Wool.

BOSTON, 25.—There is not much activity in the wool market, but prices continue steady, and manufacturers still purchase from week to week sufficient to keep their machinery running. The reduced production of goods has not yet influenced the markets so far as prices are concerned, and manufacturers purchase cautiously, while stocks of wool are so comparatively small at all points that there is no disposition to press sales at any concession, but on the contrary, holders are confident that full prices will be sustained for the balance of the season, and that there will be a scarcity of wool even with a stoppage of 25 per cent. of machinery. Fine fleeces are more enquired for, and have been selling at 54@57 cts. for XX and XXX Ohio, and Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Ohio fleeces range from 49@52 cents per pound, as to quality; desirable medium fleeces are selling at 50@55 cents per pound, including Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Maine, and combing and delaine selections from 56@60 cents per pound, as to quality. Pulled continues to come forward more freely, and has been selling from 35@55 cents per pound for super and X. There is a dull feeling for pulled, and low grades can only be sold at concessions. California ranges from 25@40 cents per pound for spring, and 18@26 cents per pound for fall. The latter is still quite dull.

General Strike.

NEW YORK, 25.—The 'longshoremen resolved to-night to enter upon a general strike on Friday morning, their offer to compromise with the ship owners having been rejected.

The Day Observed—Beecher-Tilton—Dead.

Evacuation day was observed by a display of bunting on the National, State, and municipal buildings, hotels, &c., and a parade of veterans, who numbered only sixteen. [illegible] regiment entertained the veterans subsequently at a banquet.

The attorneys for Beecher have signed to consent to set down the argument on the bill particulars before the court of appeals for December 1st; Tilton's counsel announce that they will ask the City Court, on Friday next, to direct the district attorney to proceed promptly with the trial and indictment against their client.

The Jury Charged.

Judge Humphrey's charge in the safe burglary case occupied two hours. At its conclusion he said the court would be kept open until he heard the jury's report; if they had not agreed upon a verdict at ten tomorrow morning they might devote the rest of the day to the observance of thanksgiving day in the jury room, and dismiss further discussion of the case until Friday, at three o'clock.
