LOGAN.

City Council Meeting—Funeral of Miss Kate Jones—Crop Outlook.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, May 3.—The regular meeting of the city council occurred last night and a big amount of business was disposed of. The new ordinance providing for the levying of a special ditch assessment was passed. A few minor ordinances were also passed. A new street in the Second ward was ordered opened, and the construction of a drain at the end of Agricultural College hill was arranged for. Recently the marshal was ordered to notify the merchants that all signs, sign posts, and other attractions on the sidewalks, must be removed. The action called forth a storm of protest, and last night some resolutions were made to the council by the merchants, requesting that the council decided not to enforce the ordinance strictly.

FUNERAL OF MISS KATE JONES.

The funeral of Miss Kate Jones, who died some days ago, was held this afternoon in the Tabernacle, and was marked by an unusually large attendance, and a profusion of floral offerings. Speeches were made by H. G. Mckean, Prof. Miller, Prest. S. M. Mills and Bishop Ballard. A large cortège followed the hearse to the final resting place.

Judge Hurst this afternoon severed the matrimonial bonds existing between Mary Ann Wood and Henry Wood, both of Cornish. Mrs. Wood was the plaintiff and alleged desertion. The couple were married in 1851 in England.

Farmers from various parts of the county report the crop outlook as rather poor this year, comparatively speaking. A great deal of the fall grain was killed on account of the dry weather last fall, and it likely cases the spring grain, which had every chance to thrive, will be a failure. It is too early yet to judge the extent of the injury to the crop, but it will be considerably less than last year's yield. One thing seems certain, however, crops will not be nearly so heavy in Cache this year as they were last.

Springville Burglar Gets Five Years—Blasting Accident—Court Cases.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, May 4.—George Thompson, the young man arrested in Grand Junction, Colo., charged with burglary, committed in Springville, has been sentenced by Judge Dusenberry to the penitentiary for five years. He pleaded guilty to the information filed in this city, and the judge in passing the sentence sentenced him to five years in the penitentiary. The general impression here is that the sentence is rather a severe one inasmuch as the young man was a stranger here and had no chance to march trouble or expense, and because of his youth. Sheriff Grover will take the prisoner to Salt Lake this morning when his "time" commences. The young man seemed to take his late very easily, but stated that he expected two or three years.

The case of A. H. Raleigh vs. Robert J. Crawford, et al, was today disposed of in the Fourth district court. The case is for a foreclosure of a mortgage, and the plaintiff was given judgment for $1,000 and a decree of foreclosure. Mrs. M. A. Mason, and the action against her was dismissed by the court. The school district of Provo City vs. Mary Ann Mason, et al, was also dismissed, and judgment was given plaintiff for $50, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent from May 12, 1898, amounting to $60.11 and $5 for attorney's fees.

PROVO MAN INJURED.

Wednesday afternoon Henry Arentsen, an employee of the Telluride Power and Transmission company in Provo canyon, was injured by being struck with a flying rock from a blast. The blast went off, and Arentsen, who was at work in the canyon, was engaged constructing a flume, was caught by the flying rock and knocked down by the force of the blast, and fractured his left leg and bruised his left arm and shoulder. He was knocked down by the force of the rock, and fainted from the effects of the blow. His companions placed him in a warm and brought him to his home in this city, where he is now confined to his bed. Dr. Fisher is attending him, and states that he does not think the leg is broken, but that it is fractured.

STATE BOARD PURCHASING.

The sum of the State of Boss Jones was set for hoeing today in Justice King's court, but on motion of County Attorney Evans the case was dismissed for the lack of evidence to convict. The defendant was charged with selling Brigham Darger of Spanish Fork of $2 on Friday night last, while the latter was under the influence of whisky, and while Jones was escorting Darger to the hotel at which he was stopping, the latter was robbed of money, and while Jones was escorting Darger to the hotel at which he was stopping, the latter was robbed of money by Jones at the rate of one of the women and a friend of the women.

