DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, . . May 12, 1892.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

THE funeral services over the remains of Dr. Clinton were held in the Fourteenth Ward assembly rooms this afternoon.

Some person exhibited his ignorance last night by removing the taps from the express wagon of Henry Leland, and when that gentleman started out with his vehicle this morning he narrowly escaped being severely hurt.

ELDER B. H. ROBERTS will lecture tonight at 8 o'clock, in the Sugar House Ward meeting house, under the auspices of the One Hundred and Sixth quorum of Seventies, on the "First Principles of the Gospel." A general invitation is extended to the entire ward.

SECRETARY SEARS, of the Board of Trade, complains emphatically of the uncleanly appearance of the streets and alleys. Both from a sanitary view and from pride in the city he thinks the authorities ought to take action and do a little cleaning.

DR. FRED. W. TAYLOR has been, since his arrival from the East, considering whether to begin the practice of his profession in this city or in Provo. He lately completed a three-years' course in medicine and surgery at the University of New York, and graduated with honors, being among the leading twenty of the students of the institution. It is always a cause of gratification when young men from Utah keep in the front rank in Eastern educational establishments. They have established a good reputation for ability to do so.

Decidedly Promising Prospects For Another Libel Suit.

JUDGE POWERS AS A DIPLOMAT.

He Takes a Step Which, it is Said, is Calculated to Bring About a Compromise.

The Tribune this morning published a highly sensational article under glaring headlines in which with characteristic recklessness it charged Charles W. Brown, head night waiter at the Saddle Rock restaurant, with being a disreputable and confirmed crook.

A Lord Sentenced to Imprisonment with Hard Labor.

LONDON, May 12.—A sensation was caused this morning when it became known that Hon. Granville Fulke Nugent, brother of Lord Granville, indicted for having assaulted Miss Marion S. Price in the compartment of a railway carriage, pleaded guilty of common assault. The prisoner was sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor. He is forty years of age. The prisoner pleaded in extenuation that he was drunk, and acknowledged that he had misconducted himself, but denied that he indecently assaulted Miss Price.

The Home for Printers Dedicated.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 12.—The Childs-Drexel home for printers were dedicated here today with appropriate ceremonies.

The building is located a mile from the city on an elevation which overlooks the Garden of Gods, Pikes Peak, Manitou and Cheyenne canyon. It is built of white lava stone with red stone trimming. It is four stories high, 144 by [illegible] feet, with all modern conveniences, and cost [illegible]. It is the gift of George W. Childs and A. J. Drexel, of Philadelphia, to the International Typographical Union. [illegible]
