

ATTORNEY CALLS HER AN IMPOSTER.

Bonnie LeMar Denounced as a Blackmailer by the Man Who Once Defended Her.

WOODED AND WON BY NOBLEMAN

Was Cruel to the Child Claimed to be Her to the Dunsmore's Millions.

The latest turn in the Bonnie LeMar case is the denouncing of her as an imposter by the attorney who once defended her.

The LeMar woman, it will be remembered, claims that her son, who was kidnapped seven years ago, is heir to the millions of the Dunsmore of Brookmore, England, being the issue of a young nobleman to whom she was once married. The kidnapping took place while this boy was being placed by his family having disowned him for marrying a woman of the half-breed. There was much sympathy for the woman as she had not apparently followed the methods of an adventurer in her search for the child. She is now trying to find her child in Colorado.

Attorney F. Van Norman, who began the case for her, now declares, in a statement issued from his New York office, that Bonnie LeMar is the worst kind of an imposter, blackmailer and everybody else. He says:

"The facts are that about a year after her divorce from O'Brien and when matters were getting pretty warm for her in Denver, she went for Cripple Creek to exercise her wiles on the unwary, and it is said she inveigled a man named Roy LeMar into marrying her, but the story of the marriage has never been confirmed. While in Cripple Creek she adopted a baby which she claimed off as the child of LeMar, who left her, and she again engaged in her notorious practices."

A CRUEL MOTHER.

"Her extreme cruelty to the child led the neighbors to intervene and call in the agents of the humane society, who took the child away from her. She was then committed to the custody of the court to recover possession of the child, but could neither prove its maternity nor that she was its mother. It was then committed to the custody of the humane society, which succeeded in having the child adopted by a reputable family."

AN ARTFUL DODGER.

"After her divorce from O'Brien her life became a kaleidoscope one. Her bait was to catch by her tricks some victim who would give her money easily.
Usually her victims were lured to her own apartments, where she separated them from their cash."

"At about this period she used the matrimonial columns of the Denver papers to advantage, describing herself, not by name, but as a rich widow desiring to marry. When any one called she would first draw them out skillfully and then unfold the fact that she herself was the charmer. If the applicant had no money she made short work of him."

"Finally she became so well known that she was thoroughly reviled that she disappeared, and her whereabouts remained a mystery until the publication of the recent sensational report, doubtless inspired by herself, recalling the fact that she has been living in the mining camp of Dillon, Mont., where she is a prominent member and leader of the dem-monde."

INFORMATION WANTED.

Writing from 106 Trinity street, Gainsborough, England, Elder Brigham L. Griffiths inquires concerning the whereabouts of Harry Charles King, son of Elizabeth King, who emigrated to America some 16 years ago. Since that time he has been in Illinois, Iowa, Alaska, and when his mother last heard from him, about two years ago, he was in Frisco, Utah, working in the mines there. In March, 1902, his sister wrote to him at that place, but her letter was returned. Mrs. King was formerly of Bole, near Gainsborough, but her address is now 39 Church street, Gains-borough, England. Mr. King is not a member of the "Mormon" Church, or at least was not on leaving England.

Elder Griffiths also inquires concerning the family of Elder William Troop, father of Mrs. Harriet Lilleyman, residing at No. 7 Cross street, Gains-borough. Elder Troop emigrated to America 22 years ago, and has been a resident of Rexburg and Market Lake, Ida., and died in Idaho, a faithful Latter-day Saint.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.

Mrs. Annie D. Luce, Who Came Here
In 1847, Passes Away.

The death is announced of Mrs. Annie D. Luce, a pioneer and faithful Church member, who passed away on Thursday, the 16th. Mrs. Luce was the wife of Wilford Woodruff Luce, and came to Utah as an orphan in 1847.
Since then she has lived in this city and in Cottonwood and was highly respected for her good deeds and noble character. She was the daughter of John Quansby, formerly of England, and her decease occurred at the age of 64 years.
Her husband, one son and two daughters survive her. The funeral will be held from the Second ward meetinghouse, Sunday, at 12:30 p. m.

Harris and James Families Wreak Vengeance on One Another.

A row between the Harris and James families, colored residents of Victoria alley, led to the arrest of Thomas Harris and wife, Alberta Harris, upon the charge of petty larceny. Two or three days ago Mrs. Harris and Mrs. James came to the wife's rescue and gave the James woman a black eye.
The next day Edward James took it upon himself to avenge his wife's defeat, and meeting Harris on the street, the two started in on what promised to be an interesting pugilistic bout. The officers of the law interfered and arrested James.

Mrs. James was bound to be revengeful, so she called upon the head waiter at the Commercial club, where Harris had been employed, and informed him that there was a quantity of stolen silverware in Harris' room. An investigation was made and it was discovered that silverware, dishes and table linens were missing from the club's pantry.
Patrolman Palmer was detailed to search Harris' room, where he found the missing articles. Officer Brown was sent in search of Harris and found him playing ball on the Eighteenth ward grounds. This occurred on Friday, his gorgeous green uniform, was taken to the police station and locked up. His wife was also placed under arrest, and the two were held in answer to the charge of petty larceny.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing, sneezing and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency.
And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Roschke's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once?
No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any cough, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup, so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25 large size, 50c. At all druggists.

FINE PROGRAM AT THEATER.

Medals Awarded by Committee Consisting of Judge Powers, E. M. Allison and Fred McGurrian.

