DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Friday, - - January 19, 1894.

FRAGMENTS.

Rabbi Jacobson will lecture at the Jewish Temple, West Temple street, this evening. The subject will be, "What is the Talmud?"

Attorney Waldeman Van Cott will preside at the meeting of the students of the University tonight to be addressed by Hon. W. H. Moses of Virginia. In addition to the honors there will be singing by Mr. Will Owen and Miss Maude Fiske.

Maj. John W. Dougherty, wife of Mr. John W. Dougherty of the Commercial National bank, will leave Salt Lake on the new transcontinental sleeper to attend the funeral of her mother at Sacramento, California, who died at that place yesterday.

The City Council finance and waterworks committee recommend taking tomorrow's bids for the sale of certain of Walker Brothers, for Eight Hundred Dollars & Interest, 6, 30, and Bogus Business are damage to the farming of the westbound at the corner of East Temple and second South streets a few nights ago, several witnesses were examined and an adjournment taken until this evening, when the investigation will be resumed.

Wonderland.

An entire change in program occurred at this amusement resort yesterday. In the Circle Hall, the Rosalia orchestra are on exhibition, the latter is as fine as it is wonderful. On the Bijou stage, Kelsch & Collins appear in another sketch, and Miss Emma Watson in a bouquet of the other stage, also the "Musical Parrot" gives their interesting act.

Mr. Barton Hinchley and the Hoch Company will present in the Theatorium the laughable comedy entitled "Yankee Notions."

They Got Off.

Frank Richards, colored, and Annie Thomas, a white woman, were acquitted in Commissioner Greenwalt's court late yesterday afternoon, after a long investigation. The charge was fornication.

Miners Report Deep Snow.

Thomas Hale and Mr. Wallace came in from the Keystone country last evening, says the Lorraine, (Wyo.) Bonanza, and they report progress in the mining work in that section, saying that for the past week they have had most admirable weather. There is about four feet deep, but the snow from there to Lorraine is broken sufficiently so that a person can passover it with sleds. These gentlemen report that they have sunk the Virginius to a depth of fifty feet and believe it to be a true fissure and in place and has a reverse of about four feet between walls with a pay streak of eighteen inches. The ore shows a value from tests of $19 and $24 to the ton. The ore has been rich from the grass roots to the present depth. They have twenty tons on the dump.

The Barnes Brothers have sunk the Vesuvius to a considerable depth. They find a vein of ore from which test of eight sacks, made in Denver, shows that it runs about $100 per ton. They have about twenty tons on the dump.

THE BIDS REJECTED.

Re-advertising for the Erection of the Dealer's School Building Ordered.

THE BIDS ARE SCORED TOO HIGH.

The Acceptance of the Washington Heating and Ventilating Plant Again Postponed.

The board of education met in regular session last night. All of the members were present.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

Petitions from Miss Jessie L. Hodges and L. M. Wrann for promotion as teachers were referred to the committee on teachers and school work.

Hoesch, Davis & Co. were awarded the contract for furnishing and putting in 101 feet of pipe sewer with the necessary valves for $98. The other bidders were F. J. Moran $99, and Midgley & Sons Co. $105.

The Western Heating & Ventilating company notified the board that the heating and ventilating plant at the manual school was ready for acceptance. Committee on sites and buildings.

A. B. Gibson requested that full and final payment on the Western building be made at once. Committee on sites and buildings.

The claim of George S. Spohr, for alleged architect services, was referred to the committee on sites and buildings.

The committee on revision and school law was granted further time in which to do its work.

The annual report of the clerk was submitted, showing receipts $180,126.34, and disbursements $169,551.16. Committee on finance.

The committee on sites and buildings were given further time in which to secure an additional room in the neighborhood of the Oakley building. Also authority to have the Hess building condemned and the necessary room in the Fourteenth school building fitted up for school purposes.

The same committee reported adversely on the petition of C. H. Dart to act as architect for the board for the present year for $1000. Adopted.

The same committee recommended that the superintendent of buildings be instructed to have outrageous iron put on the ceilings over the boilers in the different engine rooms. That the same officer be ordered to put shelves in the teachers' closets in the Washington school.

