Fire at Park City.—A special to the News states that about I o'clock this morning, a fire occurred at Park City, in the house lately occupled by Dominic Dignan, which was was wholly destroyed. As the house was unoccupied, it is supposed to have been the act of an incendiary, who probably had a view towards plundering the business houses during the configuration.
The store of M. S. Aschelmer caught fire, but through the prompt assist-ance of the fire company, it was saved with but little loss. Great dants entered; Judgment for plaincredit is due the firemen for being so promptly upon the ground with their equipments, and for the man-ner in which they managed the fire, thereby saving the town. Total lor, price 10 cts.
