OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN NEWS.

The branch office of the Deseret News is open at 25 Ad. St. and Washington Avenue, where subscriptions and advertisements will be received. The News is delivered to carriers within every evening on the most down to date Salt Lake City.

OGDEN, . . . SEPT. 8, 1899.

BOY BURGLARS SENTENCED

For Breaking into H. H. Cox One Gets Two Years in Pen, the Other, One.

Victim of Paralysis—Thirty Days for Stealing—Return of Wm. C. Wright from Mission.

The following cases were disposed of by Judge Bolgar in the second district court yesterday:

The State vs. Charles Rogers and Geo. W. Murrell Jr; the boys had been jointly of burglarizing some Southern Pacific cars some few weeks ago and came up for sentence. Rogers was given two years in the State prison, and Murrell was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at the same place. The boys are aged 19 and 18 respectively. The latter one is the son of a prominent family in Jacksonville, Tennessee, and has a sister in Denver, a graduate of Smith's Sem. He seemed to be predisposed to criminal ways, but Rogers seemed leaning more to the good. Deputy Sheriff Jim Galvin took the boys to the penitentiary with the boys at 2.30 p. m.

The case vs. Joseph D. Stanford, charged with petty larceny, came up for sentence. Judge Bolgar read a long lecture to Stanford from Beatrice's Bachelor's Club. The Judge set Sept. 8th as the date for his full sentence to be imposed.

In the case of James H. Shaw vs. West Ogden Express company for killing his cow, the jury returned a verdict for defendant, and hold of the case was held over for a motion for transfer of venue to the Federal court, court signed the order.

The trial in the case of Andrew Larson vs Utah Loan and Trust company was set for October 11 before the Hon. Judge Bolgar.

In the case of Wm. H. Hyam vs Oregon Short Line, the case was continued from to to Sept. 27, 1899.

VICTIM OF PARALYSIS.

This afternoon a gentleman about 65 years of age was picked up near the corner of Wall and Fillmore Streets and was taken to the county jail and when examined on his person was found an envelope addressed to Mrs. Hyde, Ogden, and signed by J. J. Cole. This gave rise to the idea that the man's name is Hyde, and that he has been the victim of the Union Pacific strike going. We have notified the police and they will be held a prisoner for 10 days in lieu of the gentleman. Dr. John Driver, who examined the man and found out what was the trouble with the man, he pronounced it a severe attack of paralysis.

THIRTY DAYS FOR STEALING A COAT.

In police court today before Judge Marshall, F. Johnson was tried on the charge of having stolen a coat from Easter, was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment. The coat was valued at $20, and was the property of Otto Barlock, who had Johnson study a few days ago.

Eli Wright was tried before Judge Marshall, charged with stealing a railroad ticket from the depot agent of Jos. D. Wilson, came up for sentence today. The case was continued over the entire day, and was taken under advisement by the Judge.

Alice Wilson, an old man living just out Wilson Bridge, was arrested yesterday by the police on the charge of stealing a pocketbook from Job Pingree.

RETURNED MISSIONARY.

Yesterday afternoon Elder William C. Wright of the firm of W. D. Wright & Sons, returned home from a two years' mission to England. Elder Wright served the first half of his mission in London, and the latter part in Sheffield, and labored very successfully in both places. He was called to labor in London the year prior to his mission, and had which not yet expired when he left home. He was called to preside over the Sheffield conference in the place of Elder Joseph F. Smith, who was released to return home. Elder Wright is enjoying the best of health, and looks delighted to be home for the privilege of meeting loved ones and friends at home. He was met in Chicago by his wife, who then spent a few days with Mrs. Wright accompanied him back home again. Last Tuesday he was ordained a Seventy by President Joseph F. Smith, and is now at the home of his mother, No. 321 Twenty-fourth street.

BAPTIST S. S. CONFERENCE.

Yesterday was closing day of the Ogden's annual session of the Baptist association. At 9.30 a. m. was business session, and at 10 the following officers were elected:

President, Rev. Chas. Ward; vice president, Rev. J. Bowen; secretary, Rev. J. Bowen; treasurer, Rev. J. Bowen; corresponding secretary, Rev. J. Bowen; delegate to Baptist convention, Rev. J. Bowen; delegate to Baptist convention, Rev. J. Bowen; delegate to Baptist convention