Have You a Home?

It not it will pay you to investigate the advantages of Forest Dale before buying elsewhere. We have our own water system, water piped in most desirable (cast iron pipes, and the ownership of the water, including the extension of the pipes pay your water rents purchasers in Forest Dale little if any more than buying the water in most cities. The advantage this affords will be readily seen, for the water belongs to the residents (each purchaser of a lot being allowed his proportion of the capital stock of the Forest Dale Water Company) and it rests with them to fix the water rates charged. The expense of running the system is very small, and after the first expense of laying the mains is paid the rates need not be more than one-tenth those charged by Salt Lake City.

Have You Saved Anything?

Some people have been waiting for years for land to reach bottom prices. In the meantime they have paid rent, and if they have made any improvements or done any work on their residences, the improvements have been made, or the work done, for their landlord. Many other people have built homes, and while these first mentioned have been "waiting for something to turn up," have paid for their property and now own the home that shelters them.

Don't Get in Debt

unless you feel assured you can get out again. But if you have money saved, buy a home. If you have an income, buy a home. It pays to have an object in view, and there is no more worthy object than procuring a home for those dependent upon you.

My clerks, at room 330 Constitution Building, will give you prices and show you the property.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

A Copper Plant Bonus Proposition Debated and Defeated.

A STARTLING COMMUNICATION.

Resolution to Stop Work on the Joint City and County Building—The City's Bad Financial Condition.

The City Council met last night all members present except Councilman President McCornick occupied the chair.

An ordinance amending section 8, chapter 14 of the ordinance governing the charges which the city engineer may make for various kinds of work was taken up, read and laid on the table.

The committee on sanitary rules and sewerage regulations offered an amendment as follows to section 14, chapter 16 of the revised ordinances of Salt Lake City of 1893:

Works on the whole of section 14 and sections the first, second, third, fourth and fifth of section 15 and sewer and garbage within district No. 1 and the removal of garbage within district No. 2 shall be at the expense of the city.

The matter was discussed at length and the ordinance passed on a vote of 8 to 3, and so declared.

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS.

Moses Hirschman asked for relief from tax sale. City attorney.

Pat Ryan and others asked that the sewer system be extended over Fourth West street between West Temple and Fourth West streets. Committee on sewerage with power to act.

C. W. Higgins and others asked that First West street from First to Fifth North streets be put in a passable condition. Committee on streets.

Mrs. E. F. Tackett and others protested against splitting up Trolley East between South Temple and Second south streets. Committee on splitting.

R. L. McCall and others represented that the Salt Lake & Los Angeles Railway company had already damaged South Temple street from the Jordan river to Tenth West streets, by laying a track thereon; also that the company had no franchise for that part of the road. They therefore asked for an investigating committee. Committee on streets.

W. L. Dykes and others represented that there were five acres of city land in plat E upon which lease was not paid. Referred to committee of three appointed from Third precinct.

H. J. Davis and others asked that John Delaney be appointed assistant street superintendent. Committee on streets.

E. H. Rennie offered to pay $50 for the exclusive privilege of selling temperance drinks, etc., at Liberty Park.

MUNICIPAL FINANCES.

Mr. Young said he had a few words to say on the financial condition of the city. He had been a member of the council for a number of years and had never seen the city in such a condition as at the present time. The city was in debt for the current year, and there was no money with which to pay the salaries of the city officers. The city was in debt for the last month of the last year, and there was no money with which to pay the salaries of the city officers for that month
