

QUEEN WILHELMINA OF NETHERLANDS

Holland's Scandal May Have Grave Political Consequence for Europe—Domestic Infelicities Among Royalties Are Rife.

London, Dec. 7.—The domestic infelicities of European royalties have never been so prominently before the public as today the difficulties of Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, the dramatic circumstances of which form one of the chief topics of conversation in the queen and the keen interest taken in her marriage only help to accentuate public curiosity and sympathy. Moreover, it is realized that Holland's developments are followed closely by statesmen. While those best fitted to judge incline to the belief that it will all blow over for the present, there are grave apprehensions for the future. From a personal point of view England is more deeply concerned in the scandal going on in Hesse where one of Queen Victoria's granddaughters is on the verge of separation from her husband. This youthful marriage—the Grand Duchess of Hesse, was only eighteen when she exchanged her British for a continental title—has proved to be one of the most unsatisfactory among all the royal matches; and the union it is believed would have been reached ere this had it not been for the late Queen Victoria's imperious influence. The Duke of Edinburgh's other daughter, the Crown Princess of Romania, according to common report, also leads a none too happy marital existence, though recent rumors of an open rupture are met with strenuous official denial. However, no one in England would be surprised to hear that she is figuring in a role similar to that of her sister, the Grand Duchess of Hesse.

LEAD SITUATION IS NOW ADJUSTED

Producers of Metal and Smelting Trust Reach an Agreement—Price Guaranteed—For 1901 It Will be 3.1-2 Cents a Pound—Utah Delegation Instrumental in Effecting Settlement.

(Special to the "News.") New York, Dec. 7.—The lead situation has been adjusted and the conference has adjourned. The participation of McCormick and his colleagues of the Utah delegation, brought the differences between the lead miners to a satisfactory conclusion and conferees have gone home happy.

TWO NEWSPAPER MEN LIBERATED.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Andrew M. Lawrence, managing editor of Hearst's, a negro, and H. S. Canfield, a white, who were sentenced recently by Judge Hancock to thirty and thirty days respectively in the county jail for contempt of court, were discharged from custody by Judge Dunne today.

FEDERATION OF LABOR

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 7.—After the formal opening of the third day's session of the convention of the American Federation of Labor this morning, Miss Harriet A. Keyser, secretary of the Church Association for the Advancement of Women, New York, made a short address. She explained the object and workings of the organization which she represents. The credentials committee made another report after Miss Keyser had concluded. The report was adopted. It recommended the seating of Charles Dold, of the Piano and Organ Workers' union, Chicago, and also John P. Boland, of the Terra Cotta Pressers' union, New York.

ALBAN RETURNS TO PANAMA

Lays Blame for Trouble on the Insurrection on the Railroad.

THE BONITE TRIAL

Washington, Dec. 7.—In the Bonite trial today, counsel for the defense presented a lengthy argument over the right to ask an expert witness certain hypothetical questions bearing on the wound of Ayres. The court asked the jury to retire during the discussion. The defense stated that it would endeavor to show by the witness, Dr. W. P. Carr, that the government's contention that Ayres received his wound at long range was wholly untenable from the very nature of the wound. The point was not settled.

ADMIRAL SAMPSON NO WORSE

Washington, Dec. 7.—It is authoritatively stated that there has been no marked change for the worse in the condition of Rear Admiral Sampson. However, he is in very feeble health and his chances for withstanding any serious strain upon his vitality are said to be slight.

HALOOF HEVELLUS OBSERVED

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 7.—A remarkable meteorological observation that will undoubtedly become historical in astronomy was made here yesterday by Rev. Frederick Odenbach, S. J., professor of physics in St. Ignace college. The observation was that of the great sun-circle or halo of Hevelius, which has only been observed three times before, and probably never so perfect.

CLYDE MOORE FOUND GUILTY

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 7.—A special to the Star from Winfield, Kansas says:

BAD CUTTING AFFRAY AT OGDEN.

James Riordan and Aaron Ross Severely Stabbed This Morning.

INJURIES MAY BE FATAL

F. L. Brown Draws a Knife and Cuts Riordan and Left in a Saloon Scrape.

(Special to the "News.") OGDEN, Dec. 7.—A lively cutting scrape took place at 3 o'clock this morning, in which James Riordan, a Southern Pacific engineer, and Aaron Ross, a well known young man of this city, were fatally cut by F. L. Brown, who was formerly guard of the city stockade. The facts as near as can be ascertained are as follows: Brown was out last evening with two speedy daughters of Bell named Annie Kennedy and Jenny Doo. They were walking on Grant avenue near Twenty-fourth street, when they were met by Riordan, who made some jocular remark to Brown who took it as an insult and slashed Riordan down the left leg, cutting the artery.