A majority of the committee on sites and buildings recommended that the bid of White & Hodgson, $48,300, for the erection of the Oquirrh school building (pressed brick) be accepted, and that the attorney of the board be directed to prepare the usual contract, and that the president and clerk of the board be authorized to execute the same.

A number of motions were made and considerable discussion followed, which resulted in the rejection of all the bids and the return of the certified checks of the bidders. The impression was that considering the hard times the bids were all too high and the committee on sites and buildings were given authority to readvertise for bids for a period of twenty days.

The committee on furniture and supplies reported recommending that they be given authority to solicit bids for ten cords of wood; adversely on the proposed substitution of material for sink backs in the schools; that the use to the Tenth teachers, of forty-five desks for $14.50 be approved. Adopted.

The committee on teachers and school work recommended that the salary of Miss McBride of the Tenth school be increased in accordance with the schedule of salaries to date from the time of the change in her corps of teachers; that an additional teacher be employed at the Fourteenth school; that bids be solicited for fifty gross of pens and fifty gallons of ink, and a contract let; that certain books be purchased; that Mr. Angsburg be authorized to expend not to exceed $10 to purchase models for use in the department of constructive drawing in the High school; that certain paper be purchased for the use of Mr. Stebbins in the High school at a cost to exceed $5; that fifteen No. 3 National music readers be purchased for the use of teachers in the seventh and eighth grades; that any copies of Webster's Unabridged dictionaries needing binding be rebound.

The bonds of H. T. Duke, for $550,000, as treasurer and J. R. Houston $1,000, as clerk were approved. The treasurer's sureties were Messrs. Dooly and McCornick; the latter's were J. R. Parlow and J. M. Stout.

Church University Lectures.

Those who purpose attending the Church University lecture this evening should remember that the session begins at 7 o'clock. It has already become known that proceedings at the University always begin on time. As this evening's lecture involves a description of exhibition which will require the darkening of the room, it is more than ordinarily necessary that the audience shall be in place at the time of opening. The subject tonight is "The Man Moses of History" the lecture is by Dr. J. E. Talmage.

Would Rather Stay at Home.

The Nebraska company of Nephites written the following letter, which is self-explanatory, to the local Minister Fair committee:

"Your letter to hand and in reply will say that a space 2x4 will not hold us. We would, therefore, prefer to stay at home. If we extend you to the Fair and be seen we do not go at all. We have the best hall and the best building alone in the world, and the idea of stating it is a space 2x4 is an insult to our industry."

"When Doctors Disagree," Etc.

The Territorial board of Medical Examiners has claimed another victim. This time it is Dr. W. W. Betts, who was arrested late yesterday afternoon on a charge of practicing medicine without a license. He was taken before U. S. Commissioner Pratt, and pending the preliminary hearing will remain "out" on his own recognizance. The "test case" of Dr. Hawkins is expected to come up in the Third district court very shortly.

SNAKE THAT PLAYS DEAD.

A SERPENT REPTILE THAT APPEARS ALMOST TO REASON.

In Missouri there is a snake called the "spread head" that plays "possum." A observer came across one and struck it with a small whip. The snake immediately ejected a food it had recently swallowed and then appeared to lick itself in the side, promptly turned on its back and stiffened, but did not become stretched straight out, and lay perfectly still. The reptilist turned him right side up. He was playing dead so earnestly that he was not surprised to find on motion a position, but immediately turned himself on his back again. Then the observer withdrew to watch developments. In about fifteen minutes the snake cautiously raised its head and two or three inches of his body and looked around. In a few seconds he turned himself over and made off. The same observer afterward frequently watched these snakes go through the same pretended suicide. Sometimes, while playing dead, if one is sharply pricked with a needle or otherwise mentally stimulated, he will promptly resume his interest in surrounding things, and either show fight or try to escape.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

READY TO BE AN EMPEROR.

DOM PEDRO, WHO SEEKS TO REGAIN THE THRONE OF HIS GRANDFATHERS.

Dom Pedro d'Alcantara, Duke of Grand Para, who was supposed to have left France for Brazil the other day in order to take advantage of Admiral Mello's insurrection to make an attempt to recover the throne of his grandfather, is quietly pursuing his studies at the military academy of the Wiener Neustadt, near Vienna.

