FRAGMENTS.

The rolling stock of the McClintock Livery stable has been sold to W. F. Clark, formerly of Colorado.

The articles of incorporation of the Ogden Ranch and Live Stock company have been filed with Secretary Sells.

There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph office for William Rutledge, M. D. Andrew, Theodore Kline, Colonel B. R. Hills.

The Deseret News office was serenaded by the Guitar and Mandolin club last night which discoursed several selections of excellent music.

The meeting of the Utah Midland railway which was called for yesterday afternoon, was not held owing to the absence of some of the directors from the city.

Marriage licenses have been issued to E. J. Sipley and Mamie E. Taylor, Thomas Neeta and Karen S. Larsen, G. H. Hewitt and Clara Sherman, Harry Boyd and Edith Fowler.

In the Third District Court yesterday afternoon, Christian Hansen, a Dane, and James R. Kilner, of Scotland, were admitted to citizenship by Judge Zane. Both reside in Salt Lake County.

The question of abolishing the merchants' license, as recommended by Treasurer Walden, will, it is expected, come up for discussion in the City Council tonight.

Several bids for paving, curbing and guttering State street, were received by the Board of Public Works yesterday, and will probably be submitted to the Council at this evening's session.

Terrific Explosion of Gunpowder.

A day or two since Fred. Peterson, Jun., a resident of the Second ward in this city, was engaged in the work of blasting rock in the canyon just to the east of Fort Douglas, when the charge suddenly exploded. [illegible]

Utah Sugar.

A gentleman who formerly resided in this city, and who is now engaged in the promotion of the sugar industry in the East, called at the News office this morning [illegible]

AN INEBRIATED PAUPER

Named Warden, Alias Waters, Dies in the City Jail.

An inebriated pauper and trespasser made his way to police headquarters last night and applied for lodgings. He was told to go to the bunk room—an apartment kept for the express purpose of sheltering characters of this kind. He staggered into the apartment [illegible] and was exhausted and shivering upon the floor. He said he was very sick and was going to die. When asked if he would have a cup of hot coffee or other stimulant, he replied in the negative and added that he wanted to go to sleep. He was assisted into one of the bunks and covered with blankets about 8 o'clock. After that it seems that no attention was given him until 7 o'clock this morning, when Jailer Raleigh opened the outer door, which was locked late last night, and found the cold, lifeless body of the unfortunate man stretched upon the floor.

Coroner Harris was notified and took charge of the remains, which were removed to the Utah undertaking establishment, where a jury was empaneled and an inquest held at 11 o'clock today. An adjournment was taken until 4 o'clock this afternoon, when in all probability an autopsy will be held in order to ascertain the true cause of death. It is believed, however, that the verdict will be that the deceased came to his death from drunkenness and exposure.

He was arrested for drunkenness and trespass in June, 1890, and served a sentence of thirty days' imprisonment for that offense. At that time he gave the name of A. S. Warden, his occupation as that of a barber and his age as 29. His true name, however, is said to be Waters. He was formerly an employe of the United States Express company at St. Joe, Mo. So far as known he had no relatives in this Territory.

County Court.

FUTURE CANDIDATES.

Who is to be the Next "Liberal" Candidate for Mayor?

Recently a number of persons waited upon Councilman Pickard and, in behalf of ninety-five saloonkeepers of this city, tendered him the "Liberal" nomination for next Mayor of Salt Lake. For a time he modestly protested, but finally succumbed, and consented to accept. The proffer was made with perfect assurance, evidently in full faith that the voice of whisky would be irresistibly potential in the matter of selection.

Another prospective "Liberal" candidate is talked about, but not by the saloonists. The following conversation which lately took place between two members of the party in a down town junk house is a pointer on the subject:

"Say, have you been assessed yet?"

"For what?"

"Why, the "Liberal" campaign. I have just promised to fork over $25."

"Humph! is that so?"

"Correct, and they'll be after you before long—but (in a low tone) have you heard whether Fred has been spoken to about accepting the nomination as candidate for mayor?"

"No."

"Well, I have."

The First Shipment.

The first shipment of ore from La Plata via Ogden caused a great stir in that city. The ore came down yesterday morning, and was escorted into town with a procession of brass bands and carriages bearing all the foremost citizens of the place. The ore was from the Red Jacket, and the shipment was estimated at 38,000 pounds. The procession reached the R. G. W. depot at noon, when the ceremonies of unloading, etc., were accompanied by [illegible]

FOOTPADS IN LOGAN.

Two Citizens Held up and Several Shots Exchanged.

Special News.

Two hold-ups attacked a couple of men here last night, intending to rob them. Dr. Wallack was one of the intended victims, and a representative of the Ogden steam laundry the other. Both showed fight and Dr. Wallack knocked his assailant down with his pistol. The robbers ran and Dr. Wallack shot at one of the highwaymen, the latter returning the fire. Eight or nine shots were exchanged. Both desperadoes escaped. A hat with a bullet hole through it was found at the scene of the conflict. The shot had been fired so close that the hat was powder-burned. They have not been discovered. A house was robbed in the Third ward in the evening. One of the footpads was badly wounded. No arrests yet.

Logan, Utah, Nov. 2.

Amusements.

At the Salt Lake Theatre, Wednesday, Nov. 4th, Rosina Vokes and her clever company of comedians will appear. She will make but a two nights' visit, and as is her custom, she will present three separate and distinct plays at each performance.

Wednesday night the bill will consist of "Percy Pendragon," a comedy in one act, taken from H. J. Byron's "Married in Haste," G. W. Godfrey's comedietta "My Milliner's Bill," in which Miss Vokes will sing her famous song, "His 'Art was True to Poll," and "My Lord and "Livery," a farcical comedy in one act by S. Theyre Smith. On Thursday night "Old Musician," "Wig and Gown," and a "Double Lesson" will be given.

On Thursday morning the Gilmore band and solo artists will reach Salt Lake by special train from Provo, where they appear at the Tabernacle in that city. [illegible]

Y. L. M. I. A. Notice.

The regular Y. L. M. I. A. officers' meeting will be held in the Fourteenth Ward Relief Society Hall, on next Saturday, November 7, at 11 a. m. It is requested that representatives from each society be present.
