OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

Weber County Fair—Wedding Chimes—Funeral of Jule Morrison.

Special Correspondence.

Ogden, June 12.—A petition for letters of administration of the estate of John Jacobson was filed in the probate court today, yesterday by Mayor Jacobson.

ACCUSED MURDERER CAUGHT.

A man supposed to be George Wright, the alleged Victoria (Pa.) murderer, was caught in the Weber Canyon, this morning and taken to Salt Lake. He was shortly found to resemble a description.

Mrs. Clem Dilcher and Miss Viva Dunbar, of Huntsville, left for Salt Lake today to attend the Sunday matinee.

The North Ogden schools held their closing exercises yesterday.

WEBER COUNTY FAIR.

The movement which starts several weeks ago being toward the holding of a county fair the coming fall, was revived at a meeting held Saturday afternoon by the general interests committee of the Weber Stake of Zion, in the Ogden tabernacle. The committee consisted of the chairmen of the committee on finance, Prosecuting Attorney Hadley and President Joseph Wright, Mayor Jacobson, Joseph Wright, E. T. Worley was elected chairman and John V. Bluth secretary of the committee.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting to be for the organization of a county fair association, and the charge for the holding of a fair on November regular, with two purposes in view. Which consisted of a small county fair, and the holding of the fair coming on the Tabernacle and the finishing of the structure. The annual fair fell and the tabernacle would be used for concerts, plays and amusements, and gave for the various settlements to be known as Weber County Fair. City Hall day, when the people of these places would turn out to Farr and visit the fair. Special rates would have to be provided for such day in order to draw crowds, and excursions to be run from the outlying towns. It would also be to be offered to patent competitors to exhibit, there to be paid to the owner of the exhibit, and the fair would be open for exhibits, etc. Mr. Worley was largely into the details of the work in Salt Lake City.

Joseph Mickelhard was appointed assistant secretary. John Watson was appointed assistant A. T. Morrison, who is on the construction committee, and C. W. Pitt, doubtful.

It was generally decided that a county fair be held, that provisions be offered for the best exhibits and that the committee proceed to elect an executive committee.

Messrs. Worley, Watson, Barrett, Williams and Mickelhard were appointed to name the various members of the department committees, after the chairmen had been chosen by the general committee.

The departments were arranged as follows:

A—Grounds and exhibition space.
B—Live stock.
C—Dairy, farm and fairy products.
D—Agriculture, horticulture and floriculture.
E—Machinery, manufactures and minerals.
F—Fine arts, women's work and education.
G—Miscellaneous.

Committees were appointed as follows:

A—S. T. Whitney, M. Shaw and R. D. Dyer.
B—John C. Cook, Angus McRae, T. F. Terry and George Sharpe.
C—E. R. Brown, Joseph Waymont, Hyrum Rice and C. F. Wade.
D—James Johnson, John Brown, William Ringland, T. Chisholm and F. Hooper, Jr.
E—J. T. Johnson, Ben James, M. L. Ross and Alma Keyes.
F—H. H. Spencer, Jacob Sidwell and C. A. Smurthwaite.
G—George Stanton, H. H. Goddard and Mrs. Hammond of Ogden.

The chairmen, each being the first name on each committee of the department committees, are ex-officio executive committee, and the chairman and secretary of the general committee, the secretary of the general committee, the secretary of the general committee, the committee being composed as follows: T. E. Williams, Ogden; J. T. Terry, Farr; James Johnson, J. T. Johnson, D. H. Thomas, George Sharpe, C. F. Wade, Joseph Waymont, Alma Keyes, W. H. Wright.

The executive committee will hold a meeting tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, at 8:30 o'clock, at the office of E. T. Worley.

WEDDING CHIMES.

A marriage license was issued Saturday evening to Edson Atwood, of Ogden, to Miss Ella Gallentine, aged 18, of Hyrum, Utah.

Yesterday the county clerk issued a license to Joseph Dunkerley, aged 24, and Miss Lecia Phillips, 21, both of Ogden.

Saturday evening Justice Joseph Hall performed the marriage ceremony of Mr. Hugh Cail, aged 21, and Miss Mary H. Will, man and wife. The telegrams to a number of the relatives of the bride and groom, the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Will.

Another wedding certain will be soon celebrated, the bride being Miss Hazel to work on the railroad contract.

George Adams, the man who attempted to commit suicide on Friday last by throwing himself under a train of cars, has been released from the city jail yesterday morning.

THE FUNERAL OF JOHN MARRIOTT.