There was a large audience in the Salt Lake theater last night, in attendance on the eighteenth commencement of All Hallows college. Degrees were conferred on four young men who had completed the full collegiate course, and many medals were presented to students who had distinguished themselves during the year. The college orchestra of 15 pieces furnished good music under the direction of Prof.
Pedersen, and the program included a cornet solo by Nelson Hogan, a fine exhibition drill by C. company of the Cadet corps, a violin concerto by Master Arthur Pedersen, the valedictory oration by Robert J. Pope, and closing remarks by Judge C. C. Goodwin. The judge urged the boys to make the most out of life. A good use may be made by money, but it should not be made the chief end of life. "In sailing out from the harbor of the home into the untrodden seas of life, be true to yourselves, with honesty, integrity and industry, to guide your bark, that you may in the end be brought into the harbor of old age safely, and the consciousness of a life well spent."

The students taking degrees were, Robert J. Pope of Orleans, Neb., bachelor of arts; Arthur Pedersen, Salt Lake, bachelor of science; Charles Jannetter, Salt Lake, master of accounts; Arthur Pedersen, graduate in Latin.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Thomas Steward's Barn and Lucern Go Up in Smoke.

A barn and five tons of lucern at the home of Thomas Steward, 1261 east Seventh South street, were totally destroyed by fire last evening. The fire was caused by a lighted cigarette which had been cast away by a small boy. A cow was tied in the barn, but was rescued by Mrs. Alice R. Southernland, who braved the flames and released the animal from its perilous position. The fire department, after a hard run, arrived at the scene too late to check the flames.

PARALYTIC ROBBED.

Light-Fingered Gent Steals Purse Belonging to Ether Pratt.

Ether Pratt, who is partially paralyzed, was relieved of his pocketbook and $2 in change yesterday afternoon by a neatly dressed man who belongs to the light-fingered gentry. Pratt is a teamster and was driving west on Fifth South street when the man asked permission to ride. His request was granted and he climbed up on the seat beside the driver. After riding several blocks he asked Pratt to let him out of the wagon and upon reaching the ground he commenced to rummage in Pratt's pocket and discovered that his pocketbook and money were gone. He notified the sheriff's office but no trace of the pickpocket has been found.

Since the warm weather set in, patronage at the Salt Palace has jumped up by leaps and bounds. The fact that the theater management at the resort also reduced the price of admission so that the ten cents now paid for admission to the grounds also admitted to the theater. Since that fur-races have drawn big crowds.

MANY PEOPLE HAVE CATARRH OF STOMACH AND DON'T KNOW IT. A Beautiful Ohio Belle Cured of Catarrh by the Use of Pe-ru-na.

Miss Althea Glynton, 1421 Chapel St., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes:
"My system was very much run down, from an excess of parties, late suppers and unreasonable hours without the proper rest."
"My appetite had failed me, I had frequent headaches and a lassitude which left me no ambition whatever.
I lost nearly twenty pounds, and was advised to take a good tonic and rest.
I had heard so much of Peru-na that I decided to try it. What a wonderful remedy it is, to be sure. In a very short time my appetite returned and with it ambition and a rested feeling, and I was soon my usual self, had regained most of the flesh lost and am very grateful to you for what Peru-na has done for me."—Althea Glynton.

No medicine in the world has cured more cases of dyspepsia than Peru-na.
The reason for this is that dyspepsia is a great majority of cases depends upon catarrh of the stomach.

MISS ALTHEA GLYNTON

Miss Ida Freyberg, 580 North 4th St., Sheboygan, Wis., writes:
"It is with great pleasure that I recommend Peru-na to all who are afflicted with catarrh. I was much troubled with that disease and had tried many doctors' prescriptions and many proprietary medicines, and had about given up in despair of ever being cured of my trouble, when a friend persuaded me to try a bottle of Peru-na.
I took one bottle and felt so much relieved that I got another, which benefited me much, and a third entirely cured me. I can always say a good word for Peru-na."—Miss Ida Freyberg.

Mrs. Jessie Colton, 489 East 19th St., New York City, writes:
"Through overwork and anxiety in my business I was very much run down.
Had loss of appetite, and what was worse than that, loss of sleep at night.
I was afraid I would have to consult a physician, when one of my customers advised me to try Peru-na, as it had made her well and strong. I began to take it, and in a few days began to feel stronger, and from the first dose I slept at night without awakening. I took only two bottles; now I am well, but I am never without Peru-na in the house."—Mrs.

Jessie Colton.

Peru-na cures all such cases of dyspepsia, simply because it cures catarrh wherever located. The reason so many cases of dyspepsia suffer on and on without any relief, trying this medicine and that medicine, is that these conditions are not recognized as catarrh of the stomach.

Any one suffering from dyspepsia, having tried the ordinary remedies without relief, would be safe to assume that their cases one of catarrh of the stomach, and should at once begin a course of Peru-na. Peru-na is sure to cure these cases. It never fails.

We have on file many thousand testimonies like the ones given above. We can only give our readers a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving every month. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiasm and grateful letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peru-na.

masked ball at Calder's park has been changed from Friday to Thursday.

There will be sacred concerts tomorrow at Saltair, Lagoon, Calder's, Salt Palace and Liberty Park.

By wearing their badges, indicating that they are over 70 years of age, the old folks residing in Pioneer state will, on Tuesday next, be taken to Saltair free of charge. This applies to all, without regard to creed or color. The occasion is the excursion of the Pioneer mediately on the arrival of the 4 o'clock train from Salt Lake, 50 children, members of the Sixth ward Primary association, will present the pleasing program, "The Meeting of Nations," all being dressed in the garb of the countries represented. This part of the program will be under the direction of Messadms Annie Poulton and Lizzie Watson. In the evening there will be an excellent program of square dance, interspersed with fancy bicycle riding.

Other features may be decided upon later on, so that all who go will have a most enjoyable time. The idea is to make the day a thorough social suc-
