THEY'RE COMING FAST

The Bacons and Hollands Arrested Again Today

ON TWO CRIMINAL CHARGES.

John Gray Sentenced to Four Years in the State Prison—Court of Equalization.

Deputy Sheriff Guthrie today again arrested James H. Bacon, Harley M. Bacon, Wm. B. Holland and Frank L. Holland, respectively banker, agent, teller and clerk of the Bank of Salt Lake, in criminal actions. One of the complaints is signed by Wm. H. Ford, who alleges that on June 20 the defendants accepted from him a deposit of $600. The other is sworn to by C. C. Merritt and charges that the defendants, on June 23, 1896, accepted from the plaintiff a note and check in payment of $648.90.

It is alleged that on both occasions the defendants were aware of the fact that the bank was insolvent.

Justice Harvey will conduct the hearing.

Gray Sentenced.

John Gray was today sentenced by Judge Hiles in the criminal court to serve four years in the state prison on the three counts of burglary in having broken into the store of the Utah Implement company on State street, and blowing open the safe.

Board of Equalization.

The county board of equalization will probably meet again tomorrow to clear the table of applications, but will not hold a public session or receive applications after today. Following are this morning's indigent rebates:

Lavinia S. Gallacher	$[illegible]
A. M. S. Gibson	[illegible]
John M. Larson	[illegible]
Margaret H. H. Saunders	$[illegible]
David M. Evans	[illegible]
Jesse C. Watt et al.	[illegible]
Jos. N. Edwards	[illegible]
Mary A. D. Conrad	[illegible]
S. A. Mitchell	[illegible]
Alice M. Tarbifield	[illegible]
Agnes McEwan	[illegible]
Louisa Eardley	[illegible]
Maria A. Lothian	[illegible]
Harriet R. Illingworth	[illegible]
Elizabeth Sowden	[illegible]
Louisa Nelson	[illegible]
Kings Lester	[illegible]
Andrew Jackson Allen estate	[illegible]
Flint M. Slade	[illegible]
Maggie A. Taylor	[illegible]
Sarah Swift et al.	[illegible]
Maria Carlson	[illegible]
Amelia S. W. Rice	[illegible]
Louie C. Tate	[illegible]
Charlotte Atkins	[illegible]
John F. Gardner	[illegible]
Sarah Ann Stockings	[illegible]
Joseph Dudley	[illegible]
Byron Neff	[illegible]
James Palmer	[illegible]
Mary Tullis	[illegible]
Phoda Mullen	[illegible]
Phebe Ferguson	[illegible]
Thomas Rowles estate	[illegible]
Penelope Tredenmyer	[illegible]
John C. Miller	[illegible]
Martha Ferguson	[illegible]
Elizabeth Mandell et al.	[illegible]
Frederick Mandell et al.	[illegible]

Death of Arthur Amott Jaques.

There appeared in these columns last evening a notice of the death of one, Arthur Amott Jaques, the son of John and Mary Ann Amott Jaques.

Sister Jaques is the mother of two sons, one Frederick J. A. Jaques, who not long since left his home for the British missionary field and is laboring in the Nottingham conference, the other, Arthur, who is in his 23d year, has been called to the other side, leaving the parents alone in their and bereavement.

They receive the sympathy of a host of friends and acquaintances. The funeral will take place from the 19th ward assembly hall Sunday next, at 12 o'clock noon. The remains can be viewed at the residence, No. 722 north Second West street, from 10:00 until 11:00 a. m. Sunday.

Board of Health Report.

Following is the report of the Board of Health for June:

Number of cases 55, against 37 last year; death rate per thousand 8.61, against 4.62 last year. Of the cases 12 were male and 43 female; 41 married, 12 single, 2 widowed, 1 widow. Thirty were natives of Utah, 2 of other parts of the U. S., and 23 foreign born. Three house were removed from other points for interment, and six shipped away. There were 43 burials in the Salt Lake City cemetery, 10 in Mount Olivet and 2 in the Catholic burying ground. During the month there were 10 cases of scarlet fever, 5 of diphtheria, 1 of typhoid fever and 1 of whooping cough reported. The mortality statistics are as follows: Of those over 5 years old, 9 were married, 3 single, 1 widow, 1 divorced; of those under 5 years old, 6 were born in wedlock, 2 illegitimate. Of those born in wedlock, 4 were boys and 4 girls; of those born out of wedlock, 1 boy and 1 girl. Of those born in wedlock, 2 were white boys and 2 white girls; of those born out of wedlock, 1 white boy. The mother of the illegitimate boy was 19 years old, of brown hair and blue eyes, 5 feet 3 inches tall, and fair complexion; the father was 20 years old, of brown hair and blue eyes, 5 feet 8 inches tall, and fair complexion. He is supposed to have gone north, and wore a dress shirt and blue overall when last seen.

The interest of Harry Parker, whose sudden death occurred in San Francisco a few days ago, was filled from the mortuary of R. G. Rockwell, 211 South West Temple street, yesterday. The services were largely attended, and the local railroad people were out in full force and contributed some twenty-fifty floral emblems, three of which were a locomotive wheel. The pall bearers were George Agent Stewart of the Milwaukee, Howard Agent Kenworthy of the Santa Fe, General Agent Orthwein of the Rock Island, W. G. Saunders, representing Knight agent of the Grand Western, George Cushing, chief clerk in the Oregon Western freight office, and Jack Keefe, chief clerk of the Union Pacific freight office. The remains were interred in the city cemetery.

THE GREEN BAG.

Evidence in the Grover Martin robbing case will be heard before Judge Hilles will probably be left to be decided.

A meeting of the insane asylum board was held at Provo today. Governor Wells was in attendance.

A meeting of the board of health was held last night. All the sewers of the city will tomorrow be connected with the gravity system and it is likely the health board will soon notify property owners to make connections. An alleged slaughter house in Greene was the subject of by complaint received in Warm Springs. The complaint will be investigated.

Mrs. N. W. Adams today filed a complaint in foreclosure on a note held against Catherine Hoare Groubock and D. D. Hoare. Mrs. Adams asks for judgment in the sum of $[illegible] with interest at $[illegible] per cent per annum from July 1, 1896, and interest at 2 per cent per month on $[illegible] since July 1, 1896, also for $[illegible] attorney's fees, and costs of suit. Stephens & Smith are attorneys for plaintiff.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JULY 10, 1896.

Junction City Items.

The defendants in the case of the Bear River Orchard company vs T. W. Hanley et al have filed a counterclaim and cross-complaint. The defendants claim they are the only persons entitled to use the canal, and that the company is not a corporation. The defendants also say that the only persons entitled to use the water are those who have contributed to the canal. The defendants claim they are the only persons who have a right to use the water, and that the company is not a corporation. The defendants also say that the only persons who have a right to use the water are those who have contributed to the canal