Another Train Boarded by Four Masked Men.

OMAHA, Neb., 30. — Last night, the westward bound Union Pacific passenger train, which left Omaha on Tuesday night, was boarded by four masked highwaymen, when the train was pulling out of Perry station, 43 miles east of Rawlins. The robbers entered the middle Pullman sleeper, and calling to the passengers, "hands up," demanded their money and valuables. By the time three of passengers had been ransacked, one of the bolder passengers pulled the bell cord. The train came to a standstill, and the robbers becoming alarmed, jumped off the car and bolted. The booty secured was very light, only $280 in currency, three watches, and a few rings and breastpins. The robbers fired several shots in the car to frighten the passengers. One passenger was struck with the butt end of a revolver and his scalp cut. The Union Pacific officials and the Wyoming territorial and county authorities have instituted a vigorous pursuit of the robbers. Every possible effort will be made to capture and bring them to punishment. Their trail was discovered this morning. The Union Pacific offers $1,000 reward for each robber captured. It is thought they were tramps.

In the express car on the train, there was $120,000 in cash.

Decoration Day.

WASHINGTON, 30. — Decoration Day was generally observed as a holiday. A national salute was fired this morning. There were services at the Congressional Cemetery, Soldiers Home and Arlington. All soldiers graves were decorated. At Arlington, Representative Williams, of Wisconsin, delivered the memorial oration. The attendance at the several places was not as large as heretofore, owing, in a measure, to the absence of the President and other dignitaries at Arlington.

$100,000 Fire.

INDIANAPOLIS, 30.—The machine shops of the Indianapolis, Peru, and Chicago Railway, at Peru, Ind., were struck by lightning, last night, and with their contents entirely consumed by fire. There were three locomotives and two stock cars in the shops. The loss is estimated at $100,000; no insurance.

The Potter Committee.

CHICAGO, 30. — The Tribune's Washington special says: The Potter committee, yesterday, virtually decided to hold its sessions in secret; also to send a committee to Louisiana, with McMahon as its chairman, and one to Florida, with Potter as its chairman. Signs of disintegration are shown by the democracy in refusing to be bound by the caucus' action.

Kay's Letter.

The Times' Washington special says: Kay's letter appears to have shot him into the bosom of the republican party.

English Cabinet Dissensions.

The Times' London special says: There has been a new dissension in the cabinet on the closing point of the negotiations for the congress, a reunion being established by Sir Stafford Northcote threatening to resign. Only at the last moment did Russia agree to submit the treaty as a whole, but not until a mutual understanding had been arrived at on certain details not to be disputed by either side. Neither the date of the congress nor the place are yet definitely fixed. Austria is less satisfied with the prospects of the congress than the friends of peace expected.

Murder and Robbery.

FORT MCKINNEY, Wy., 30. — Harry Anderson, an employee in quartermaster's department here, who was sitting by a tree watching a herd of mules, was shot from behind and instantly killed, and then robbed, on the 25th instant. Suspicion rests on a soldier of this post, as the murderer, from the fact that a citizen saw the soldier in the immediate vicinity of where the murdered man's body was found, with his gun, and belt full of cartridges, a short time before the finding of the body. A board of officers has been ordered to investigate the matter. Circumstantial evidence, so far produced, will evidently convict the soldier of wilful murder. Blood was found on his boots, which he secreted, and also on his socks caused by a hole in his boot. The blood was examined by physicians here proved to be human blood. Unless the soldier can prove an alibi, which he has not yet done, the chances are against him. He is now confined in the post guard house.

Decoration Ceremonies.

NEW YORK, 30.—The observance of decoration day, beginning early in the morning and ending with ceremonies in Booth's Theatre, this evening, was perhaps more elaborate than any of the celebrations in recent years. The great feature of the day was the parade of the first division of the National Guard. But the exercises in the different cemeteries, and the ceremonies attending the decoration of the different statues and monuments were also extremely interesting. The decorations of the Washington Monument, Union Square, were of the most profuse and elaborate description, including palm trees from Florida. The statues of Lincoln and Lafayette, on the same square, were made hardly less attractive with fragrant flowers and evergreens. The Montgomery Monument at St. Paul's church, and the tomb of historic Lawrence, in Trinity church yard, were tastefully adorned.

