

THE EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, July 20, 1874.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH IN THE SETTLEMENTS.

The pressure upon our columns necessitates the condensation of the reports from the country of the celebration of the anniversary of the arrival of the Pioneers in this Valley into much smaller space than they otherwise might occupy.

Malad City, I. T., had an unusually grand celebration. The Sunday school promenaded the streets with banners, etc. There was an oration by Wm. S. Lewis, speaker by A. G. Coffey, G. G. Brewster, others, dancing, and other amusements, singing by the school children, directed by David Jones, Daniel Daniels, marshal of the day. John Price, Chaplin.

DANIEL DANIELS.

Logan. The Twenty-fourth of July, 1874, dawned propitiously upon this beautiful valley, with its teeming fields, smiling mountains, and thrifty denizens.

Fifteen years ago this valley was sparsely settled and thought impossible, by reason of early and extreme frosts, to become the desirable location it has.

The celebration of this auspicious day was generally observed by the entire county, as evinced by the concourse of people present from every quarter. The services participated in the Jubilee, which had been pre-arranged for that day.

The timely rains, which had fallen for a day or two previous, rendered travelling a luxury, destroying the remnants of the snow, and insuring materially the continuation of our roads. Long before the hour appointed for the services to commence, wagon after wagon rolled in with heavy cargoes. The new and spacious bowery was tastefully fitted up, and conveniently arranged for the occasion. Standard school chairs and when filled presented a spectacle pleasant to behold, the presence of the Logan martial and Wellsville brass bands, giving alternately rich strains of music, added greatly to the festivities of the occasion.

The congregation was called to order at 10 a.m.

"In Zion," "All hail my Sabbath School-mates," "Zion is Growing," "The Festal Day," "Our Own Sunday School," "Our Jubilee," "Song of Praise," "The Children of the Saints," "Thanks for the Sabbath School," "It's sweet to Mingle old and young," "Hark! Listen to the Music," "the Daley" and "Thanksgiving," were sung with excellent effect.

Joseph Goddard and Carrie Carpenter accompanied upon the organ.

The audience was addressed by Bishops Wm. F. Littlewood, and W. H. Park, Pres. B. Young, Jun., Soc. Pres. Thatcher and Bishop Samuel Bockley.

JAMES A. LEISHMAN,

Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

IMMENSE BARGAINS!!

Reliable Testimony!

CARL C. ASMUSSE N,
Bring very soon to dispose of all his
B. & C. Jewelry, Watches, Clocks, Field and Open Glasses, and other articles relative to the public for investment.

The JEWELRY is selected for beauty and excellence.

The WATCHES are unsurpassed both for accuracy and work.

Appended are testimonials from most respected gentlemen from this Territory:

"The Watch I bought of him in 1872 goes
now as well as ever, and serves a minute;
has never had any trouble with it since I got it, although he has been exposed to very hard usage."

A. C. BROWN,
Brakeless U. S. R. R."

"The Watch I bought of him in 1872 goes
now as well as ever, and serves a minute;
has never had any trouble with it since I got it, although he has been exposed to very
hard usage."

John S. Smith, "Dobson."

"The Watch I bought of him in 1872 goes
now as well as ever, and serves a minute;
has never had any trouble with it since I got
it, although he has been exposed to very
hard usage."

Daniel G. BREWER,
Painter Mill, Salt Lake City.

And many others from
M. H. E. W. Chalcots, Salt Lake City;
G. J. M. L. Miller, Miller Mill, Salt Lake City;
T. O. Angel, Church Architect, Salt Lake City; Cyrus Bates, Tooele City; Bishop B. F. Smith, Ogden; Dr. W. A. King, Antelope City; George W. A. Jordan, L. M. Stewart, South Willow Creek, and many hundred others.

Mark the address and call car.

CARL C. ASMUSSEN,
Opposite Post Office,
SALT LAKE CITY.

DURYEA'S SATIN GLOSS STARCH!
IN SIX POUND BOXES AND ONE POUND PAPER.

Try it. Gives a Beautiful White and Glossy Finish, besides rendering Fabrics very durable. No starch so easily used, or so Economical.

Use it once, you will use no other.

DURYEA'S IMPROVED CORN STARCH.
Manufactured by a greatly improved process, from the Best Selected Indian Corn, and warrant perfectly pure.

Pronounced by JUDGES of GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, PARIS, 1867, to be the "PERFECTION OF QUALITY."

A trial will insure its popularity everywhere. None genuine without "Duryea" on every package. For sale by Grocers generally.

Be sure "Duryea" is on every Package.

General Depot—29, 31 and 33 Park Place, N. Y.
Off 15th Street.

CINCINNATI TRADE.

Grand Medal of Merit! VIENNA WORLD'S FAIR, 1873

AWARDED TO THE

COOKING STOVES.

The International Coal Cooking Stove in the World.

THIS MONITOR has gained a famous reputation. No high claim can be made in its praise, and recommends it to her neighbors and friends, for economy, cleanliness and reliability in all its operations.

50,000 MONITORS NOW IN USE

ALSO THE CELEBRATED

SANTA CLAUS COOKING STOVE!

For Coal and Wood, WHICH HAS SUCH A DEMAND ALL THRUOUT THE TERRITORY, FOR BEAUTY AND EXCELLENCE, CANNOT BE SURPASSED.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.

Sophia Park.

At this place guns were fired and flags hoisted as usual, and a grand procession was formed comprising every thing that had the dignities, the social trades, and the other occupations working at sawing, knitting, spinning, etc., young ladies as a refinement society, plainly but neatly dressed, and the rising generation, with "The hope of Israel," were also out in large numbers, with a fine display of banners, with suitable mottoes. The processions, after marching and counter marching, repaired to the new bowery, where the proceedings consisted of an oration by the Hon. Geo. D. Shell, preached by Stephen Mecham, and Zephaniah Coltrin, and songs, recitations, etc.

At two o'clock the citizens now assembled in the bowery, and enjoyed themselves in hearing speeches, songs, recitations and music, and participating in the dance, winding up with a dance at the social hall in the evening.

Mrs. Mary Moore, Robert McLean, M. R. Green, Patrick Lewis, Andrew E. Nissen, committee of arrangements.

JAS. MILLER, Marshal.

A. D. THURBER, Ass't Marshal.

SAM'L J. RAYMOND, Reporter.