Will and Joseph Walker are today before Justice King, charged with illegal fishing and have acquitted. Fire witnesses for the State testified that they saw fish thrown upon the bank of the Provo river. The defendants testified that they were repairing the pendock of their mill wheel and were in the river there thirty minutes and put upon the bank and not fish.

The cases against Fine Whipple and Frank Clawson are set for trial next. The boys are charged with taking fish unlawfully.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

The people of Mountain school, in charge of their teacher, S. H. Jones, last evening went to the home of Elder John Stephens, one of the patrons of the school, and greatly surprised the gentleman. Elder Stephens will shortly leave for the mission field of Great Britain. The evening was spent in music, recitation and games. A bountiful repast was served.

A number of our citizens are taking their children to Lake View, Utah, to attend Brigham Young academy. The Battenery located in this city, this being a central place of the State.

Mrs. Ward Wilson of Provo City has been recovered from the sewer illness.

A well dressed stranger, giving his name as W. L. Barnes, late last evening stopped at the county jail for society, and seemed very anxious to get acquainted with the inmates. He left after the office of Mountain Echo, in which he stated he was a printer, and that place is the school Mr. Barnes is heavily interested.

Grand County Bull Given to the State House—Sunny Weather.

Special Correspondence.

Fillmore, Millard County, May 2.—Last night the ladies' physical culture club of Fillmore, under the auspices of the L. D. S. M. I. A., gave a grand ball in the old State House building. The walls were appropriately decorated with bunting and evergreens, including a number of the pioneers of the farming community to almost every town of this county, and a very large crowd was in attendance. The first number of the program was a grand march by the members of the physical culture club under the instruction of both the members and the instructor received much applause. Following this were several fancy dances, including the other week. Refreshments were served in the small rooms of the house. All expressed themselves as having had an exceedingly fine time.

During the last few days there has been a remarkable change in the weather. A great deal of snow had fallen and cattle on the range are suffering.

GRANTSVILLE.

Closing Exercises of Public Schools—Amusements—Gas Plant—Sheep Scarce.

Special Correspondence.

Grantsville, Tooele co., May 3.—The district school closed on Wednesday, April 26, and on the following day, April 27, i. e., the closing exercises were held and a very attractive program rendered. The attendance was very satisfactory considering the fact that the school was opened with no pupils in attendance. The Stars and Stripes were presented from the rostrum with the school photo of President A. J. Stookey in the center. The following are those who graduated: Ida Dalton, Clarence Anderson, Frank Knowlton, Ruby Orr, Cleon Anderson, Sarah Stookey, Dick Beebe, Judah Anderson and Jennie Clark. After the exercises the choirs enjoyed a dance in the Johnson opera house, and in the evening a grand ball was given the adult members of the school.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

A very good audience greeted the Tooele company of comedians in the last Saturday evening, and a very pleasant and entertaining entertainment was given. The last drill twelve young ladies dressed in white was beautifully arranged and very creditably performed. Esther Johnson, the boy comedian, caused profound laughter and enthusiasm in his recitation, S. W. Lee, Miss Lois Lyman, Geneviene Angel, Ira McBride and John Dalton, caused a hearty demand for repetition from the audience, those so served responding with another. The entertainment was a very pleasant one, and received a large amount of popular favor with the Grantsville public.

The Grantsville company, under the direction of James Kirk, presented the Mikado, Saturday evening at the theatre to the crowding of May-day and the audience was given a good and entertaining entertainment.

Joseph Anderson, son of Charles L. Anderson, will arrive in New York about June 15th, from Germany, where he has been studying music for over two years. He has advanced rapidly in his labors and is considered by French and German professors to be a very proficient and accomplished musician. He rather is intending to meet him in New York and accompany him home.

EPHRAIM.

Old Folks Remembered with a Banquet—Other Pleasant Incidents.