MAJ. HENRY FAULTON DEAD

Denver, Dec. 7.—Major Henry Faulton, a member of the faculty of the University of Colorado, is dead of heart disease. He was 55 years of age and was a native of Greece, N. Y. He served with distinction in the civil war, enlisting at the age of 15 years and spent one year in Libby prison.

MORE ESCAPED CONVICTS CAPTURED

Kansas City, Dec. 7.—Two more of the twenty-six convicts who escaped from the Port Leavenworth military prison on November 17, have been captured at Lawton, O. T., according to a telegram received by the warden from the sheriff of that place. They are Turner Barnes, sent up from the territory for ten years for assault, and Bob Clark, who was serving a five years' sentence for breaking into a Texas post-office. Both were also leaders in the revolt and it was they who held the Superintending Hinds. Of the convicts who escaped in the outbreak but seven are now at large.

ARCHBOLD, OHIO, BANK ROBBERED

Delta, Ohio, Dec. 7.—Three robbers broke into the bank of the Archbold Banking company at Archbold, Ohio, in the early morning, and secured $2,000. The thieves stole a horse and a rifle, and John Hoffmeyer received a slight wound in the jaw from a shot.

SHOT HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 6.—Judge Rich was this morning sentenced to the Borah to eighteen months in the penitentiary for shooting his brother-in-law, Ralph Pickock, at Fairfield last May.

PUNITIVE EXPEDITION AGAINST MAHAUDS

Calcutta, Dec. 7.—The punitive expedition against the Mahauds is meeting with considerable opposition. After the British had destroyed seven villages, December 5, the Mahauds re-assembled the former's camp at night. Ten of the British were killed and fifteen wounded.

A NEW CHINESE LOAN

Paris, Dec. 7.—The Chinese loan of $25,000,000 at 3 per cent will be issued December 15.

KILLED BY ESCAPING GAS

New York, Dec. 7.—Giovanni Bosola and Dominica Parove were found dead in their boarding house today. They had been killed by escaping gas, on a charge of murdering Weinberger on the country road and robbing him. Bosola was tried and acquitted. In his testimony he implicated Moore.

CREDITORS EXTEND TIME

Pittsburg, Dec. 7.—The creditors of the Pittsburg Construction and Manufacturing company and West & Wilson, the contractors who have been ordered to make a voluntary assignment to the Prudential Trust company of this city, have unanimously agreed to an extension. The concerns have contracts for fifty buildings, whose construction is under way, approximating $250,000.

DENONCED IN HOLLAND CHAMBERS

The Hague, Dec. 7.—The confiscation of the Dutch Red Cross outfit outside of Pretoria and the imprisonment of the staff on the island of Ceylon, against the subject of heated comment in the chamber here today, the members denouncing the action of the British. The foreign minister, Mr. van Lynden, explained that the Geneva convention was only applicable to the ambulances of belligerents, but even their staffs could be made prisoners if they violated neutrality. The government, he added, had frequently demanded that the Netherlands be released from parole, Great Britain is not obliged to release them until after the close of the war.

ALBAN RETURNS TO PANAMA

Lays Blame for Trouble on the Insurrection on the Railroad.

THE BONITE TRIAL

Washington, Dec. 7.—In the Bonite trial today, counsel for the defense presented a lengthy argument over the right to ask an expert witness certain hypothetical questions bearing on the wound of Ayres. The court asked the jury to retire during the discussion. The defense stated that it would endeavor to show by the witness, Dr. W. P. Carr, that the government's contention that Ayres received his wound at long range was wholly untenable from the very nature of the wound. The point was not settled.

ADMIRAL SAMPSON NO WORSE

Washington, Dec. 7.—It is authoritatively stated that there has been no marked change for the worse in the condition of Rear Admiral Sampson. However, he is in very feeble health and his chances for withstanding any serious strain upon his vitality are said to be slight.

HALOOF HEVELLUS OBSERVED

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 7.—A remarkable meteorological observation that will undoubtedly become historical in astronomy was made here yesterday by Rev. Frederick Odenbach, S. J., professor of physics in St. Ignace college. The observation was that of the great sun-circle or halo of Hevelius, which has only been observed three times before, and probably never so perfect.

CLYDE MOORE FOUND GUILTY

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 7.—A special to the Star from Winfield, Kansas says:

BOYNTON FIRM GETS JUDGMENT

Jury Awards It $2,530.76 Against Utah Stove & Hardware Co.

ESTATE OF LORENZO SNOW

Girls Sent to Reform School—Hamilton Pleads Not Guilty—Divorces Granted—Dayton Discharged.

The jury sitting in the case of the Boynton Furnace company vs. the Utah Stove and Hardware company this morning returned a sealed verdict finding the issues for the plaintiff in the sum of $2,530.76. The court granted a stay of execution for twenty days.

