SITUATION IS STILL UNCHANGED

Interchange of Freight Between Salt Lake Route and Southern Pacific.

E. W. GILLETT HERE FROM EAST

General Freight and Passenger Agent Of Clark Road Has No News On Subject.

E. W. Gillett, general freight and passenger agent of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake road, arrived in Salt Lake this morning from New York and Chicago, where he has been for three weeks arranging for the opening of general agencies.

When asked as to what had been done at the meeting in New York Mr. Gillett stated that beyond what had appeared in the dispatches he knew nothing. In answer to a question regarding the interchange of freight at the California end of the system, the lack of which has occasioned considerable talk in railroad circles, Mr. Gillett affirmed that the situation was unchanged.

He further asserted that there was nothing new to give out of interest to the general public and as yet he was not in a position to announce who would be appointed assistant general freight agent of the Salt Lake Route to take Mr. Worden's place. Mr. Gillett leaves with Mr. Moore for Los Angeles tonight in order to arrive at headquarters prior to the date of Mr. Worden's resignation.

The fact, however, that the Salt Lake Route is establishing independent agencies in the east is taken to mean, in local railroad circles, that the Salt Lake Route is going it alone, or proposes so to do. It is argued that otherwise the road would be represented in Harriman offices as heretofore.

FOR FISHERMEN.

Rio Grande Will Put on Special Train Every Sunday.

General Agent Benton of the passenger department of the Rio Grande this morning announced that arrangements have been made commencing Sunday evening to put on a special train which will leave the Upper Falls every Sunday evening at 8:40 to connect with the regular flyer at Provo, which arrives in Salt Lake shortly after 11 p. m. This will give the picnickers and fishermen in Provo canyon a long day and will not compel them to leave early in the afternoon when the fishing commences, as has been the case heretofore.

LOS ANGELES & REDONDO.

H. E. Huntington Has Purchased All Holdings and Interests.

San Francisco, July 12.—A special to the call from Los Angeles says the official announcement has been made that through the consummation of a deal just terminated H. E. Huntington has purchased entire all of the holdings and interests of the Los Angeles & Redondo Railway company. The property comes into the hands of Huntington through the purchase of every share of the capital stock of $1,000,000 and the assumption of the bonded indebtedness of $500,000. It is also announced that the purchase is made by Huntington personally and that none of his other electric railroad enterprises enter in the transaction in the matter.

BIG ORDER.

Eighty-five Locomotives for the Santa Fe Road.

The Santa Fe road has ordered 85 locomotives from the Baldwin company at Philadelphia. Fifty of these are to be of the balance compound type, divided between the "Pacific" and "Atlantic" styles of model. Such an order means an expenditure of over a million of dollars. The balance compound is where the high pressure cylinders act directly on the forward driving axle immediately under the boiler, the same as in the old fashioned "inside connections" locomotive; the low pressure, or the larger cylinders acting on the outside, upon the drivers, as obtains in the ordinary simple acting engine. This combination is found to make the engine operate much more steadily and economically and nearly obviate the necessity of placing balance weights on the drivers.

PANAMA LINE.

Contract With Pacific Mail Steamship Company Terminates Today.

New York, July 12.—The contract between the Panama Railroad company and the Pacific Mail Steamship company, under which the latter has for years enjoyed the exclusive privilege of handling freight on the Pacific side on through bills of lading, will terminate today. Hereafter all carriers will be on a parity in respect to transit facilities on the isthmus.

Mr. Bristow in his recent report on the Panama railroad, recommended that if the Pacific Mail Steamship company withdraws its present Panama line an effort will be made to induce some other company to establish a first class service between the important Pacific coast ports of the United States and Panama.

Upon excellent authority it can be stated that the government does not anticipate that the Pacific Mail will carry out its threat to take its vessels from the Panama-San Francisco service nor does it expect the abrogation of a contract to affect in any way the shipment of merchandise from New York to San Francisco.

SHOPS AT SPARKS.

Extensive Improvements Are Scheduled By the Southern Pacific There.

The Southern Pacific company is preparing to begin work on some extensive improvements at Sparks, its new division terminus, near Reno. The present machine and boiler shops are to be duplicated, in order to provide facilities for more extensive repair work, and a new car shop is to be built.

The buildings are to be erected on a piece of vacant ground immediately east of the transfer table. The machine and boiler shops will be substantial brick structures, and the car shop will be a large frame building. The large machines for engine and boiler repairing will be placed in the new shops, and the principal part of the company's repair work on the Sacramento division as well as on the lines east of Sparks, will be done there, the reason that the modern facilities at Sparks are capable of turning out more and better work than any of the other machine shops of the system. The new buildigs will nearly double the capacity of the shops at Sparks, and will materially increase the population of the growing Nevada town.

