VICTORY FOR GOMEZ.

Said to Have Defeated Weyler in a Great Battle.

GREAT WANING LOSS IS HEAVY.

[illegible] Havana, by communication to Key West.

[illegible]

New York, Aug. 10.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says: Gomez has defeated Weyler. The news of a victory has reached the city of Havana and insurgent forces in the interior are marching toward Havana. According to the information received in the city, the Spanish troops were routed in a hard battle with heavy losses.

This news causes a veritable panic in Havana, as it is generally believed that Capt.-Gen. Weyler is now on that Cape-Gen. Weyler is now in Havana, as it is generally believed that Weyler is now in the city and there is a belief that the Spanish troops recently under him will be those which suffered defeat at the hands of the rebels.

It is said that it is time the Spanish officers are taking great pains to cover the last. Twice, they claim, they were on the point of a great victory, but at the last moment, at the critical moment, they were left by insurgents who had been driven back by a large body of insurgents who had been driven back by a large body of insurgents who had been driven back by a large body of