The largest funeral ever held in Ogden was that of John Marriott, which took place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The services were held in the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association. The hymn "God Moves in a Mysterious way" Prayer was offered by Elder Joseph F. Smith, followed by the hymn, "Be My Pastor."

President L. W. Shurtliff spoke the sentiments of the people in the Ward, and referred to a pioneer in the county and state who was one amongst the best of the pioneers. He was a pioneer of America habitable by white men. He also spoke of the religious integrity and honesty of the deceased, and of his good counsel and words of consolation to those bereft.

Professor J. T. Maughan told of the conversion of Armand Rivers six years ago and of his steadfastness ever since. He expressed attending all the funeral the Mormon persecutions and the hardships of pioneer days in Utah. He dwelt upon the beauty of death and in all church matters.

Elder G. W. Larkin, Sr., told of his long acquaintance, dating 19 years and thirty years of the earliest attempts of deceased and gave names of Lorenzo Thatcher, Joseph Dodge, who lay by the side of the departed.

Elder Thomas Ayre, 17 years of age, of fifty years ago, gave reminiscences of the sterling character of deceased. His words of counsel to the relatives were to follow the example of the departed.

Bishop Hodge also spoke highly of deceased and endorsed the religion of the previous speakers.

The choir sang the resurrection hymn and the benediction was pronounced by Elder John R. Barnes of Kaysville.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The board met at 2 o'clock p. m. yesterday and transacted the following considerable routine business.

The report of F. J. Hinckelbein, county recorder, showing the amount received for abstracts and acknowledgments, made to accordance with a resolution of the board adopted April 3, 1899, was accepted and filed and referred to Commissioner Adams for investigation.

The petitions of Mrs. Mary and William Hodge to receive a lot of "junk" and "rubbish" from the county dump, were referred to Commissioner Adams.

The board set as a board of equalization for Monday, June 26, at 10 o'clock morning, and took a recess until 2 o'clock.

E. A. McKinnon, who claims the Ogden Hot Springs (Peterson's) Hotel, appeared before the board and asked for a license to sell liquor, which was granted, subject to the approval of the county attorney, probably during the present week.

Miss Clem Dilcher and Miss Viva Dunbar, of Huntsville, left for Salt Lake today to attend the Saturday matinee.

The North Ogden schools held their closing exercises yesterday.

WEBER COUNTY FAIR.

The movement which starts several weeks ago being toward the holding of a county fair the coming fall, was revived at a meeting held Saturday afternoon by the general interests committee of the Weber Stake of Zion, in the Ogden tabernacle. The committee consisted of the chairmen of the committee on finance, Prosecuting Attorney Hadley and President Joseph Wright, Mayor Jacobson, Joseph Wright, E. T. Worley was elected chairman and John V. Bluth secretary of the committee.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting to be for the organization of a county fair association, and the charge for the holding of a fair on November regular, with two purposes in view. Which consisted of a small county fair, and the holding of the fair coming on the Tabernacle and the finishing of the structure. The annual fair fell and the tabernacle would be used for concerts, plays and amusements, and gave for the various settlements to be known as Weber County Fair. City Hall day, when the people of these places would turn out to Farr and visit the fair. Special rates would have to be provided for such day in order to draw crowds, and excursions to be run from the outlying towns. It would also be to be offered to patent competitors to exhibit, there to be paid to the owner of the exhibit, and the fair would be open for exhibits, etc. Mr. Worley was largely into the details of the work in Salt Lake City.

Joseph Mickelhard was appointed assistant secretary. John Watson was appointed assistant A. T. Morrison, who is on the construction committee, and C. W. Pitt, doubtful.

It was generally decided that a county fair be held, that provisions be offered for the best exhibits and that the committee proceed to elect an executive committee.

Messrs. Worley, Watson, Barrett, Williams and Mickelhard were appointed to name the various members of the department committees, after the chairmen had been chosen by the general committee.

The departments were arranged as follows:

A—Grounds and exhibition space.
B—Live stock.
C—Dairy, farm and fairy products.
D—Agriculture, horticulture and floriculture.
E—Machinery, manufactures and minerals.
F—Fine arts, women's work and education.
G—Miscellaneous.

Committees were appointed as follows:

A—S. T. Whitney, M. Shaw and R. D. Dyer.
B—John C. Cook, Angus McRae, T. F. Terry and George Sharpe.
C—E. R. Brown, Joseph Waymont, Hyrum Rice and C. F. Wade.
D—James Johnson, John Brown, William Ringland, T. Chisholm and F. Hooper, Jr.
E—J. T. Johnson, Ben James, M. L. Ross and Alma Keyes.
F—H. H. Spencer, Jacob Sidwell and C. A. Smurthwaite.
G—George Stanton, H. H. Goddard and Mrs. Hammond of Ogden.