Through Car for Boise.

Announcement was made by the passenger department of the Oregon Short Line that effective at once an exclusive through sleeping car will be put on between Boise and Portland on trains Nos. 5 and 6. This innovation has been made on account of the heavy travel and in answer to a petition from a number of residents of the Idaho capital.

Pennsy Man Here.

E. A. Ford, general passenger and ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines, arrived in Salt Lake this morning from a trip through Yellowstone park. He came in in his private car "Courier," having been met up the line by General Passenger Agent D. E. Burley of the Oregon Short Line. After a lunch at the Alta club, a drive around the city and a private recital at the Tabernacle this afternoon he went out to Saltair. He will continue east over the Rio Grande this evening.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

Rio Grande No. 1 came in today in two sections.

Charles Osborne, traffic manager of the Erie Despatch, is in Salt Lake.

General Superintendent A. E. Welby of the Rio Grande Western is at Glenwood Springs today.

F. B. Sanford, general traveling agent for the Santa Fe, was in the city yesterday on his way home to Chicago.

The advertising car of Barnum & Bailey's big circus is sidetracked in the Rio Grande yards. The circus will be here during the first week in August.

HOW THE WEATHER IS.

Mercury was 96 Last Night and 94 Early This Afternoon.

The mercury reached 94 degrees at 2:15 p. m. today, but at 2:30 had dropped to 92 owing to a breeze suddenly showing up from the northwest. But the atmosphere has been sweaty, muggy and sticky, due, the local weather office thinks to cloudiness rather than to any high humidity. The highest thermometer of yesterday, 96 degrees, occurred at 4:30 p. m., and it seems characteristic of this heated term that the hottest point is reached late in the day. There is a low local barometric area covering this immediate region, and the weather office expects cooler weather tonight.

"HEALER" WAS DRUNK.

Smashed a Consumptive With a Club. And Got Ten Days in Jail.

C. M. Jackman, an individual with a corrugated mind and queer habits, who has been palming himself off on the unsuspecting public hereabouts as a "divine healer" for some time, ran against it hard in the police court this afternoon. He was charged with being drunk and admitted the allegation after which Judge Diehl gave him 10 days on the rock pile.

During the taking of testimony it was ascertained that Jackman was arrested yesterday for being crazy. It was brought out also that he had an experience out of the ordinary on Apple street just prior to his apprehension. It appears that he went to the home of a consumptive to do the "divine healing" act, and that he had a spirited controversy with the sick man, the sequel being that he took a club and smashed his patient with much force. Relatives and others interefered and the "healer" found that he had been hit hard.

FOUND DEAD.

Andrew Landles, from Nevada, Apparently Succumbs to Too Much Liquor.

The dead body of Andrew Landles was found in the Clayton rooming house at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Just what was the cause of death will be for the coroner to determine, but every indication points to it being a case of too much liquor with a fatal sequel.

The man, who is about 30 years of age, came to Salt Lake from Nevada some two weeks ago and secured a room at the rooming house indicated at 216 south State street. Since his arrival here he has been drinking incessantly and heavily. This morning it was noticed that he remained in his room and was not calling for liquor as usual. An investigation this afternoon developed that he was dead.

Coroner Clark was notified and he will call a jury to determine whether or not it is a case of suicide or alcoholism.

HOW STATE IS MISREPRESENTED.

Campaign of Villification Carried On by So-Called Christian Missionaries.

EXTRACTS FROM THEIR REPORTS

What Utah Gospel Mission is Doing to Help Utah and the Benighted "Mormons."

Under the heading, "Pernicious Advertising," a recent issue of Truth has the following:

In my letter to you on February 14th, I told you how the Presbyterians through Brother S. E. Wishard, their superintendent of Utah and Idaho, were advertising Utah in the Presbyterian Assembly Herald. These articles in the Assembly Herald pictured our homes as hovels and our schools as mean and insufficient. There is now being circulated through the eastern states a little book which seems to supplement the Assembly Herald. This book tells the world and leads it to believe that all the people (except the orthodox missionaries) in Utah are ignorant, debased and immoral. The title of the book or pamphlet is "The Story of Our Work Awheel and Afloat in Mormondom During 1904. Being the Annual Report of the Utah Gospel Mission." The book is dishonest in the extreme and, like the Assembly Herald, tells only half of a story, which is the meanest kind of a lie. It gives a history of eleven orthodox missionaries who traveled through Utah during the summer of 1904. These missionaries visited 9,500 families, held 172 meetings in 65 different places. On page 10 of their pamphlet they speak of Mormon ideas as paganism and on page 14, like Brother Wishard, they speak of the Utah people as a people who sit in darkness. To read the entire book, you would be led to believe that they did not meet a Gentile in all their travels and all the Mormons they met were bad ones. They do not have one good word for Utah and her people.