Accident to Wm. Cullen Bryant.

The Evening Post furnishes the following account of the accident, yesterday, to Mr. Wm. Cullen Bryant: The exercises in Central Park, yesterday afternoon, on the occasion of the unveiling of the bust of Mazzini, occupied but over one and two hours. During a good deal of that time Mr. Bryant was in his place on the speaker's stand, with his head uncovered, suffering like many a younger man in the assembly, from the exposure, though making no complaint. At the close of the open air exercises, he was invited by James G. Wilson to his house, 52nd Nth Street, to rest, after the exertions of the afternoon, and partake of some refreshments. Arrived at their destination, General Wilson ran ahead up the steps to open the front door for his guest, who followed at a slower pace, induced by fatigue. On the platform step Mr. Bryant suddenly seemed to have lost consciousness, and in the act of raising one foot to enter the vestibule, fell backwards on the broad stone, striking his head with some violence. He was instantly lifted and carried into the house. As soon as it was thought prudent, he was removed to his own house. Dr. Gray, his physician, came as quick as possible, made an examination of the accident, expressed great surprise at the absence of any bruise or cut on the patient's head. He was of the opinion that Mr. Bryant's swoon was of a kind known to the medical profession as syncope, caused by diminution or interruption of the motion of the heart, and of respiration, accompanied with suspension of the action of the brain, and a temporary loss of sensation, volition and other faculties. During the night he was restless, and in only a partly conscious state, not appearing to recognize persons about him, but evidently having plenty of will power and some physical strength at his command.

Dr. Gray says Mr. Bryant is suffering from concussion of the brain. He thinks he will recover, but is still anxious. Mr. Bryant has taken no sustenance since the accident, and answers questions addressed to him, but his pulse is better and there is a fair change of improvement.

At a late hour to-night, the condition of Mr. Bryant was considered very critical. Both his daughters, who are absent, have been telegraphed for.

A Diabolical Act.

Some one, as yet unknown, placed a tie on the Prospect Park, Brooklyn and Coney Island Railroad track, last night, and the result was a gravel train was thrown from the rails and five laborers killed and several seriously wounded.

The Cuban Patriot Forces.

General Antonio Maceo, the well-known commander-in-chief of the Cuban patriot forces, arrived today from Jamaica. He is accompanied by two members of his staff, Brigadiers Arcadio Leite Vidal and Juan Rios Rivera.

General Maceo says: During the past six years the patriots have been constantly promised aid from here, but up to the present time have received absolutely nothing. The strength of the patriot army to-day is not much, 1,000 men, well armed and drilled. Opposed to them is over 40,000 Spanish troops, who give the Cubans not a moment's peace since the commencement of the campaign.

The General was wounded 21 times, and carries, to-day, four bullets. The General says he has made no terms whatever with the Spanish government, and adds: I am commissioned here by the provisional government, and by the courtesy of General Campos was permitted to pass through the lines. The war must continue. There is now no more congress or standing government, and affairs are under the direction of Manual Calvar, head of the provisional government.

Mysterious Disappearance.

Last night was the benefit performance to Pappenheim. The announcement was made to the audience that she was unaccountably absent. The announcement was received with much astonishment by the audience, and there was much whispered conversation over the failure of the beneficiary to be present at the entertainment devised solely for her advantage. The performance was continued to the close, but no tidings was received from the missing prima donna.

Tribute to the National Dead.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., 30.—The tribute to the national dead, at Gettysburg, was paid under circumstances of the greatest interest. Not since President Lincoln dedicated the cemetery has it been graced by so many distinguished citizens. The weather was fine, flags were everywhere displayed, and the streets were thronged with visitors. The morning was spent by the Presidential party in viewing the battle field, and other prominent points.

