A DESTITUTE WOMAN.

Obliged to Do Washing Without Testing Food All Day.

HAS A CRIPPLED HUSBAND.

Plans Received for Decoration of the Joint Building—Promotions and Failures In the City Schools.

County Commissioner Geddes says that last night he encountered a case of destitution which prevented a heart-rending scene. For some time past a woman, whom Mr. Geddes knew to be poor and deserving, has been doing the family washing and yesterday evening the husband, who is a cripple, brought to the home of Mr. Geddes the usual week's bundle. Mr. Geddes did not happen to have change enough at the time to pay for the washing, and the man being unable to change a $10 piece, she told him she would send the pay as soon as Mr. Geddes came home. It happened that evening that it was a little late when the county commissioner returned home, but Mrs. Geddes immediately set out to pay for the washing. Arriving at the house she found that although the poor woman had labored through a big batch of washing that day she had not yet had a bite to eat and could obtain none until the money was paid. The kind heart of Mrs. Geddes was touched and hastening home she loaded up a great big basket with food and immediately dispatched it to the poor woman's relief. Commissioner Geddes this morning also sent some flour, sugar, etc., to the house, for which he will be blessed by the poor washerwoman.

County Clerk C. E. Brandon tells of a little chap living up his way who on certain days in the week comes to his house and runs errands for the family, then on other days he does the same service for other neighbors, seeking in all a sort of little job for whom he runs errands. In this way the little fellow, who is perhaps not 10 years of age, earns from $1.50 to $2 per week, all of which goes to a good and deserving mother.

DECORATIONS.

Plans for the Joint Building are Wanted Jet.

The committee appointed to attend to the decoration of the joint city and county building has received three plans for the decoration, $15 having been offered for the successful design, the cost of decoration to be $400. One plan is from S. Lafayette and the design includes a female figure on the north end of the building representing the new State of Utah. On the west front appears a picture of George Washington on one side and a space for the portrait of a silver leader, while in the e a beehive surmounted by a screaming American eagle clutching the usual arrows. The tower, according to the plan, is to have a few streamers of bunting crossed on each side of each face of the clock.

Next comes the design of D. L. Levy which is a display of bunting in streamers, folds and rosettes, decorating the building from the square of the tower to the ground. Over the main entrance on the west front is a picture of George Washington surrounded by a vast array of flags, while above and on a level with the square of the building is an immense star with the figures "45" in the center, representing Utah, and underneath on the left and right sides respectively are the figures "77" and "96."

The design which seems to have met the approval of the committee, however, is one by W. W. McAllister. It is composed entirely of bunting and flags and includes a circular beginning at the feet of "Justice" on top of the tower to the edge of the dome. The principal piece is a representation of the great seal of the State, which appears at the base of the tower, at the figure of the superintendent, while around the main entrance is represented an area containing a shield for each state in the Union, with Utah as the keystone. This design is the broadest and doubtless the most effective, considering the meagre allowance of money which it was proposed to make for the decoration. But the action of the City Council on the matter has for the present spoiled all calculations and the county commission is correspondingly disappointed and chagrined.

Harry Hanson says that he started in to get up a design for decoration of the structure with nothing but cheap flags, but was only gone from the place of justice to the square of the building, when his $400 gave out and he had to quit.

It is suggested that the parade march through the joint building grounds. It would make a nice display.