Special Correspondence.

Ephraim, May 4.—A dinner was given the old folks of the Third ward assembly at 1 p. m., one hundred and fifty aged people were seated around three well laden tables. While the inner tables were empty the outer tables were spread, and the dinner was being rendered by the band.

Elder L. S. Anderson gave a speech of wisdom. Henry Beaver, a faithful veteran since the days of Missouri, gave a short and interesting talk on the early series of Church history.

President Pulsipher gave a short address on the duties of the aged people.

Many amusing sentiments were given, in songs and recitations, in the Danish, English and Scandinavian languages.

Yesterday C. R. Dorius performed the ceremony at the residence of Joseph Hansen, which made Ben Francis, of Sterling, and Amelia Hansen, now and one.

A very pleasant surprise was given Julia D. Dorius by some of her very young friends, on her little name, and a fine gold ring was given as a token of good feeling.

Last week the Relief Society of the Fourth ward gave a surprise party to the family of Sister Mary Ann Ward, who is soon to emigrate to Denmark. A purse of $12 was raised to send to her.

THURBER.

May Day Festivals—Cool and Wet Weather—Other Local Items.

Special Correspondence.

Thurber, Wayne co., May 1.—Yesterday was celebrated here as May day, and through the efforts of the teachers, some, assisted by Josephine Petersen, Belle Meeks and Maud Armstrong, the school house was tastefully decorated and a very pleasant and entertaining May-pole was successfully held and a splendid program rendered to both morning and afternoon. At night the proceedings were wound up with a dance, which lasted until morning.

MAPLETON.

Meeting House Dedicated—Will Bond and Build a New School.

Mapleton, Utah co., May 3.—Apostle Francis M. Lyman and Stake President Eliot, Particular came from Provo Sunday, April 30, for the purpose of dedicating the meeting house in this place.

Elder Lyman occupied most of the time in his address, which was very good, and President Eliot, who was the chief speaker, impressed the people with the work he was doing, and called upon them to be one of the honest and most industrious people of the state.

The names of all prominent officers in the ward were presented, each one being sustained by the vote of the people.

Then followed the dedatory prayer, which was offered by Elder Lyman.

The meeting house is a fine building, fitted with furniture, costing $500, which is all paid. The interior is constructed so that it can be used for a school house, and the school house is well adapted for a meeting house. It is well lighted, and the seats are so arranged that each window illuminates the room with sufficient light. The house is 40 feet by 60 feet, and 22 feet to the ceiling. The seats are arranged, 10 sections of main room, each seat, with a variety, and the pulpit is 10 feet by 20 feet and 8 feet square.

The surrounding grounds are planted to trees with a maple grove, which the walks are nicely planted.

WILL BUILD NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

The present foundation being over five hundred dollars, the trustees intend to bond our district to sufficient means to build a large, modern, central school house, which will be ready for occupancy next fall. If the bond carries, there will be a complete location is decided upon.

Will Chatterton, who lost his leg, gives his friends and acquaintances in the vicinity of Castle Dale, caused through his carelessness, is now able to walk with crutches, and is able to be about, and they will make their future home.

AN ISTHMIAN CANAL ASSURED.

The ownership of the American isthmus seems assured, and with the completion of an adequate and easily navigable canal, the Pacific will come into the Pacific will come changes and expansions in the commerce of the world which can, as yet, scarcely be comprehended. Experts have said, and proved that increased facilities create new and greater fields for trade and activity in fruitful commerce. Nothing can be a case where the change is so great and extensive as in the case of the Pacific, for the completion of a transcontinental water-route, and of offering nearer carried are of little value as a guide to an estimate of the traffic or the business of the Pacific of the underland. Fuel, for the study of other works of similar character, bearing upon the subject, and seem freight-carrying is not much benefited by small savings in time of transit, especially when effected at the cost of more difficult navigation, while the gain from a large saving time is rapid ratio.