He is nearly 19 years old, and is the eldest son of the crowned princess of Brazil and of her husband, the Count d'Eu, the latter a son of the Orleans Duke of Nemours. Dom Pedro is a tall, stout, fair, young fellow, with golden hair, chinablue eyes, complete shave and the face of a girl of 12. Dom Pedro recently he attended school at Pau at the college Stanislas, where he was known by the nickname of "Mlle. Pitou."

Like the present Emperor of Germany, Dom Pedro has a wilfulness of eyes, due to an accident at his birth. Notwithstanding this, he has become quite a practical horseman and fencer. Hitherto he has been brought up with great strictness, and he is far behind even French and German boys of his own age.—New York Tribune.

PROVO.

Provo, Utah, - Jan. 19, 1894.

B. Y. Academy.

There is now an attendance of nearly six hundred students at the B. Y. Academy. The institution is filled to its utmost capacity, several applicants for admission having been turned away.

Dr. Karl G. Maeser was at the academy yesterday, and addressed the students.

At last night's session of the Paleographic society, Prof. J. H. Ivoler delivered an excellent lecture on "Habit," selections from a psychological standpoint. This evening a musical program will be carried out under the auspices of the Paleographic society.

Notes.

Dr. Maeser departed for the Midwinter Fair on Saturday. He will be accompanied by his daughter Ottilie. While in California, which will be for five or six months, Dr. Maeser will have charge of the California mission. He will take with him a complete supply of Church literature.

Justice Wedgwood yesterday received a decision in the Logan Post case, finding him over to wait the action of the grand jury in the sum of $500. Post is well known in Provo, having been connected with the Dr. Douglas on a diamond (?) ring worth $15.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Alexander Cunningham, 22, and Luella Bromley, 19, and Alexander Thurston, 23, and Elizabeth Shipley, 21, all of American Fork.

Not Complaining Exactly.

It is stating that one of the Bank gets such a scare as a member of the force received the other night on Park row in front of the portofice. The policemen are quite fond of talking to the newspapers concerning around the portofice. He seemed to find it hard to talk outside in meeting time so. The boys had an outcrop, but at last they found up a subject which has affected pleasure to nearly every one in the city.

They secured an old pair of trousers, together with a coat and a pair, which they stuffed with straw. Waiting until the policemen was looking in their direction, two of them, with the dummy between them, boldly walked out of Dodgers street and started across Park row toward the portofice. The eight of the two boys in charge of a man who apparently could not take care of himself interested the policemen, and he stopped to follow them. The boys walked on until they reached the middle of the street, when they threw the figure on the track before an approaching horse car and fled.

With a pale face and an involuntary cry of terror the policemen ran toward the lady. He had gone but a few feet when he tripped and fell. The driver of the car put on the brake just as the horses reached the body. Just then two boys ranked from the portofice, seized the body by the legs, one on each side and ran down Dodgers street with it toward the center of the population, who had been silent but much amused witnesses of the joke. The policemen did not follow.—New York Sun.

The Office of Mary Ann.

Constipation leads to a multitude of physical troubles. It is generally a result of carelessness or indifference to the simplest rule of health. Eugene McKay, of Bransford, O.T., writes:

"I had for several years been a sufferer from constipation, but taken a great many different remedies, some of which did me good for a time, but only for a time, when my trouble came back worse than ever. I was induced by a friend, when Brandreth's Pills had benefited, to try them. Took two each night for a week, then one every night for about six weeks. Since that time I have not experienced the slightest difficulty whatever, and my bowels move regularly every day. I believe firmly that for sluggishness of the bowels and biliousness Brandreth's Pills are far superior to any other."

GOOD ADVICE

Fire Insurance in Hard Times.

Hence provide of insurance, the property which you have acquired during the flush times, remember that the time to provide against the loss of property is when the property is secure and not after the insurance company is insolvent. The time of loss is the time of need, and of the insurance company is conducted in a manner to fully meet every loss, whether slight or extensive. Prompt payment of losses is the rule of the legal firm.
