DESERET EVENING NEWS

TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Forecast for Utah: Local rains at San Francisco and vicinity; Sunday fair; S. E. W. Salt Lake City: Barometer, 30.11; temperature, 72; precipitation, .00; wind, 10 hr. S. W.; weather, clear. Maximum temperature, 84; minimum, 50. Forecast for Utah: Rain at San Francisco, for 36 hours; nothing else; probably fair tonight and Sunday. Stationary temperature.

Temperatures for Salt Lake City and vicinity for 36 hours ending midnight yesterday:

Friday, June 16, 1899.

Maximum temperature	84
Minimum temperature	50
Average temperature	67
Precipitation	.00

For tonight and Sunday: Warmer tonight.

L. H. MUDGETT,
Forecast Official, Weather Bureau.

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 69 3-8
LEAD, $4.25
CASTING COPPER 16 1-2 cents a lb.

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, separate and apart from the daily) was, on the last issue,

12,400 COPIES

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figures give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed on the first and fifteenth of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

January 1, 1899	10,250
January 15, 1899	10,275
February 1, 1899	10,475
February 15, 1899	10,600
March 1, 1899	10,750
March 15, 1899	9,900
April 1, 1899	9,525
April 15, 1899	9,850
May 1, 1899	9,850
May 15, 1899	12,050
June 15, 1899	12,400

LOCAL BRIEFS.

There were twenty-one marriage licenses issued by the county clerk this week.

The Democratic women of Salt Lake give their welcome to Senator Mc Mahon.

Godfrey's famous British Guards band will be at Saltair this evening and tomorrow.

The Old Folks who go to Geneva on July 5th, will also have an outing at Saltair at a later date.

Apostle Brigham Young is planning an extended missionary trip among the Indian tribes of Mexico.

John N. Anderson, 21, and Julia Berryman, 18, both of this city, were married yesterday by Judge Morris.

The Inline belonging to the Mutual Improvement, their are requested to meet at the Tabernacle at 7:30 Monday evening.

Home itinerary: Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ferguson, who have been visiting in the East, have returned to their home in Salt Lake.

Governor Wells is company with Mr. Thomas Charles and Mr. Louis, attorney in New York last night. The party will probably return some time next week.

Father Tonnon, the Pontiff preacher, will leave for Eureka this evening. He proposed for that Salt Lake sinners is a very strong sermon last night.

Mary's Cathedral last night, was large and beautifully adorned with flowers.

The Hubber Floor company today made a large contribution of some carpetbaggs and other flowers for the beautiful decorations of the Temple and Tabernacle grounds.

It seems quite certain that M. S. Wadley will be chosen to succeed Francis Armstrong as president of the company superintendent. The matter may receive consideration at the meeting to be held in Manhattan next week.

A warrant for $11,000 has been issued to Auditor Richards, which goes to the Territory repeals in repayment of Federal expenses incurred by Utah, advanced towards the suppression of the southern branch normal school building.

The members of the Temple choir are requested to sing at the funeral of Sister Francis Armstrong tomorrow morning (Sunday) at 11 o'clock, at the Assembly Hall. C. J. Thomas.

Bishop W. R. Preston and daughter, Mrs. O. W. Ingalls, left for a visit to Wasatch this afternoon. A large force of carpenters and painters are still at work in the Ward. A. Bowen, and next week the new rice line will be laid from the Bishop.

The county officers and employes will meet at the county building at 4 o'clock on Sunday morning and will go in a body to the residence of Francis Armstrong, to which place they will return then they will go to the Assembly Hall. County Clerk Dunbar has provided carriages and hacks for the occasion.

The street department is busily engaged sprinkling and watering the streets preparatory for the 19th. There have been over hundred served already and 20 men are now at work on the job. Monday, it is expected the body is to a force so demanding in order to save valuable time.

There is much complaint that smoke nuisance, dusters and there are suffering for want of water in various parts of the city, and nothing of a public nature seems to come. Many persons are inclined to entertain the idea there should be a department to some purpose and some in others.

A very exciting runaway took place from Second South, yesterday afternoon from the Mr. Grants, with the horses belonging to Mr. Ferguson. The team became frightened at Four Corners, and ran down the street, where it was stopped by a wagon. The horses were slightly injured, and the wagon was badly damaged.

Mr. Ferguson, editor and publisher of the Lehi Banner, came in from, esquimalt, this morning. Mr. Ferguson is an old stockholder of the Deseret News.

Mr. J. W. M. Dodd and wife are among the Walker arrivals. They came up from American Fork on the north-bound train and will remain in town for a few days.

C. M. Cram, accompanied by his wife and their children, are visiting in Salt Lake. Mr. Cram is a prominent merchant in Ogden and is well known in this city. He is a brother of Mrs. Cram.

Mr. Brown, from St. Brown and Mr. Brown, from Ogden, left Salt Lake for home last night. Mr. Brown, of Ogden, is a brother of Mrs. Cram.

The Ogden Ward Choir will sing at the funeral of Sister Francis Armstrong tomorrow morning. Several hours and carriage and a party have been sent to Salt Lake to add to greater assistance.

The friends of Prof. Jos. F. Dayton will sympathize with him and his wife in the bereavement which has befallen them. Their little girl, Villetta, who was attacked by scarlet fever on May 26th, died at 11 o'clock this morning. The funeral was a private affair, and notice of the time of the funeral will be sent from the home. The family will be sent from the home. Interment will be in the city cemetery.

O. H. Auer, who declined to accept a commission in the commission of the Washington school, will go to Chicago in a short time and will be in charge of a large store of sporting goods. The news from Mr. Auer and brother in Boston, where he has been visiting, is to the effect that he will be well with the good wishes of many friends.

Yesterday was Bingo, mother, sister and the children relative of the city. Bingo is a Chinese Chinese. Yesterday Tuck, assistant to the Rev. Dr. Jessup, Chinese Chinese, Bingo, who is a Chinese Chinese, who illness and injuries had been brought by a fall from a horse, died at the residence of his father, Mr. Tuck, in St. Louis, on the 3rd inst. The deceased was a son of Mr. Tuck, who died in Salt Lake City, July 20.

A bell or a street car last evening gave the conductor a frightful and nearly fatal shock. The bell rang and he was aware of the crew until the chance was handed by, when the motor man was thrown from the car, and a small piece of bonnet. A gentleman who witnessed the proceedings on board the car said: "Conductor, you ought to be ashamed to be so frightened." "Well, he let me go this time," said the conductor, "but I'm ashamed to be so frightened." "Conductor, you must have intended to be so." "Well, I guess I must have intended yesterday." "Yes, I guess you must." "Yes, I guess I must." "Yes, I guess I must." "Yes, I guess I