In summing up their entire work, they say: "In the extracts from letters on page 14 and beyond will be found facts of intense interest on these and other points." I will give a few of the extracts in their entirety:

"A boy at a certain place said that some one was drunk and had a 'scrap' (fight) at nearly every dance they have there. They are held in the school building where the other church meetings are also held, and are under the auspices of the Young Men's Mutual."—(Y. M. M. I. A.)

"Former Bishop —— maltreated his four wives, left them and eloped to (out of Utah) with another man's wife; was put out of the church, but now has managed to get back in. This is the story, in brief, told me by one of the 'poly—' wives. She will not call herself ——, (his name), but ——, the name of her former husband."

"In conversation with a Mormon, he said: 'If you pay your tithing, you are all right.' As to morals, he said, no account was taken of drunkenness, dishonesty, fighting and such like."

"A Mormon: 'I've never committed any sins.' 'What did Christ die for then?' 'His own sins, of course.'"

"In ——, a lady said she never read her Bible, but trusted to the 'elders' to tell her everything."

"A Mormon lady teacher, talking to a young Mormon girl who is seriously thinking of becoming a Christian: 'If you become a Christian the boys will not come to see you.' She replied, 'Is that so? Don't the boys come to see Christian girls?'"

"A certain mine operator said: 'You can't trust the Mormons, they are such thieves and drink all the time.'" (This is too strong for a universal statement, but is too sadly true of very many.)

"Plural wife No. 2: 'Polygamy is hell. I know; I was No. 2. My children did not know their father; he never took any notice of them, and did not provide for me or them!'"

"Illiterate Mormon: 'Well, I seen God at the dedication of the Temple (Salt Lake). He came out in his robes and held out his arms so (spreading). And it was just as they said it would be, before the dedication. Some seen him and some didn't. But I seen him.'"

"Mr. ——, a Mormon elder said last night in his talk: 'God has a wife—this is the way he creates; using as proof when I asked him at the close of the meeting for a Bible text, Gen. 5:1 and 2."

There are five pages of the above rot, the summing up of the work of 11 missionaries for one season: This is what they advertise to the whole world as samples of the people they found in Utah. What an awful lie! What an awful impression these emissaries of God are trying to create in the minds of the people of the eastern states about Utah! In their entire book from cover to cover they say nothing about the thousands of good people they saw, but they magnified and enlarged on all the bad they found. This is the usual method employed by most of the orthodox missionaries in Utah. It was the method Dr. Paden used in the Smoot protest as well as the one by his bosom friend and co-laborer, John L. Lelich. Brother Wishard rolls it as a sweet morsel under his tongue when he makes a speech or preaches a sermon on Utah and it is the most prominent thing in his letters in the eastern and religious papers. Any missionary who will go to a Mormon home or to the home of any person with a Bible in one hand and religious tracts in the other, representing himself to be a messenger of the Meek and Lowly Jesus, and when he gets their confidences, writes down their ungrammatical and crude sayings and publishes them to the world in ridicule, as it were, is a traitor and a hypocrite. The above may be strong language. But the Gentiles of Utah are getting tired of the itinerant soul-savers who go about this state digging up the literary excrement of the ignorant Mormons and publishing it to the world as a sample of our state, and its people. I will make a few comparisons.

