CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 6.—Sargent, from the appropriation committee, called up the invalid pension bill for the year ending June, 1879. In explanation, he said under the legislation of March 9, any soldier of the war of 1812, even though in a single engagement, was entitled to a pension. This added nearly $1,500,000 to the pension roll; 22,225 new names had been placed on the roll since the beginning of the present fiscal year. The bill, as it came from the House, appropriates $29,371,000, or $838,000 more than last year. The Senate committee had added $35,000 for fees to examining surgeons, in order to enable the commissioner to secure the services of good physicians. Regarding the second section, which provides that after July 1st, wounded and disabled Union soldiers shall occupy the offices of pension agents, Sargent said, if adopted, it would require a change in the offices of the pension agents all over the country next July. The Senate committee had therefore stricken it out and inserted in lieu thereof that preference shall hereafter be given to wounded or disabled Union soldiers in the appointment of pension agents. The clause fixing the examining surgeon's fee at $1 was stricken out by the committee and an amendment added making the appropriation for fees $83,000, instead of $50,000. This amendment was agreed to by the Senate.

Beck opposed the amendment regarding the appointment of disabled soldiers, and said this section infringed on the President's rights; besides, sometimes the President might not find the wounded soldier who could give the required bond. He could not deny soldiers any right or generosity, but would not vote for anything unconstitutional.

Christiancy made remarks of a similar drift.

Dorsey submitted an amendment that after October, 1878, the offices of all pension agents shall expire, and that thereafter honorably discharged Union soldiers shall fill the pension offices.

Hoar moved to amend by adding or widows or daughters of soldiers. Agreed to.

Saulsbury opposed both amendments as unconstitutional.

Ingalls expressed the belief that the democrats feared more for an abridgement of power of the next than of the present President. If the democratic House could pass such a bill he did not see why the Senate, ostensibly republican, should object to it.

Hereford—What do you mean by ostensibly republican?

Ingalls—Well, nominally republican.

Blaine—History will vindicate you.

Ingalls—Yes, history will vindicate me.

After discussion, Dorsey modified his amendment to read as follows: That on the 1st day of January, 1879, the terms of office of all pension agents shall expire, and honorably discharged, wounded, for disabled Union soldiers, or widows or daughters of such soldiers shall be appointed to such offices. Agreed to—yeas 27, nays 22.

Sargent then submitted an amendment to that of the committee, providing, that from and after the passage of the act, in case of a vacancy in the office of pension agent, it shall be filled by the appointment of wounded or disabled Union soldiers. Agreed to.

Pending discussion, Christiancy introduced a bill to amend section 5,414 of the Revised Statutes, and to punish forgery and other like crimes injuriously affecting foreign governments. Referred. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 6.—The House then considered the District of Columbia bill. It removes property qualification for commissioners, abolishes poll tax, provides for the payment of interest on the 3 65 bonds, but declares the government is not liable for the payment of the principal, and provides for three commissioners.

Townsend's amendment requiring that the election of commissioners be by joint ballot of Congress was rejected. Also the amendment of Cox making the appointment of commissioners devolve on the President, with the advice of the Senate.

The committee's amendment striking out the property qualification clause and the clause requiring voters to have paid a poll tax, agreed to.

Question was raised as to limiting the rate of taxation to $1.75 per $100 and incidentally.

Cox of Ohio and Cox of New York denied that the government was responsible for either the principal or interest. Without disposing of the question the House adjourned.

EASTERN.

The Four per Cent. Loan.

WASHINGTON, 6.—The Secretary of the Treasury invites subscriptions to the 4 per cent. loan upon the same terms as those offered to the public in July, 1877, namely: Subscribers upon the deposit of two per cent., will be allowed 90 days to complete payment. At the expiration of 90 days the bonds will be issued upon the receipt of 98 per cent. of the principal and interest accrued, to take date, and one-fourth of 1 per cent. Commission on all subscriptions of $1,000 and over will be allowed.

Accused for Robbery.

BOSTON, 6.—Herbert W. Otis, Chas. Doherty, Wm. Regan and three others have been arrested for the robbery of the safe of Ephraim Otis in South Scituate, and the robbery of $30,000 bonds therein. Herbert Otis is a nephew of Ephraim, and probably concocted the whole scheme. The property has been recovered.

$100,000 Fire.

BRADFORD, Pa., 6.—A fire started in a small stable here this afternoon, and the flames spread over two acres of the business portion of the city. A large hotel, livery stable, several stores, oil offices and dwellings were burned. About $100,000 worth of property is destroyed.

The Transit of Mercury.

CHICAGO, 6.—Dispatches from all over the country say the transit of Mercury was observed to-day, generally with satisfactory results, confirming the previous observations for the motion of the perehelion of Mercury.

The Great Bond Case Decided.

NEW ORLEANS, 6.—The supreme court decided the great bond case in favor of the New Orleans Pacific railroad. It declared the $2,000,000 issue to be legal and valid and ordered the auditor to issue $250,000 immediately in compliance with the conditions. When all the present valid debt is funded, including $500,351 consolidated planters' assessed bonds, the debt will be only $12,089,128, leaving more than enough room for the $2,000,000 for the railroad before the limit of $15,000,000 is reached.

