PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, Sept. 5, 1896.

A Peculiar Will.

Charles Fox Stratmann of Mapleton, Utah county, died not long ago leaving a will and testament with the county recorder. The will, which is Mr. Stratmann's own production, has provided that after his death his wives pay his sons, Melvin Stratmann, the use of the estate while she remains unmarried. "If she be married or die," then the will shall perform. He then bequeaths to two of his children $1 each in United States gold coin. To four of the children he bequeaths fifty acres of land adjacent east of Spanish Fork to each, and the residuary of his personal property, providing however that before the division of the property shall not inherit any share of the real or personal property of the death of my partner, George Thomas Wakefield.

The instrument further directs that should any of the children or any of the grandchildren become members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, she called "The Mormon Church," or "The Roman Catholic Church," or any other religious society, or should any attempt to force them in any manner, whatever, they must not be entitled to inherit any portion of the real estate or personal property, but the property shall be divided equally between the four children, or their children, who state in the last estate above mentioned, who do not join of any of the churches and societies above mentioned. In case any of the heirs join or any other churches and societies, after they have received their portion of the estate, the probate judge shall make the property to be recovered through legal proceedings, and divided among those heirs who do not join the prescribed churches or societies. If all the heirs join or all the above described societies the property is to go to the regular church in Utah, of nearest to Utah. "Provided such church has taken action to exclude from membership in such church any and all who join or belongs to any of the above named secret societies," and it is provided that "any share of the proceeds thereof shall be used by said church exclusively for the purpose of working against Mormonism, by subjugating the Mormons and other people by proving that Joseph Smith was a false prophet, by circulating such books as The Mormon Prophets, by Rev. Dr. Wyl, The Golden Bible, by M. T. Lamb, and by publishing and circulating my manuscript entitled Sunny Rights of Children in the Charge of Persuading the (Pretense) Angel Moroni to Joseph Smith, and the Three Witnesses to the Book of Mormon." The United States district judge of Utah is empowered to appoint an honest person to execute the will. If any of the heirs contest the will or attempt to do so, they and their issue are barred from receiving any portion of the estate, and a probate is entered against any proposition for a contest of the instrument.

The document is signed in the presence of H. T. Reynolds, J. D. Reynolds and Charles A. Reynolds and is dated July 24th, 1891.

Notes.

Prof. Stanley of the Brigham Young Academy gave an interesting talk on the Chemistry of Yeast before a class of about thirty young ladies, yesterday afternoon, explaining what it was, how it grew and its operations and effects upon bread, and the causes for rise.

W. H. Grant of American Fork, has appealed the case of W. H. Grant vs George Nichols et al from the justice's court of American Fork to the Fourth district court. He brought suit to recover a lien or the value, $25. The jury in the lower court decided against him.

The M. E. church congregation will request that Rev. Joseph Wolfe, who has been the pastor for the past year, may be returned for another year. The appointments of pastors will be made at the conference to be held in Ogden next week.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: Albert Elliott, aged 23, and Emma Page, aged 18, both of Springville; Jerome H. Answerth, aged 21, and Sarah B. Walls, aged 17, both of American Fork.

As the 5:30 train passed R. G. Walker's store this town last evening and was turning east to the southwest part of town, some one fired a shot through a window in the third end of the last sleeper. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Three tramps have been arrested by Marshal Storrs of Springville and held to await the action of the district court on a charge of burglary in Mr. Hansen's store at Cedar Creek, last Sunday night.

The stock of merchandise of Shelton & Co. was sold yesterday, under an execution, to John Shelton for $350. It is Mr. Shelton's intention to continue the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bullock's 15-month's old son, Chester Hart, died yesterday morning from some stomach plaint. He was buried this morning.

The play of Nugget Nell, given last evening by a home comedy, was a very good performance and was well received by the audience.

Lehi Notes.

LEHI, UTAH, Sept. 4.—From a letter received by friends in Lehi it is learned that Jos. Emery, who is now serving as a missionary in Pleasantville, Perry county, Ills., is doing good work, having baptized two persons recently. He and his companion expected to baptize more in about a week, some being leading men of the county.

The method that was seen by several parties to fall on Mt. Nebo from the sun on the 1st of September passed unknown entirely. Some say it looked like a tube of falling stars. The sound so nearly was like the explosion of dynamite and was heard quite far below from here. It shook the ground in our main street, and in Swinyards dishes fell from the shelves and were broken.

The tramp nuisance is becoming most noticeable here. Two were arrested by the justice some days ago and fined with sixty days, but they, a gang of seven of them, left for parts unknown. Two of them were to wash their clothes. The officers could do nothing but send them 12.30 to 4 to leave.

Mr. Hans Rasmussen of Lehi is in Kamas with a drug store and intends to open up business there. Mr. Rasmussen is a graduate of Rush Medical College, Chicago, and is a good man for the business.

The wedding of the popular young people, Mr. Alexander Ritchie and Miss Martha Eccles, the reception was held at the residence of the parents of the bride. May their lives be wholly what the occasion calls.

Mr. S. Gill, who is building a new store on Main street, was arrested with an injunction to stop by the attorneys of Mr. J. Dee Holmes, on account of the trespassing on his lot, Isaac Gardner's land.

Four small boys found a can in a field of grain and in trying to get out of the same used a gun. Consequence: A scared boy, somewhat hurt and a grazing displeased owner.

The citizens of Lehi feel to thank their city fathers of the spring, that water, as it leaves down the ditch was taken out means thereof compelled to drive on.

The family of A. Feil is camped in memo the loss of their baby, is having gone from train over. The funeral was held at the residence of the parents.

Mr. Ingles, engineer of the sugar company, has manufactured a very large stock to be used by the company at the factory.

Mr. C. Brown is having his new place of business painted and fixed up in the latest style, preparatory to his removal into the same.

Our choir are preparing a fine program for a concert to be given in the near future for the benefit of some of our missionaries.

The friends of Rebecca Blanding will be sorry to learn of her being confined to her bed with serious illness.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, of Lehi, has departed this life from the effects of dysentery.
