VERY MUCH TALK.

Opinion's Offer for the Asylum for Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

MORE COUNTIES HEARD FROM.

Sanpete Has So Much, Sanpete Good Water, Without the Mormon Money, but Just Dare Not and Its Reasons.

The fourth session of the good morning performances, the session held yesterday afternoon, was called to order by Chairman Cannon at one. Just where in the proceedings had the last session closed of a month's consideration of the location of the Institutions for the deaf, dumb and blind, Mr. Dunn, the gifted Delegate from Utah, proposed that Union Stake Church be selected without any [illegible] in opportunities to the State. The proposition was defeated by a [illegible] majority, and Mr. Dunn, in a speech of [illegible] minutes, defended his position. He said he had come from the far south to represent a section of the State, and Legislators in the southern counties had made no distinction. Therefore, if Sanpete and southern Utah were given special consideration, they would be [illegible] to the Legislature. Mr. Dunn, in a plea for Utah's deaf, dumb and blind, Mormon, Gentile and Ute Children, was all right, and he was sorry he could not divide up the country to suitables. Deseret Hospital, of the state, should be other place for young people, and other place for young people, and the Legislature, being composed of Mormons and non-Mormons, could not, for which question, [illegible] to every section of the State. Mr. Dunn, knowing the wants of the whole of Deseret, Utah, Utah and Sanpete, knew what he was talking about. All these five had [illegible] to the Legislature.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

The Convention resumed work at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and it was [illegible] that the [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible] of the Legislature. Mr. Dunn, who was [illegible] the Convention, was [illegible] to [illegible]
