

JOCKEY MAKES GREAT RECORD

Wins Four Times in Four Times
Up On Different Mounts.

BRINGS HOME LONG SHOTS

After Making Wise Ones Glad He Turns Around and Makes His Followers Happy.

Long shots and the head and stick work of one Jockey Nelson made yesterday's horse races at the fair grounds a fine day for the followers. Nelson rode four winners, or rather made the second race of five furlongs, on Lady Alicia, he won the fourth race of a mile and an eighth, on St. Joe, he won the fifth and on slightly he won the sixth. The last two were four furlongs and four and half furlongs respectively. Three times Nelson made the favorite pickers glad and once on slightly he brought home an outsider and turned the talent. This is riding and running hard.

Happy Chappy and slightly were 10 to 1 shots and their winning made those playing the field fall better over a series of victories for favorites.

Happy Chappy simply ran away from the field and left Laura P. M. the favorite, as a train passes a stagecoach. Slightly had to run to win his victory and run hard.

The first race—six furlongs—Berlin looked good, but Western started to pick up, and it was seen this animal was after glory and money strong. Duke of Orleans and Maxford, two fast horses, pushed ahead, but Western kept the lead and passed under the wire leading the procession.

The second race was a snore for Jim Mallady over his old rival, Jim Hanna. The form chart says Jim Hanna suffered from one of Smith's abominable riders. It was in this race that Nelson won his first victory. Happy Chappy, the outsider, made the fourth race a fast field and the favorite, Lady Alicia, Kogo, Miss May Bowdish and Naboussais Nelson won by a wide margin and was played against the field and made good. Kogo came in second and Miss May Bowdish, third.

The fifth was St. Joe's victory, and St. Joe was ridden by Nelson. The fans began to play a combination of boy and horse, and it carried out during the remainder of the program, even in the sixth when Nelson brought home slightly. At 10 to 1 slightly cost a killing.

Tomorrow is Elks' day and ladies' day.

Latonia Results.

First race, five furlongs—Dr. Barley won, Donna second, Desperado third. Time—1:30.5.

Second race, five and a half furlongs—Christmas won, Yeara second, Miss Crittenden third. Time—1:40.5.

Third race, six furlongs—Mandelmer won, Gresham second, Enlistment third. Time—1:51.5.

Fourth race, one mile—Lady Martha won, Archival second, Hanbridge third. Time—1:50.5.

Fifth race, mile and a sixteenth—Mortiboy won, Bean Drummond second, Lady Bolder third. Time—1:57.5.

Sixth race, mile and three-sixteenths—Carew won, Belmore second, St. Valentin third. Time—2:00.

Empire City Results.

First race, six furlongs—Jeanette M. won, Trolet second, Belle of the Ball third. Time—1:51.5.

Second race, mile and 70 yards—Dixie Himmel won, Golconda second, Lady Bolder third. Time—1:57.5.

Third race, six furlongs—Vase Mason won, Garland second, Siskin third. Time—1:51.5.

Fourth race, six furlongs—Desome won, Arondack second, Royal Onyx third. Time—1:51.5.

Fifth race, one mile—Whip Top won, Faust McCarthy second, Fanny third. Time—1:41.5.

Sixth race, mile and three-sixteenths—Beaulieu won, Coat of Arms second, Ivanhoe third. Time—2:01.

Toronto Results.

First race, six furlongs—King Thistle won, Caltha second, Potent third. Time—1:51.5.

Second race, half a mile—Latacaw won, Arveight Leonard second, Loudon third. Time—1:21.5.

Third race, five furlongs—Demaisance won, Fantasia second, Hasty third. Time—1:36.

Fourth race, one mile—Autumn Flower won, Black Hawk second, True Boy third. Time—1:41.5.

HOPE TO HAVE FIGHT.

Dick Hyland is presumed to be on one of the belated Rio Grande trains and fans are awaiting his arrival impatiently as they hope to arrange a bout between Hyland and Pete Sullivan for some nearby city.

