apply to a certain form of skin disease, as you know. It is a cure. Then again I might go on and describe various kinds of scrofulous sores, fever sores, white swellings, enlarged glands, and all sorts of varying eruptions, might describe how various poisons may show itself in various forms of eruptions, ulcers, sore throat, bony tumors, etc., but as all these various appearing manifestations of bad blood are cured by a uniform means, I deem such a course unnecessary. Thoroughly cleanse the blood, which is the great fountain of life, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution will all return to us. For this purpose Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets are pre-eminent. The articles needed. They are warranted to cure Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose Rash or Erysipelas, Ring-Worms, Pimples, Blisters, Spots, Eruptions, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Sorekyes, Rough Skin, Scurf, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Fever Sores, White Swellings, Tumors, Old Sores or Swellings, Affections of the Skin, Throat and Lungs, and Ulcers of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Lungs.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer 70-degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Fine day.

Good Feed.—We learn from Mr. George Anderson, herdsman, that the early grass on the range west of the Jordan river, is now good and that stock are doing well.

British Mission.—At a conference held in Bath Hall, Sheffield, Sunday, March 29, Elder John Clark presiding, Joseph May, Jr., clerk, there were present on the stand of Elders from America, President Joseph F. Smith, Elders L. J. Herick, B. T. Burton, John Clark, Joseph H. F. M. Lyman, John C. Graham, R. V. Morris, R. W. Keyboorne, and James T. Little. Meetings were held morning, afternoon, and evening. The audience were addressed by the above named Elders.

A Brutal Crime.—Yesterday evening Sheriff David A. Sanders, of Morgan County, arrived in this City, bringing with him L. M. Carpenter, who has been committed by a Justice of the Peace, of the county named, to the District Court, on a charge of seduction and adultery, alleged to have been committed on the person of his own step-daughter, twelve years of age. The evidence adduced at the examination showed that Carpenter had threatened to kill the girl if she divulged his crime. He was brought to town by the sheriff that he might be turned over to the Territorial Marshal. He is now in the City Jail.

A Dangerous Fellow.—John Lewis is a dangerous fellow when under the influence of liquor. On Sunday he insulted a lady on the street, and struck Mr. Wickham, liquor dealer, with a long pipe, and when the latter remonstrated with him he partially drew a six-shooter, telling Mr. Wickham to draw and defend himself, and that if he came a step nearer he would kill him. In the police court to-day Mr. Wickham, the principal witness, made an apology for the prisoner, saying he believed it was whiskey and not the natural man that made the fuss. Lewis also got upon a horse, rode around upon the streets, and tumbled off several times. He was fined $25, to-day, which he will probably work out.

Miss Amy Stone, well and favorably known here years ago, is announced as engaged for an early appearance in her successful play of "Cigarette."

Kate Bender—Portrait of the Old Woman Identified.—Evidence of the woman recently arrested in Morgan County, by Sheriff Sanders, being Kate Bender, the so-called she-devil, is accumulating fast. She answers the published description in almost every particular, besides pretending to be unable to give any satisfactory account of herself. The sheriff says she is not crazy, although apparently wanting to seem to be so.

When arrested on Saturday, she was walking along by the railroad track, carrying a sack, in which were some flour and a few cooking utensils. When stopped she made an effort to pass, and when told she was suspected to be Kate Bender she fought and scratched and tore furiously, exhibiting a great deal of physical strength. Last night Sheriff Sanders brought to town four photographic likenesses found on her person, one of which answered exactly to the description of the old woman Bender. This was taken to Savage's art gallery, that copies might be taken of it, and sent, with portraits of the supposed Kate, to Kansas, for identification.

Mr. Crane, who it will be remembered, recognized the old man Bender in the City Jail, says he is not aware that he ever saw the old woman, but that the portrait bears a resemblance to Kate. A French gentleman acquainted with the family recognized the likeness as that of the old woman Bender, and Mr. Rae, agent for Fairbanks & Co., who asserted that the man taken from here was not Bender, says that the portrait is a counterfeit presentation of the old woman.

The young woman now under the great Morgan City refuses to take any food prepared by anybody else, preferring to make a kind of mush in an old oyster can, with flour she had with her. She refused to tell the name of the person represented by the likeness alluded to, saying she had forgotten it. She will be brought to this City in a few days and detained until intelligence is received from Kansas.

The portrait identified as that of the old woman represents an exceedingly hard-looking female countenance.

city of jewelry, amounting in all to between four and five hundred dollars. On Saturday night the police of this City discovered that Edwards had given a ring stolen from Mr. Bond to a young man to dispose of for him, promising to share the proceeds with him. As soon as he found that the officers were on his track he put out of the City on Saturday, walked eight miles north and stayed over night. On Sunday he proceeded to Kaysville, where he took the afternoon train to Ogden, where he was arrested yesterday, by Sheriff Brown, who had a written description of him. He was brought to town last night. At Ogden he tried to dispose of a chain, supposed to be a portion of the stolen goods.

He was examined before Justice Clinton, when the young man who was to receive part of the proceeds of the ring testified to having received it from Edwards, and the article was identified by Mr. Auerbach and the owner as the property of Mr. Bond. The young man already mentioned also testified to having seen a small box in the hands of Edwards, which the latter said contained $250 worth of diamonds. The box answered the description of one stolen from Mr. Bond. Edwards, who is a hard citizen, says he is from New Orleans and has been engaged since last January in selling railroad tickets.

The Justice deferred decision in the case till to-morrow.

Theatre.—Last evening was a gala night at the Theatre. It was one of those times when "everybody" is there, and his wife too. It was the most bumping benefit had for a long time. Mr. Sawtelle and the management had cause to be on good terms with the rest of the world last evening. The house was crowded, packed, from pit to dome, with the beauty, virility, wit, intelligence, fashion, etc., of the city and suburbs.

The entertainment commenced with the "Married Rake." Then appeared before the curtain Mr. Sawtelle and several other gentlemen, and a complimentary address was read by Judge Thiford, accompanied by the presentation to Mr. Sawtelle of a handsome Howard gold watch and an address, signed by the following gentlemen:—

Frank Thiford, J. F. Carter, Chas. Forman, H. C. Goodspeed, Joslin & Park, T. W. Buzzo, W. Haydon, C. G. Perry, D. H. Bentley, G. J. Johnson, E. H. Barron, Geo. L. Woods, M. K. Harkness, John McKee, J. G. Sutherland, H. Wadsworth, C. K. Thowbridge, Thomas Marshall, Chas. Read, D. R. Patten & Co., George C. Bates, Joseph Sampson, H. A. Sanger, George M. Scott.

After the Judge's effort, Mr. Sawtelle made a brief and appropriate reply. The business proper of the evening then recommenced. "Bertha, the Sewing Machine Girl," was excellently played, the house being kept in an almost continual roar of laughter.

The grand review of the national troops and the tableaux of "A Soldier's Dream" were entirely successful and heartily applauded, reflecting much credit upon Gen. Morrow, and the officers and men from Camp Douglas.

This evening "Bertha" will be repeated, followed by the popular farce of "Paddy's Mitchell."
