When duty takes on the lineaments of such entertainments as the ladies of the Hebrew Relief society provide for the delectation of mortals, in the form of their annual charity balls—it would be strange if a full roll-call did not answer the list of invitations issued for these events.

A hall filled with a great number of society's most prominent representatives, a flower-embanked platform lined with tables spread with a superb and tempting collation, music, dancing, feasting, a dazzling array of artistic and elegant creations in costumes—these elements made up a scene of brilliance and gaiety that held sway till a late hour on Thursday night at Christensen's—the social, fully balancing the financial success of the evening.

The committees, whose combined efforts made up the total success of the evening, were: Mesdames E. Kahn, Louis Simon, N. A. Ransohoff, J. E. Bamberger, Messrs J. Moritz, E. Kahn, J. Barthauer, A. L. Jacobs—committee on arrangements; Mesdames S. Bamberger, Louis Cohn, M. [illegible], I. Waters, Sig. Simon, M. Woolf—to whom special credit is due for the [illegible] repast prepared for the occasion—and a reception and floor committee comprising the names of Gov. H. M. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. George Q. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. J. Moritz, [illegible], Mrs. [illegible], Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knox, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Auerbach, Mr. and Mrs. John Dern, Mr. Herman Bamberger, Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. D. Cohn, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Siegel, Mr. and Mrs. D. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Farnsworth, Maj. and Mrs. Thompson, Chief Justice and Mrs. Zane, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCornick, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bamberger, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCune, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dooly, Mrs. S. H. Emery, Mr. F. H. Lannan, Col. and Mrs. T. G. Webber, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. J. [illegible], Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fabian, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Simon, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Shelp, Messrs. J. A. Greenewald, N. A. Ransohoff, J. [illegible], L. E. Bamberger, A. L. Jacobs, A. Simon, Herbert Hirschman.

Those who had charge of the entertainment may be proud of the result of their latest effort in behalf of philanthropy—and confident in regard to what future enterprises they may undertake in this line, Thursday night's event having proved the increasing popularity of their delightful form of entertainment.
