THE OCTOBER FAIR.

An Interesting Interview With President John R. Winder.

HOPEFUL OF A FINE EXHIBITION.

Territorial Band Contest. — Kennel Show and Special Premiums. —Notes.

"How are things moving with the big fall Fair?"

This question was asked of President John R. Winder of the D. A. & M. society this morning. Mr. Winder was enthusiastic over the prospects and in answer to the above question replied:

"In my intercourse with the people and talking on this subject with them it is very gratifying to see the increased interest manifest by all parties in relation to the necessity of sustaining home industry in all its departments. I look for valuable assistance from the women of Utah in making our next Territorial exhibition the best we have had. The great interest they are taking in this matter is highly commendable, and we all know the influence they have in the community on any worthy matter they become interested in. This I am sure will be seen and felt, not alone in preparing exhibits in our own special departments, but in the good influence they can and will exercise on the men and boys in the community to take an active part in their respective branches of industry, such as agriculture in all its departments including live stock of all kinds, horticulture in all its branches, manufactures in every department, and I may say the same, in everything that tends to make a grand exhibition worthy of the great Territory of Utah. Now that I am speaking in praise of the grand and noble efforts put forth by the ladies, I am not unmindful of the great amount of work done in this direction by the men of Utah in the past. Many of them have, regardless of labor and cost, put forth their best efforts to represent Utah as she should be represented, not alone in our home exhibitions, but in competing against the whole world; and in very many cases have won laurels that any community might be proud of. The memories of past successes stimulate me to feel very hopeful and, I may say, confident of the success of our next fair.

"Yes, the directors and officers of the society are united and assiduous in their labors in the interest of the people, whose servants they are, and they solicit the aid and assistance of every citizen interested in the development of the resources of Utah; especially do they appreciate the valuable help they receive from the press, furnished without pecuniary compensation.

"I do not think there was ever a time when the whole people were more united on this very important matter than now. The surrounding conditions all point to the necessity of union of effort in the establishing of home industries that will furnish employment for all classes of people.

"The resources of the society are limited and it cannot offer very large sums on premiums as inducements to exhibitors; but from past experience I can say that we have a great many public spirited men and women who are not prompted to action alone for dollars and cents but take pride in exhibiting their goods regardless of special awards. I know this to be the case with many of the live stock exhibitors who have in the past expended a large amount of means without reference to awards, and notwithstanding the live stock market in all its branches is much depressed, I have confidence that the same liberal spirit manifested in the past will still stimulate them to action this fall, and I think the same may be said of every other branch of industry.

"Yes, we will have a grand exhibition next October."

BAND CONTEST.

Arrangements are progressing looking to a grand band contest at the coming Fair. There has been no contest of this kind at the Fairs since 1891 and there is considerable desire on the part of some of the musical people to witness a good one this year. The matter will be settled soon by the D. A. & M. directors. In the meantime the bands are tuning up for the fray.

The best music the Territory affords will be furnished this year every day during the Fair and the directors hope to show that Utah has advanced in music as well as in her arts and industries.

KENNEL SHOW.

Mr. L. D. Kinney, president of the Salt Lake Kennel club, will this year probably have one of his expensive dog kennels brought to the exhibition grounds and will add great interest to this always attractive feature by showing from fifty to one hundred fine bred St. Bernards in the kennel show. Mr. Kinney is an enthusiast on the question and claims that the people have no idea of the amount of money invested in dogs in Utah of late years.

INTERESTING NOTES.

The directors will soon let the privileges for exclusive advertising, restaurant, fruit, summer drinks, pop corn, ice cream, peanuts, candy, merry-go-round, etc., for the October Fair.

Many special premiums are offered in the educational department this year, which should set the pupils of every school in the Territory in competition. The premiums cover work for the little ones as well as the scholars. The secretary is preparing these specials to send to every school in the Territory and a great competition on all the offers is expected.

M. C. E. Woolland and the secretary of the D. A. & M. society are moving their head wheels in perfecting some scheme to hold a great inter-mountain convention of industries and an auxiliary congress of the Territorial Exposition. This would include a day for manufacturers, agriculturists, educators and a women's congress.

Special attention will be given this year to decorations. The bunting used last year was immediately taken down at the close of the fair and has been preserved in good state, and this will be added to and artistically arranged. In addition to this the manufacturers will make a special show of decorations and new and novel features are promised. Wheat, oats and grains in the straw make beautiful decorations, and no doubt a beginning will be made this year in this line.

Extra efforts are being made this year to secure an exhibit of apples that will do justice to the Territory. The work of spraying, done for the first time in the history of Utah, should increase the interest in the department and the horticultural societies will no doubt do their full duty in showing the people the benefits of such regulations. In addition to the society's prizes for apples, F. Auerbach & Bro. offer $10 for the best display of this favorite fruit.

FOR THE PRETTIEST BABY.

Secretary D. A. & M. Society:

Dear Sir—The undersigned will give a special premium of one baby carriage of the value of $25, for the best looking baby under six months old—winners of the D. A. & M. Society's baby prizes to be excluded—to be competed for at the Territorial Fair of 1894.

Respectfully,
SORENSEN, NELSON FURNITURE CO.

OATS AND BARLEY PRIZE.

Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society:

Dear Sir—The undersigned will give a special premium of $2 for the best 100 pounds of barley, and $2 for the best 100 pounds of oats to be competed for at the Territorial Fair of 1894.

Respectfully,
PACIFIC FEED & MILL CO.

BEST BRAIDED HAIR CHAIN.

To Geo. D. Pyper, Secretary:

Dear Sir—The undersigned will give a special premium of one silver and glass [illegible] for the best braided hair chain, to be competed for at the Territorial Fair of 1894.