The chairmen, each being the first name on each committee of the department committees, are ex-officio executive committee, and the chairman and secretary of the general committee, the secretary of the general committee, the committee being composed as follows: T. E. Williams, Ogden; J. T. Terry, Farr; James Johnson, J. T. Johnson, D. H. Thomas, George Sharpe, C. F. Wade, Joseph Waymont, Alma Keyes, W. H. Wright.

The executive committee will hold a meeting tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, at 8:30 o'clock, at the office of E. T. Worley.

WEDDING CHIMES.

A marriage license was issued Saturday evening to Edson Atwood, of Ogden, to Miss Ella Gallentine, aged 18, of Hyrum, Utah.

Yesterday the county clerk issued a license to Joseph Dunkerley, aged 24, and Miss Lecia Phillips, 21, both of Ogden.

Saturday evening Justice Joseph Hall performed the marriage ceremony of Mr. Hugh Cail, aged 21, and Miss Mary H. Will, man and wife. The telegrams to a number of the relatives of the bride and groom, the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Will.

Another wedding certain will be soon celebrated, the bride being Miss Hazel to work on the railroad contract.

George Adams, the man who attempted to commit suicide on Friday last by throwing himself under a train of cars, has been released from the city jail yesterday morning.

THE FUNERAL OF JOHN MARRIOTT.

The largest funeral ever held in Ogden was that of John Marriott, which took place at 2 o'clock Sunday p. m. The services were held in the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association. The hymn "God Moves in a Mysterious way." Prayer was offered by Elder Joseph F. Smith, followed by the hymn, "Be My Pastor."

President L. W. Shurtliff spoke the sentiments of the people in the Ward, and referred to a pioneer in the county and state who was one amongst the best of the pioneers. He was a pioneer of America habitable by white men. He also spoke of the religious integrity and honesty of the deceased, and of his good counsel and words of consolation to those bereft.

Professor J. T. Maughan told of the conversion of Armand Rivers six years ago and of his steadfastness ever since. He expressed attending all the funeral the Mormon persecutions and the hardships of pioneer days in Utah. He dwelt upon the beauty of death and in all church matters.

Elder G. W. Larkin, Sr., told of his long acquaintance, dating 19 years and thirty years of the earliest attempts of deceased and gave names of Lorenzo Thatcher, Joseph Dodge, who lay by the side of the departed.

Elder Thomas Ayre, 17 years of age, of fifty years ago, gave reminiscences of the sterling character of deceased. His words of counsel to the relatives were to follow the example of the departed.

Bishop Hodge also spoke highly of deceased and endorsed the religion of the previous speakers.

The choir sang the resurrection hymn and the benediction was pronounced by Elder John R. Barnes of Kaysville.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The board met at 2 o'clock p. m. yesterday and transacted the following considerable routine business.

The report of F. J. Hinckelbein, county

A Big Attraction

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

We have 40 pairs of those $3.00 Foster Bargain Boots left from the week Davis sold up in Coats. They go at $1.49 a pair. Black No. 3½, Foster's regular $3.00 boot, use our left 2½ inches 11 inch, Scotch top at $1.49. Black No. 3½, same Foster's regular $3.00 boot, use our left 2½ inches 11 inch, Foster's, Scotch top, use our left 2½ inch Scotch top, regular $3.00 boot $1.49.

Come and see. Cost nothing to look.

FAIRVIEW.

Disastrous Fire—Crops and Other Buildings Damaged to Extent of $40,000.

Special Correspondence.

Fairview, Sanpete Co., June 11.—At half past 3 this afternoon a fire broke out in the loft of the Social Hall, and in a very short time the roof was all in flames. The wind was strong and although were from of willing hands it was not long before was on the roof to stop the progress. The building belonged to the Seventy, as the rooms have for the use of a branch of the Seventy. The building is such a size, so efforts were directed to saving the books from the flames. Brother Jens Jensen, of the Seventy representative in the ward, hurried to the hall and making repeated trips, saved every thing in the shape of books, records, etc., belonging to the Seventy. Some people succeeded in saving some tools, the contents of the blacksmith shop, and all the furniture belonging to the Seventy, which was stored in the building. The telegraph office being in the building, all the poles and wires were burned. The telegraph office being in the building, all the poles and wires were burned. The telegraph office being in the building, all the poles and wires were burned