CALCUTTA, April 25.—A dispatch from Delhi today announces that the mission of the early of Dufferin, the British political agent at Chitral, who was merged in a hot skirmish and slaughter by the Chitral tribesmen, started Saturday for, by a detachment of the Guides, under Capt. Kelly which reached Chitral from Gilgit, after accomplishing a brilliant military achievement in passing over the snow-covered mountain pass, 12,000 to 14,000 feet above the level of the sea, into here and the Indus. He was the Major Kelly, the British gardener, who a year ago made a remarkable journey, and 22 officers and men killed, and had 41 wounded. The news of his approach was received with great joy and enthusiasm, and he set fire to the fort of Chitral and on the 14th the natives attacked the east side of the fort, but were repulsed. The Indian troops occupied a summer house about one yards from the tower, on April 16 and 17 they achieved the same result with a few additional yards of the open plain of the fort. On April 17 the enemy fired the tower, which the garrison was fighting to save, and on April 18 a detachment was ordered to drive the enemy out of the tower, but the attempt was repulsed. The enemy then