Respectfully,
JONES & FARR.

CAUGHT THE BUNCO MEN.

Dr. Robinson, of Ogden, Identifies His Fleecers.

Albert Holfes, John Casey, Joe Bowers and James Thornton, well known in the gaming fraternity, were arrested yesterday on warrants sworn out in Harper's court, says the Denver News of Thursday. Dr. W. P. Robinson, who was buncoed out of $250 in Colfax, made the complaint, alleging that Bowers took him over the river where the attractions are many and varied. Bowers borrowed $250, giving Robinson a check for $500, which was later found to be worthless. Robinson, it is claimed, has newly received his appointment as superintendent of an Indian reservation at the hands of President Cleveland, and was on his way West when he "fell down" in Colfax.

Police Record For a Day.

Mounted Policemen Shannon and Pratt today captured a tough gang of six transients who had taken possession of the old three-story brick refinery in North Salt Lake. They were all locked up on the charge of vagrancy.

In the police court Sam Jones forfeited $2 for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk without a lamp, and John Doe was fined a similar sum for leaving his team on the sidewalk untied.

Mike Fuller alias J. H. Wilson, the lap robe thief, was found guilty and ordered sent to jail for a period of seventy days.

Thomas Williams, a colored man, is under arrest for grand larceny, with his wife the complaining witness. She alleges that he robbed her of all of her earthly possessions and then turned her adrift to shift for herself. The case will be heard on Monday.

Albert Christensen, the boy arrested yesterday for stealing junk, was discharged.

A Slashing and Cutting Scrape.

Z. F. Scott and Chas. T. Nelson, the two men who knocked and cut each other about so severely in a saloon at the corner of Twelfth South and Fifth East streets, last Wednesday night, are having a hearing in Commissioner McNally's court this afternoon. The charge is assault and battery. The defendant Scott's attorneys are S. A. Kenner and A. V. Taylor. Attorney Frank Hoffman appears for Nelson.

An Idle and Vulgar Gang.

Complaint is made that almost every day a crowd of idle, loud-mouthed and uncouth negroes assemble on the south half of Commercial street. Oftentimes some of them are intoxicated and the language they use is so shocking and shameful that respectable people hesitate to go on to that thoroughfare to transact business. The street has been largely relieved by the enforced removal of its most disreputable classes of population to other haunts since the location there of the city offices and the establishment of legitimate business houses, and those who have occasion to call at these places would be grateful if the nuisance referred to could be permanently abated.

Joint Building Affairs.

The city and county building committee met at the Mayor's office last evening but transacted no business of particular importance. There are several contracts to let yet for completing the furnishing of the building. Prominent among these unawarded contracts are those for vault doors and for placing electric lighting plant. The vault door bids have been received and are as follows:

Herring-Hall-Marvin company	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible] company	[illegible]

These bids will be given attention at the meeting on Monday afternoon. The bids for the electric light plant have also been received but have not yet been made public.

MAORI MEETING.

The Recent Arrivals from New Zealand Warmly Welcomed.

There was a pleasant gathering at the Fourteenth ward assembly rooms last evening, the occasion being a welcome reception to Hirini Whaanga, the Maori chief, and his party who arrived from New Zealand this week. The large hall was well filled with Elders who had been on missions to New Zealand, their families and others. At 8 o'clock an excellent repast was served, which was greatly enjoyed; and while in progress the large company were engaged in cheerful and entertaining conversation. After the tables were cleared, a meeting was held, commencing at 9 o'clock. The singing was in the Maori tongue, as were also the prayers and speeches. The returned Elders welcomed the chief, his wife and sister-in-law and the children with suitable remarks. These were responded to by the adults of the party. Elder Hirini Whaanga, who is 60 years of age, presided over the branch of the Church in his native place, and in this capacity gave much valuable service in spreading the Gospel.

Among the places visited by the party yesterday was the Temple, in which they took great interest. Next week they will leave for Kanab, Kane county, where they will take up their residence. A nephew of the chief, son of his sister-in-law, has been living at Kanab for three years past, and came up to meet his mother, two brothers, and other relatives.

From New Zealand.

Among the arrivals from Mauriland is Elder Wesley Gibson, of Smithfield, Cache county, who has been engaged in missionary labors for over three years past. He left home for New Zealand in February, 1891, and was occupied chiefly among the Maories, preaching the Gospel. He met with success in his labors, and enjoyed good health. The return voyage was made in the Monowai, and the party was detained ten days in San Francisco, by the strike. Elder Gibson will go north for Smithfield tomorrow.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Josephine S. Chase, of Centerville, Falls a Victim to Apoplexy.

The large circle of friends and acquaintances of Brother George O. Chase, of Centerville, Davis county, will be pained to learn of the death of his wife Josephine Streeper Chase. This estimable lady died suddenly last night about 10:30 at the family residence in Centerville. Apoplexy was the immediate cause of her death. The deceased was fifty-nine years of age, the mother of fifteen children, eight of whom are living. She will be remembered by all her friends and neighbors for her kindness and goodness of heart, and her open handed hospitality of which not only her friends and relatives partook but the unfortunate wayfaring stranger as well often found a welcome at her board and under her roof.

The funeral will take place at the family residence in Centerville on Monday, the 23d, at 12 noon. Beneath the shade of the trees about the homestead there will be room for all friends who desire to attend the services.

Industrial Normal College.

The law firm of Hall & Riley has received inquiries from prominent eastern educators relative to the feasibility of establishing an industrial normal college in this city. Information has been given to the effect that some excellent propositions have already been made by some of the public spirited men in the city, to induce the gentlemen interested to locate here. They are said to be men of means, and that they have a good educational record.