A Bad Showing.

FALL RIVER, 6.—The stockholders of the Border City mill, to-day, heard a report showing the corporation's net indebtedness to be $1,053,682, besides other small debts amounting to over $70,000. There is a deficit, moreover, of $110,000 in the deposit account. The secured assets are $1,020,051. This amount will shrink considerably. The stockholders have voted to go into bankruptcy.

Serious Election Riot.

WELDON, N. C., 6.—The election for town commissioners was the occasion of a serious riot here, this morning, between the whites and negroes. Both races had candidates in the field, and great excitement prevailed. About 10 o'clock the riot began, and clubs, knives and pistols were freely used. Quite a number of persons were shot, cut and bruised. One man, a negro, will die, it is thought, and the injuries of several others are regarded dangerous. A military company has been telegraphed for to Norfolk, as indications for a fresh outbreak are imminent. The presence of the Virginia military on the other side of the river may have a quieting effect.

WESTERN.

Dennis Kearney Ruled Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, 6.—For some time past a disagreement has existed between the State and county committees of the workingmen's party and Dennis Kearney, the latter seeking to run the party to suit himself, and taking the stand that no member of either committee or officers of ward clubs should be eligible as delegates to the constitutional convention. The difficulty has culminated by the committees reading Kearney out of the party, while Kearney, who sways a regular Sunday assemblage at Sand Lots, has, by a vote of his mob of followers, assumed to rule out both committees and take sole control of the question. The contest bids fair to result in a disruption of the party.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Indian Troops.

LONDON, 6.—In the House of Commons, Sir William Vernon Harcourt queried the right of government to employ Indian troops without the consent of Parliament.

Northcote defended the act as constitutional, and being merely a movement of troops from one part to another part of the empire. Government he said did not publish the news and did not expect it to become public so soon. The government's policy is still to obtain an amicable settlement, but it may be disappointed. It, therefore, feels that it is its duty to take precautions. The expenses of the Indian troops will be borne by the Imperial exchequer. He apprehended they would serve under the Indian military act.

The Insurrection—Continued Fighting.

A Pera dispatch says: Advices from Adrianople and Phillipopolis of the 2nd instant, report continued fighting about Haskoi, in which district 21 Mahommedan villages have been destroyed. The Russians are laying the blame on Bulgarians and the Bulgarians laying it on the Russians. There have been many arrests at Adrianople among Bulgarians accused of complicity in the destruction of Turkish villages. The insurgents have not yet descended into the plain farther west than Hoskoi, but the Pomaks (Bulgarians who have been converted to Islamism,) of Dritabma valley, co-operate with the main body of the insurgents in furnishing contingent and holding mountain passes. To counteract this movement a Russian force is marching from Sophia. In the South the insurgents have taken Rahova and other places. Thirty-eight wounded Russians have been brought to Phillipopolis. The main body of the insurgents is estimated at 30,000, exclusive of the scattered bands. Information has reached us that a large number of Greeks have joined and that there is communication between the leaders and insurgent bands of Thessaly, which seems credible when it is remembered that the Greek insurrection was anti-Sclav rather than anti-Turk. There seems also reason to expect a strong Albanian contingent will join the insurrection.

Plundering Armenian Villages.

A dispatch from Syra says: News from Kharport, Turkish Armenia, reports the plundering of 91 Armenian villages in the district of Clemistseho by Dersin Koords. The Ottoman authorities are unable to afford protection. Although the district is greatly impoverished. Double taxes are demanded. In Gieghi, which lies between Kharport and Erzeroum, the dearth threatens soon to become a famine.

Grant and Party.

General Grant and his party have left Turin for Dijon and Paris.

FRANCE.

The Ruined Palace.

PARIS, 6.—The Tuelleries commission has resolved to recommend the restoration of that ruined palace at a cost of about 4,000,000 francs and the appropriation of it to a museum of modern art. The chambers will be asked to sanction the scheme.

Elections.

The supplemental elections held yesterday for members of the Chamber of Deputies caused by the invalidations of previous elections, resulted in the return of six republicans and two conservatives.

GERMANY.

Ecclesiastical May Laws.

BERLIN, 6.—Contrary to the expectations raised by the recent conciliatory attitude of the Papacy, those Prussian priests in receipt of government stipends have been asked by Cardinal Catherini, perfect of the congregation of sacred councils, either to renounce their salaries or declare their opposition to the ecclesiastical May law.

CONFERENCE VISITORS.

I BELIEVE that the Citizens of this Territory could afford to pay a committee $10 per day to examine into the merit of machines offered, thus preventing the palming off of inferior articles on the market, and the consequent loss of thousands of dollars, or the repeated semi-occasionally by making a few changes and names to said machines. When this time comes the Branson Knitter and New American Sewing Machines will take a front rank for simplicity of parts, durability, ease of learning, utility, Etc.