GRADE SCHOOL FOOTBALL LEAGUE SEASON OPENS

Tomorrow marks the opening of the grade school football league season. Three games are scheduled. The first set shown in football by the youngsters this year and the zest with which they have been practicing promise great games during the league season. The athletic committee, team groups and dates follow:

Chairman J. H. Coombs, principal of Lafayette school; Evelyn Kelly, principal of Franklin school; Martha P. Johnson, principal of Lincoln school; Almy C. Clayton, trustee officer.

Group I—Training, Summer, Webster, Emerson, Group II—Union, Lafayette, Lincoln.

Friday, October 23.

Training vs Webster, Twelfth East and Fourth South.

Summer vs Emerson, Sixth East between Fifth and Sixth South.

Union vs Lincoln, Liberty Park.

Friday, October 30.

Training vs Summer, Liberty Park.

Webster vs Emerson, Twelfth East and Fourth South.

Lafayette vs Union, Sixth East between Fifth and Sixth South.

Friday, November 6.

Training vs Emerson, Sixth East between Fifth and Sixth South.

Summer vs Webster, Liberty Park.

Lafayette vs Union, Twelfth East and Fourth South.

Friday November 3.

Championship game, winners of Group I vs winners of Group II.

CRESCENTS VICTORIOUS.

Defeat Z. C. M. I. Before Large Crowd Of Fans Interested in Bowling.

Bowling is getting more attention than before, before the season of this city. Last night's series between the Z. C. M. I. and Crescents drew a good crowd, and the Crescents were victorious. Old hands at the game were in the two teams, and the rollers showed up well. That the bowlers have not struck their stride yet was evident, however, the Crescents took the high score for the series, but high game honor went to Sam Spitz, who rolled 309. Spitz was pleased with a watching for making a perfect score March 18, and applause of the fans.

The summary of last night's series follows:

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

PERFECT CONFIDENCE

Salt Lake City People Have Good Reason for Complete Reliance.

Do you know how—

To find quick relief from backache; To correct distressing urinary ills; To surely cure sick kidneys; To give your neighbors know; Just use Doan's Kidney Pills; Have proved their worth in many tests.

Here's Salt Lake City testimony. Mrs. A. Clark, living at 367 west First South street, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "A friend spoke so highly of Doan's Kidney Pills that I decided to try them a trial. I was suffering at the time from severe backache and my kidneys also being in a disordered condition. I was never laid up with the trouble, but was unable to do any work. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the P. J. Hill Drug Co., and they cured the backache so that I have not had a symptom of trouble since." (From statement given July 10, 1908.)

A LASTING CURE. On Sept. 19, 1907, Mrs. Clark confirmed her previous statement, when she said: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney trouble in 1905, and it gives me pleasure to state that I have not had any recurrence of the trouble since. I am glad to confirm the statement I previously gave in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

won, Gresham second, Enlistment third. Time—1:51.5.

Fourth race, one mile—Lady Martha won, Archival second, Hanbridge third. Time—1:50.5.

Fifth race, mile and a sixteenth—Mortiboy won, Bean Drummond second, Lady Bolder third. Time—1:57.5.

Sixth race, mile and three-sixteenths—Carew won, Belmore second, St. Valentin third. Time—2:00.

Empire City Results.

First race, six furlongs—Jeanette M. won, Trolet second, Belle of the Ball third. Time—1:51.5.

Second race, mile and 70 yards—Dixie Himmel won, Golconda second, Lady Bolder third. Time—1:57.5.

Third race, six furlongs—Vase Mason won, Garland second, Siskin third. Time—1:51.5.

Fourth race, six furlongs—Desome won, Arondack second, Royal Onyx third. Time—1:51.5.

Fifth race, one mile—Whip Top won, Faust McCarthy second, Fanny third. Time—1:41.5.