Wanted by the Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, 30. — James E. Anderson, supervisor of East Feliciana parish, at the last presidential election, has been subpoenaed to appear before the Potter investigating committee, and left for Washington.

$95,000 Fire.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., 30.—An Eagle colliery breaker, belonging to Geo. W. Johns & Bro., at St. Clair, burned this evening, was one of the largest in the country. It cost $95,000; insurance $25,000. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Shot by a Mob.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., 30.—A. Compagnett was taken from his bed at Queensville, Gibson County, last night, shot to death by a mob for dissoluteness and a murderous attack on a quiet citizen.

A Curious Case.

NEW ORLEANS, 30.— At noon, to-day, civil sheriff Houston, who had been sent to the parish prison by Judge Houston, of the Fourth District Court, was released on a writ of habeas corpus, issued by Judge Whittaker of the Superior Criminal Court. Judge Houston and civil sheriff Houston are brothers.

Note.—In connection with the clash between the criminal and civil court authorities, it may be stated that the act of 1874, which gave the Louisiana State Lottery Company exclusive right to sell lottery tickets in this State, was last week, declared unconstitutional by Judge Houston.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A Forcefed Slam.

LONDON, 30.—A dispatch from Vienna reports that the charter of the Gladstone on the coast of Maine has not been renewed, and the steamer will return to Hamburg before long. This is regarded as a peaceful sign.

The Royal Copyright Commission.

The report of the royal commission on copyright recommends the duration of copyright be for life, and 30 years thereafter. Foreigners publishing books in the British dominions to have the same rights as British subjects. Dramatic and musical compositions to be on the same footing as books, and the right of dramatizing to be coextensive with the copyright. What part of a newspaper may be copyrighted should be defined by legislation. The duration of copyright for all works of art, except photographs, should be the same as the above, and for photographs 30 years from date of publication. The report recommends an abolition for the future of the monopoly enjoyed by the Scottish and English Universities in the printing of books presented.

The Constantinople War Party.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg, last night, expresses fear that the war party at Constantinople may produce a crisis, and says the appointment of Prince Labanoff in place of General Ignatieff was intended to lessen this danger, and broad hints are now being thrown out that the British government might give some corresponding proof of its pacific disposition. These hints furnish the probable explanation of the present apparent hitch in the negotiations. Trouble from the Turks is altogether improbable:

A telegram, last night, says: The impression generally prevails in Constantinople that peace is assured.

The Trouble Between the Turks and Montenegrins.

The threatened trouble between the Turks and Montenegrins is the result of the aggressive action of the latter, who crossed the River Zeta and occupied the heights commanding Podovitza after the conclusion of the armistice. The Turks new demand the withdrawal of the Montenegrins.

Representatives to the Congress.

Various special dispatches mention Count Schouvaloff, Lord Lyons, Count Andrassy, M. Waddington, Count Corti and Sadijk Pasha as representatives of their respective governments to the congress. Bismarck and Von Bulow will represent Germany. Von Radwitz, nominally minister to Greece, but permanently employed in the Prussian foreign office, will take notes and make a daily report of the proceedings, and Tiby, former secretary of the French legation at Berlin, and now minister at Copenhagen, is expected to draft the final report, embodying the decisions of the congress. It is believed in Berlin that Greece will be invited to send a representative to the congress.

The Reason Why.

A letter from Constantinople explaining the recent change of position made by the Russians, says the country between San Stefano and Adrianople is exceedingly malarious, and 15,000 Russians on that line have died, mostly of fever, within two months.

Gold for America.

There was withdrawn from the Bank of England, yesterday, for New York, £100,000 in gold.

Schouvaloff and the Propositions.

A Vienna dispatch says: The propositions which Count Schouvaloff took to London, and which appear to have been substantially accepted, were that the southern boundary of Bulgaria is to be the line from Burgas to Philippopolis and Vrapja; Turkey to retain Batoum on condition of the demolition of the Danubian fortresses; substitution of European for Russian control in carrying out the treaty, and the remaining questions to be left to the congress.
