MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES.

Special Orders and Line of March for the First Brigade.

The following has just been issued by Assistant Adjutant General Joseph E. Caine, as special orders No. 1, from the headquarters of the First brigade, N. G. U., with reference to Memorial Day exercises:

All organizations of the First brigade, stationed in Salt Lake City, will assemble in light marching order at the city and county building at 9:15 a. m. on May 30, march to begin at 9:30 a. m.

Infantry will form immediately in front of main entrance of building. Cavalry and artillery will form on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth south streets.

The of March: North on Main street to Third South street; west on Third South street to West Temple street; north on West Temple street to Second South street; east on Second South street, passing G. A. R. hall, to Main street; north on Main street to North Temple street; countermarch on Main street to Second South street; east on Second South street to Main street; south on Main street to Fifth South street.

At the corner of Main and Third South streets the brigadier general and his staff will take position at the head of the column.

At G. A. R. hall on Second South street the Third regiment band will take position in the column and be relieved on the march to the corner of Second South and Main streets.

At the corner of South Temple and Main streets the troops will pass in review before the governor.

At the corner of Second South and Main streets on the return march the infantry will leave the column and proceed to Mt. Olivet cemetery, where, after firing a salute as a part of the ceremonies of the dead, Army of the Departed, it will be dismissed.

Immediately following the parade a general review and inspection by the brigadier general will take place on Main street in front of the city and county building, after which the troops will be dismissed.

The Doubtfire band will report to the escort of the First infantry at the place designated at 1:30 o'clock a. m.

By order of Brigadier General Willard Young, commanding First brigade, National Guard of Utah.

Captain George W. Giles has issued the following to the First Battery:

All members of the First Battery, light artillery, National Guard of Utah, are hereby ordered to assemble at Grand Army hall on Second South street, near Calder hotel, on Sunday, May 24, at 9 o'clock a. m. sharp, for the purpose of acting as escort to the Grand Army of the Republic, which will attend Church service at the West Side Baptist church on that date. Members will be required to bring their sabres and belts but no side arms. White gloves will be worn. The leggings will not be worn on this occasion. A full attendance is ordered.

Democratic Primaries.

The Democrats of Salt Lake county will hold precinct primaries on Monday evening, June 1st, for the purpose of electing 108 delegates to the state convention, and of naming precinct committees for the ensuing year. The precincts outside of Salt Lake City will hold a mass primary on the above date at Murray and elect their delegates at large instead of by separate precincts.

The apportionment of delegates has been made on a basis of one to every forty votes cast at the last election for Hon. John T. Caine for governor. The apportionment of delegates in this city by precincts is as follows: First 15, Second 17, Third 18, Fourth 12, Fifth 15, precincts outside of the city 35—total 108. A call to this effect has been issued by D. C. Dunbar, chairman, and W. G. Jennings, secretary of the county committee.

INAUGURAL FINANCES.

Report to Hon. Geo. M. Cannon, Chairman of the Celebration Committee.

Chairman George M. Cannon, of the inaugural celebration committee has just received from the finance committee, appointed at the time of the inaugural celebration, a report of the amount collected by the finance committee amounting to $547.50.

Report of the other committees showed a deficiency, and consequently the chairman of the committee collected sufficient subscriptions to pay the full amount.