Sixth race, mile and three-sixteenths—Beaulieu won, Coat of Arms second, Ivanhoe third. Time—2:01.

Toronto Results.

First race, six furlongs—King Thistle won, Caltha second, Potent third. Time—1:51.5.

Second race, half a mile—Latacaw won, Arveight Leonard second, Loudon third. Time—1:21.5.

Third race, five furlongs—Demaisance won, Fantasia second, Hasty third. Time—1:36.

Fourth race, one mile—Autumn Flower won, Black Hawk second, True Boy third. Time—1:41.5.

HOPE TO HAVE FIGHT.

Dick Hyland is presumed to be on one of the belated Rio Grande trains and fans are awaiting his arrival impatiently as they hope to arrange a bout between Hyland and Pete Sullivan for some nearby city.

GRADE SCHOOL FOOTBALL LEAGUE SEASON OPENS

Tomorrow marks the opening of the grade school football league season. Three games are scheduled. The first set shown in football by the youngsters this year and the zest with which they have been practicing promise great games during the league season. The athletic committee, team groups and dates follow:

Chairman J. H. Coombs, principal of Lafayette school; Evelyn Kelly, principal of Franklin school; Martha P. Johnson, principal of Lincoln school; Almy C. Clayton, trustee officer.

Group I—Training, Summer, Webster, Emerson, Group II—Union, Lafayette, Lincoln.

Friday, October 23.

Training vs Webster, Twelfth East and Fourth South.

Summer vs Emerson, Sixth East between Fifth and Sixth South.

Union vs Lincoln, Liberty Park.

Friday, October 30.

Training vs Summer, Liberty Park.

Webster vs Emerson, Twelfth East and Fourth South.

Lafayette vs Union, Sixth East between Fifth and Sixth South.

Friday, November 6.

Training vs Emerson, Sixth East between Fifth and Sixth South.

Summer vs Webster, Liberty Park.

Lafayette vs Union, Twelfth East and Fourth South.

Friday November 3.

Championship game, winners of Group I vs winners of Group II.

CRESCENTS VICTORIOUS.

Defeat Z. C. M. I. Before Large Crowd Of Fans Interested in Bowling.

Bowling is getting more attention than before, before the season of this city. Last night's series between the Z. C. M. I. and Crescents drew a good crowd, and the Crescents were victorious. Old hands at the game were in the two teams, and the rollers showed up well. That the bowlers have not struck their stride yet was evident, however, the Crescents took the high score for the series, but high game honor went to Sam Spitz, who rolled 309. Spitz was pleased with a watching for making a perfect score March 18, and applause of the fans.

The summary of last night's series follows:

PACKY SETS GHETTO'S PRIDE

Easterner Made a Few Flashy Showings But Went to Sure Defeat.

GONG JUST DID SAVE HIM

McFarland Waded Into Cross and There Was Early Seen a Victory for Westerner.

New York, Oct. 21.—Out of the west tonight came "Packy" McFarland, a lightweight fighter, and for five rounds he hammered Leach Cross, the "Pride of the Ghetto," which such precision as to earn a decided victory. At the same time he set in the background, "Gong" just did save him. The "go," a regulation six-round affair, was the feature of the program of the Fairmount Athletic club. Both boys were weighed in this afternoon at 133 pounds.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent a crashing right to Cross' jaw. The easterner went down for the count of six. When he arose he was weak and he had to the end of the round. In the fourth, McFarland again went after his man, but Cross here met him with a quick counter, and in this round managed to have a shade the better of the argument. Cross' right and left hands were being used to the best advantage. In the fifth round Cross took a lot of punishment and was staggering grossly about the ring when the bell rang.

McFarland at the sound of the gong was fighting handily for an early victory. Cross punched back furiously and during the first two minutes it was hard to tell upon whom the greater number of blows landed. Then both boys settled down to more scientific methods. At this kind of fighting McFarland was the better and he took the advantage cleverly. In the third round McFarland stepped inside a left swing and sent