In the year 1891, in classical Englewood, a suburb of Chicago, the members of the First Presbyterian church got into a big scrap over their pastor. They called each other all the vile names imaginable and on different occasions, when they had prayer meeting, policemen were stationed in the church to keep these good Christians from fighting. Giteau was an orthodox Christian, and said God commanded him to murder President Garfield. A few years ago in Vermont an orthodox Christian by the name of Freeman, on returning home from a revival, murdered his little daughter. He said the Almighty told him to do it. John L. Lellich, the superintendent of the Methodist missions in Utah and as representative of the Ministers' association of Salt Lake City, committed perjury in Washington, D. C., and was never even censured for his criminal act, but on the contrary was given the pastorship of a Methodist church in Lockhaven, Pa. The Rev. S. E. Wishard, superintendent of the Presbyterian missions of Utah and Idaho, told gross falsehoods about Utah and her people in the Herald and Presbyter, and was susetained by his church in so doing. One can go into any community where the people are all Gentiles and find just as crude and ignorant peoples as these orthodox missionaries are picturing to the world to injure and belittle Utah. Suppose that 11 Mormon missionaries should publish in pamphlet form the above facts about orthodox Christians and distribute them all over the country, leading the people to believe that the above was a sample of the Christians they met. It would be a slander and falsehood on the American people. The great majority of Christian people are good people, only a few of them are bad, and the same can be said of the Mormons. This pamphlet that these orthodox missionaries are distributing has been endorsed by Rev. R. G. McNiece, Rev. N. F. Clemenson and the Rev. S. E. Wishard for the Presbyterians of Utah. Their names can be found on page 2 of the cover. Brother Wishard delights to have his name on anything that will injure Utah. This pamphlet in many places appeals for money to help carry on their campaign of misrepresentation. It cost $300 for each missionary during the season. It makes a nice summer outing to drive through our beautiful valleys and canyons in the summer time, distribute a few tracts, hold a few meetings, and call on a few people and have your expenses all paid. They are not burdened by making converts, for on page 10 they say they do not expect to make a single convert in six or seven years. There are 11 of them at $300 per year, making $3,300, and it will be at least six years, representing $19,800 before they make one convert. The first one will come high.

My dear orthodox Christian missionaries and preachers in Utah, let me make you some suggestions. When 11 missionaries in six years, at a cost of $19,800, can only convert one sinner, there is something wrong. Mr. Harry Monroe in the Pacific Garden mission in Chicago converts hundreds of vile sinners every year and his total expense is only 63 cents each. The persons who hate sinners, hate themselves, and everybody else. If you want to convert a Mormon, you must first love him and then show him a better religion than he has. You cannot cleanse a man by throwing mud at him or by publishing to the world his defects. Why do you, when you come to Utah, dethrone love and hoist the banner of hatred. Look at all the writings, speeches and Devil Fish pamphlets you are issuing each year? Hatred, slander, ridicule, injury and falsehood are on the cover, in the type matter and between the lines of nearly all of them. I saw much of your nefarious work last month in Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania. Nearly every one I met believed that Senator Smoot had from two to five wives, and that polygamy was increasing, and the Gentiles were not wanted in Utah, and they all cited the preachers and missionaries in Utah for their information. Some time ago the Rev. W. A. Bartlett of Chicago, preached one of the most scandalous, false and damnable sermons on Utah and the Mormons that could be delivered. I called on the Rev. Bartlett and asked him where he obtained his information about Utah, and he frankly told me it was all sent to him by the preachers and missionaries of this state. I will try to finish this letter in next week's Truth.

Yours very truly,
V. S. PEET.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 2, 1905.

ACCIDENT WAS FATAL.

Funeral Services Over Remains of Little Orson P. S. Musser.

The funeral services over the remains of Orson P. S. Musser will be held at 2 p. m. on Sunday, the 16th inst., in the First ward meetinghouse, situated on Eighth East street between Seventh and Eighth South street. Last Saturday the 8th inst., Orson was run over at Honeyville, Boxelder county by an empty wagon drawn by runaway horses, driven by him. In addition to many bruises he sustained he was internally injured, which no doubt, was the immediate cause of his death which occurred at 3 a. m. on the Monday following. A surgeon was summoned and everything was done for him that could be by loving hands, including those of his devoted mother who reached home the day before his death.

A list of the prizes may be seen at the association's headquarters, 15 West Second South street, and the list appears to be about a yard long. The first train for Saltair leaves Salt Lake at 10 a. m., and thereafter trains will leave every 45 minutes during the day, up to 10 p. m. Arrangements have been made to have street cars meet all incoming trains.

Ogden, July 12.—In the district court this morning judgment for $2,000 was rendered for Matilda Johnson who sued an insurance company for that amount on a policy on her husband's life. Johnson died about a year ago and the company declined to make settlement on the ground that he had not paid his dues.

CRITTENDEN HOME TROUBLE.

There was trouble at the Crittenden home last night when John D. Hartog, father of Coba Hartog, called at the place and demanded that his daughter be returned to him. He declared that she had been sent to the place by the police without his knowledge. The girl had been before the juvenile court on the ground of incorrigibility and the officers sent her to the home. Hartog was not permitted to take her away and proposes to make a test case of it.

TRAGIC AFFAIR AT POCATELLO.

