FRAGMENTS.

MARRIAGE licenses have been issued to Charles A. Henderson and Minnie E. Kessell, William Howell and Catherine Cooper.

THERE are messages at the Western Union Telegraph office for W. L. Mason, J. H. Ransom, Jr., Hodges, R. A. Anderson and Mrs. M. B. Ellis.

A. C. BUTTERFIELD, recently of the Utah and Montana Machinery company, has been appointed assistant to Secretary H. V. Maly, of the Chamber of Commerce.

THE Utah Book and Stationery company has received the Review of Reviews for November. It is an excellent number.

THE coroner's jury, who investigated the cause of death of A. S. Wasden, the city pauper, returned a verdict last evening of death from heart failure, superinduced from the excessive use of liquor.

MR. CHARLES ELLIS lectures in Brigham City tonight; Ogden tomorrow, Nov. 5, and Logan Friday, Nov. 6. Next week the well known lecturer will visit Sanpete and Sevier counties.

THE Family Herald for November, ahead of time, the Century and all other current numbers of English and American magazines are on hand at the Utah Book and Stationery Co.'s, 72 Main street.

ABOUT 7 o'clock this morning an east bound Rapid Transit car met with a slight accident. While passing in front of the South Temple Gate, the switch came open after the forward trucks passed it, thus causing the rear truck to run on to the siding. The trucks were badly twisted, but no other damage was done.

IMMEDIATELY after the adjournment of the City Council last night, Deputy Marshal Cannon served an attachment upon the money appropriated by the city to [illegible] and Williams. The amount is [illegible]. The attachment was issued at the instigation of the Anderson Pressed Brick company of Ogden, which alleges that the money is due for materials furnished.

THE rooms occupied by the Y. M. C. A. in this city have been closed for several weeks for repairs. They were formally reopened last evening with a sociable gathering, at which speeches were made and a supper was provided for all in attendance. A reading room, gymnasium, bath rooms, etc., are now connected with the institution.

GOODS for the holiday season are already beginning to stock the city stores. The Utah Book and Stationery company announce the arrival of two car loads, books, toys, Christmas cards, albums, etc., will soon be in demand for presents, and the company named has earned the reputation of carrying first class goods in the line of novelties for such purposes, at lowest prices, wholesale and retail.

"THE EXPERIMENT" store, south of the Walker House, was the scene of a general boycott last evening. Small boys, bearing placards, calling on the public to sustain early closing, stood in front of the store. A delegation of labor unionists stood on the sidewalk, and persons going into the store were accosted and exhorted not to buy. It appears the proprietors did not come in line with the rules of the early closing movement, and this means of compelling them to do so was adopted.

Personal.

Wash J. Young has returned from his trip to Idaho and Montana.

Wendell Benson returned from the East last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Egan, of Honolulu, passed through this city last night on an extended tour through the United States.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

Constance Nielson, a Five-Year-Old Child, Run Over by a Utah Central Rock Train.

A frightful accident occurred in the yards of the Mountain Stone company, in the southeastern part of the city, shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The victim was Constance, the five-year-old daughter of Hans Nielson of the Second ward. She had been playing with a number of other children in the vicinity of the Utah Central railway track and was crossing the rails in front of an approaching rock train, when she tripped and fell on the rail. Her left leg was frightfully mangled. The child was picked up, apparently more dead than alive and carried home, where the injured limb was amputated last night above the knee.

The little patient is resting as well as under the circumstances as it is possible.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.

The Case of Banker Whitmore Presented by Judge Powers.

RUFUS SMITH SENTENCED.

That Real Estate Commission Difficulty—Court Notes, etc.

This was expected to be a more than ordinarily interesting morning in the court presided over by Judge Zane. Rufus Smith, the slayer of the soldier at Fort Douglas, was present ready for sentence, and Banker Whitmore, who is accused of "bribing" a prisoner named Leonard in a cell at the county jail, over the alleged "gold brick" swindle, was also to come up for trial. Both matters were mentioned, but went over until the afternoon.

A MISSING WITNESS.

In the case of George S. Whitmore, the Nephi banker, indicted by the grand jury for an assault upon the man Leonard, while the latter was confined as a prisoner in the county jail, Judge Powers, Whitmore's attorney, applied for a continuance, owing to the absence of a material witness for the defense, named David Port.