SNOW ESTATE

23 Heirs Ask for Appointment of O. G. Snow as Administrator.

SHERIFF NAYLOR HELD IN BONDS

George H. Naylor, sheriff of Salt Lake county and keeper of the county jail, was this morning indicted by the Federal grand jury for having unlawfully voluntarily suffered and permitted A. H. Curtis, a prisoner in the county jail, to escape therefrom. The warrant of arrest was served upon him in the office of U. S. Marshal Glen Miller, Mr. Naylor having at once voluntarily gone up after hearing of the indictment. He was then escorted to the office of U. S. Commissioner Twomey and was released from custody on $500 bonds, furnished by County Treasurer Dale and Arthur Barnes.

BLACKMAILER IS SENTENCED

It took the jury in the Cronk attempted extortion case which was before Judge Diehl yesterday afternoon just eight minutes to find the defendant guilty as charged. The case lasted from 2:30 until 5:30 p. m. The defendants' counsel, Judge J. D. Pardee, put up a good fight for his client but the evidence introduced by the state was overwhelming. A large crowd was on hand to listen to the testimony which was exceedingly rare.

STATE AUDITOR TO SHOW CAUSE

The question of paying the increase of salaries to certain state officers as provided for in section 1 of chapter 72, session laws of 1901, has at last come to a focus, and it now rests with State Auditor Tingey to decide whether he will draw and deliver a warrant for $750 to Gov. Wells or agree to pay the salaries of the officers as provided for in the constitution. The salaries and their increases are as follows:

Present salary	Increased salary
Governor.....	$2,000 3,000
Secretary of State.....	2,000 3,000
State treasurer.....	2,000 3,000
State auditor.....	1,500 2,000
Attorney general.....	1,500 2,000
Superintendent of public instruction.....	1,500 2,000

COLONEL SANNO ARRIVES IN CITY

Colonel Sanno, commanding officer of the Eighteenth Infantry, and at present in command of the department of the Colorado arrived this morning from the headquarters at Denver, and was met at the depot by Major G. Young, the officer in command at Fort Douglas. A "New" reporter met the colonel after the train had left the depot and that officer declared that he had the honor to be met by the colonel after the train had left the depot and that officer declared that he had the honor to be met by the colonel after the train had left the depot.

GEORGE PIERSON HURT

George E. Pierson, of Bountiful, son of Attorney Pierson, of the Great Salt Lake & Ogden railway, while working for the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, was out ahead of his men and breaking his leg. He rode in the back of a wagon, a distance of ten miles.

POSTMASTERSHIP APPOINTMENT

Congressman Sutherland will Name Thomas' Successor—Utah Delegation Notified of Hearing on Uintah Land Lease.

U. P. MAY BUILD ANOTHER CUT-OFF

Erasmus Young Visits Laramie and Makes Application for Tax Deed for Right of Way of Soda Lake's Line—May Cut Down Distance to Denver.

GEO. PARRY GETS TWENTY YEARS

Brute Sentenced to the Maximum Penalty in Both Cases—Waived All Rights and Promptly Pleaded Guilty—Court Passes Severe Censure on Craven Creature.

ST. ANTHONY SCHOOL HOUSE IS IN RUINS

Fine New Stone Structure is an Irreparable Wreck Owing to the Foundations Being Undermined by the Recent Wet Weather—Building Cost $18,000.

COLONEL SANNO ARRIVES IN CITY

Colonel Sanno, commanding officer of the Eighteenth Infantry, and at present in command of the department of the Colorado arrived this morning from the headquarters at Denver, and was met at the depot by Major G. Young, the officer in command at Fort Douglas. A "New" reporter met the colonel after the train had left the depot and that officer declared that he had the honor to be met by the colonel after the train had left the depot.

GEORGE PIERSON HURT

George E. Pierson, of Bountiful, son of Attorney Pierson, of the Great Salt Lake & Ogden railway, while working for the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, was out ahead of his men and breaking his leg. He rode in the back of a wagon, a distance of ten miles.

POSTOFFICE APPOINTMENTS CONSIDERED

Washington, Dec. 7.—Postmaster-General Smith had a conference with the President at which the last of a batch of about 500 postoffice appointments was decided upon. Practically all will be reappointments.

SUMMIT COUNTY CASE

Judge Stewart was engaged this morning in hearing arguments in the case of Thomas Cupet, as trustee in bankruptcy, vs. C. Fitzpatrick, Booth, Lee & Ritchie, appearing for the trustee and Edward McGurrian for the defendant.

DAYTON DISMISSED

The case against U. Dayton, charged with committing a battery on Walter Berrett on Aug. 22, was dismissed by Judge Stewart this morning.