will supply lake that enough for the entire population of Platteville.

At Casper, Wyo., the asbestos industry has received encouragement by the coming of a contract by the McCormick Asbestos Mining company to sink a tunnel 200 feet deep into the asbestos vein. The shipping product from Casper will begin this year.

James Laird had the misfortune to break one of his legs last week while hauling a load of coal to his home on the North Fork from the Little Page Ann mines, says the Lander, (Wyo.) Journal. The wagon ran over his leg, breaking it just below the knee.

Don Pedro Simpson of Albuquerque reports the discovery at San Isaro, N. M., of a hot spring which petrifies every substance placed in it. He brought back with him oysters, eggs, worm, pine burrs and other articles all encrusted with stone.

Jack Williams, an employe of the Capital Electric company, while fixing a wire at Harrisburg, which had rolled up from swinging come in contact with a live wire and he was dead instantly burned. He could not free himself and two men had to pull him loose. It was some time before he regained consciousness.

The school children of San Francisco are going to feed the hungry poor in the park. Each school will take a contribution one day in the week and see that there is a good substantial lunch ready at noon to feed the poor who have been standing in line waiting for a chance to get work.

A telegram has been received at Fort Stellings, Wyoming, says the Independent of that town, saying that H. H. Campbell, the pioneer cowpoke of Green River, fell dead. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause of the sudden death. Mr. Campbell was one of the pioneers of Sweetwater county.

Wyoming furnishes all the wonders this year, says the Denver News. The island in Soda Lake near Casper, the petroleum of that region make excellent soap. A soap factory and an oil greaser establishment will be established. The petroleum soap is said to be yellow in color and of excellent quality.

A number of farmers residing near Colfax, Colorado, arrived in the city last night, says the Cheyenne Leader, of Saunders avenue, and further in morning train for Wheatland, this county. They are all prominent farmers and have come to Wheatland in fear of hard times. This is only a beginning and it is the decision a large number are to follow.

Dr. Wilson, who was sentenced to eighteen months in the penitentiary at the last term of court, and who was confined in the county jail at the time page the Rawlins, Wyo., News Journal, is in very poor health, and it is thought by the physicians that it cannot endure confinement much longer. A petition to pardon Dr. Wilson, signed by the people of Wilson, is in circulation, and has been signed by the best men of the town.

F. M. Cooke, secretary of the society of the Sons of the Revolution in Utah, 1896, has received Bibles sent upon the history of the revolution from different parts of the state. These essays will be examined by a committee and on Washington's birthday prizes will be given to the two best of them. Early in 1892 copies of the essays were sent to all the public schools and universities in the state. Each essay is signed by a nom de plume and a number is accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the writer's real name.

Your Family
should be provided with the well-known emergency medicine,
AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL
The best remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs.
Prompt to act.
Sure to Cure

Liebig Company's
Extract of Beef,
The standard for purity, flavor and wholesomeness. Its quality never varies and it is the same value as when first put up by its inventor, the great chemist, Justus von Liebig, whose signature it bears, thus
J. v. Liebig
It is the pure essence of fine lean of prime Beef, free from fat or gelatine, and indispensable
IN IMPROVED AND ECONOMIC COOKERY.

Pimples, blotches
and eruptions completely vanish before a steady use of Beecham's
Pills
(Tasteless)
and health again
glows in the pure skin
and clear complexion.
25 cents a box.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Daniel L. Eastis, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned administrator of the estate of Daniel L. Eastis, deceased, to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit them with the vouchers thereof, if any, to the said administrator at his office in the Dooly block, in Salt Lake City, Utah, within four months from the date hereof.

Dated January 6th, 1894.

JAMES L. TAYLOR,
Administrator of the estate of Daniel L. Eastis, deceased.

MARSHAL'S SALE.

PURSUANT TO AN EXECUTION TO ME issued by the United States District Court of the Third Judicial District, Territory of Utah, in the case of Frank Dooly, Plaintiff, vs. Thomas Cornish, Defendant, I did on the 3rd day of January, A. D. 1894, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Dooly Block, in Salt Lake City, Utah, sell all the right, title and interest of said defendant in and to the following described real estate, to wit:

The undivided one-half (1/2) of Mining Claim Greenback, situate in the Alta mining district, Salt Lake county, Utah.

Commencing at the north corner of said claim, being the corner common to the Greenback and Mayflower claims, thence south 300 feet, thence west 300 feet, thence north 300 feet, thence east 300 feet to the place of beginning.

Dated January 6th, 1894.

JAMES H. BRUNE,
United States Marshal.
By L. C. ABBOTT, Deputy Marshal.

DOOLY, LEE & DOOLY, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory, County of Salt Lake.

George Taylor, Plaintiff, vs.
Henry A. Rich, Sarah J. Dunbar, James W. Lindsay and W. L. Carlstrom, Defendants.

The People of the Territory of Utah send greeting to Henry A. Rich, Sarah J. Dunbar, James W. Lindsay and W. L. Carlstrom, defendants.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the district court of the third judicial district, in and for Salt Lake county, Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days after the service on you of this summons, if served within this county, and within twenty days if served out of this county, or judgment will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to have judgment against defendants Sarah J. Dunbar and John A. Cornelson, as the owners of lots 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44,