Discharged Chef Shoots One Man Through the Heart and Wounds Another.

OCCURRED IN A DINING CAR.

Victim is J. W. Hall, Who Died Instantly—Wounded Man Brought To Salt Lake.

Lying at St. Mark's hospital with a bullet wound in the fleshy part of the left leg, above the knee, Arthur Parker, a colored waiter in the dining car service of the Oregon Short Line, is slowly recovering from a murderous attack made upon him at Pocatello yesterday afternoon. The shooting was done by James Thompson, a recently discharged chef, who for some cause or other, opened fire on him and J. W. Hall, as they entered the car in which Thompson had seated himself shortly after the arrival of the passenger train No. 2. Hall was shot through the heart and died instantly, while Parker was wounded as indicated above.

Shortly after the shooting, Officers McCarvey and Edgley of Pocatello were notified and located Thompson in a house on Third avenue. At first the man refused to surrender, and declared that he would kill the first man who entered the building. Nothing daunted, the officers broke in the door and found the man with the same gun with which he had done the shooting. The gun had been fully loaded and it was quite evident that the murderer intended to defend himself. He was overpowered without difficulty and is now in custody, awaiting a hearing on the charge of murder.

Parker was brought to Salt Lake for treatment, arriving here at 8:30 last night. His wound is not at all dangerous, and he will likely recover in a comparatively short time.

LIKES SALT LAKE.

Arkansas Man Much Impressed With Hospitality Exhibited.

A. C. Hamilton, one of the largest apple dealers in the United States, and vice president of the Arkansas Cold Storage and Ice company of Fayetteville, Ark., is spending a few days in Salt Lake. The gentleman is delighted with this section and is much impressed with the open-hearted hospitality of the people, which, he says, is not excelled anywhere he has been. He believes Salt Lake is the making of a big city, and that the next few years will witness great changes in this locality.

MARRIAGE WILL OUT.

Denver Couple Wanted it Kept Secret Till Next Week.

Yesterday there were three names entered upon the register of the Wilson hotel, Louis P. Bondy, P. P. Platt, and Ann H. Allen, all signing from Denver, Colo. Today the personnel of the party is unchanged, but the register records no trace of Ann H. Allen, and Bondy's signature has been changed to read "Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Bondy, Denver." The other name remains the same.

Just what elements, whether of runaway, or romance, of first-sight love, or an appointment of a traveling man with his lady fair to meet in Salt Lake, where his route gives him time to work in a wedding ceremony, enter into the making of the match is not known. Miss Allen and Mr. Bondy were available for interviews yesterday, but Mr. and Mrs. Bondy have no use for the reporter clan today. They were married this morning right in the office of the county clerk, where the license to wed was secured. The groom was attended by the other man on the register—P. P. Platt, and he made special requests of Deputy County Clerk David A. Smith that the reporters be tipped off on the affair next week or next month some time. Just now they didn't want anything said. Mr. Smith was accommodating enough. He gave them their license and then the ceremony, sending them happy and delighted out of the office.

Councilman A. J. Davis acted as good angel to the trio and escorted them to the clerk's office. When asked as to his version of the affair, he said it was no runaway. Platt was a friend of his whom he knew to be a travelling man, and he met him on his way to the county building, introduced him to his friends and said they had come to be married. Davis then showed them the clerk, and did not ask any questions, as he did not wish to pry into the affairs of his friend.

He advised an interview with Platt, who would be found at the Wilson.

But Platt was not there. Neither was Bondy or the bride. When accused of taking orders to report them absent and not molest them, the man at the desk declared they were at Saltair, and had gone out as the first step on the honeymoon. He thought Bondy was a traveling man, and had simply arranged with his bride to meet him here.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL.

Will be Open for Inspection by the Public Tomorrow.

The White Cross Sanitarium and City Emergency hospital will open its doors to patients on Friday. Prior to this the institution will be thrown open tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m. until 9 o'clock for the inspection by the public, which is cordially invited to be on hand.

The hospital is located at 253 south West Temple and will be a great boon to victims of street accidents and other emergency cases which heretofore have been handled at police headquarters.

The emergency hospital is merged with a private concern which is in the nature of a sick benefit club, the 200 members subscribing a set sum each month, thereby insuring medical and surgical treatment in case of sickness. Among the physicians and surgeons who are on the staff are Drs. Frank H. Steele, M. G. Varian, C. F. Pinkerton, J. S. Sharp, A. L. Castleman of Bingham canyon, F. A. Kiehle of Bingham Junction, and others.
