LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

Indefinitely Postponed—Cancelled—A Consultation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 26.—Secretary Delano, to day, freely expresses the belief that the recent newspaper charges affecting his official integrity are the result of a conspiracy to compel his retirement from the cabinet; he is in receipt of numerous letters from friends in various sections of the country, advising him to abandon his purpose, formed, as he has stated, last fall, to resign about this time. Secretary Delano now says that in accordance with this advice, and with his own judgment of his duty to himself and to the republican party, he has postponed his resignation indefinitely.

The Postmaster General, to-day, issued an order cancelling all the awards of contracts heretofore made in favor of Jerome J. Hinds, Patrick Laughlin, John W. Delaney, Wm. Weis and Wm.Ciddings, these being the names contained in the proposals fraudulently imposed upon the department by the complicity of the clerks at the last regular letting. The order directs the contracts to be immediately awarded to the respective bidders whose proposals are the next lowest in amounts to the proposals thus rejected.

There was a consultation at the executive mansion between the President, Secretary Fish, P. M. General Jewell and Secretaries Belknap and Robeson; it is the impression that the conference was in reference to the successor of Attorney General Williams.

Treasury Decision—More Outrages in Texas—Paymasters to be Appointed.

The Treasury Department has decided that where goods are imported under the act of 1870 for transportation, without appraisement, to an interior port, they are liable to duty under the tariff in force at the time of their first arrival in this country, and not under an act passed subsequent thereto but before their arrival at the interior port; this decision may involve a change in some important decisions heretofore made under the act of 1870.

The Postmaster General, this morning, received the following dispatch, which he has forwarded to the Secretary of State:

"CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas,
"April 24, 1875.

"Postmaster General, Washington—The postoffice was robbed and plundered at Carizoo, on the 19th inst., by Mexicans; Dr. Lovell was killed. The Custom House safe is in the same building, but as far as known it could not be opened. Particulars will be reported by mail. All here are on official duty.
"(Signed)
"H. MCLELLAND, Postmaster."

The President will, to-morrow, appoint two paymasters in the army to fill the vacancy caused by the Senate refusing to confirm two nominees for positions before adjournment; these appointments will be made in accordance with the decision of the Attorney General to-day, to the effect that the President has authority to fill these vacancies.

Railway Collision.

Two passenger trains on the Baltimore and Potomac railway came in collision this afternoon, near the eastern branch; both trains were badly wrecked, and eight or ten people seriously injured. Both engines and four cars were demolished. The cause of the accident was one train running off the switch ahead of time.

A Call for Decoration.

LITTLE ROCK, 26.—A call has been signed by ex-federal and ex-confederate soldiers in this city for a joint decoration of the graves of federal and confederate dead; among the ex-federals signing the call are ex-Senator Clayton, U. S. Marshal Torrano, and U. S. Collector John Brooks.

Memorial Day.

AUGUSTA, Ga. 26.—Memorial day was observed here with unusually imposing ceremonies. The corner stone of the confederate monument was laid. General Evans delivered the oration, in which he took occasion to urge the cultivation of a fraternal spirit, and to do nothing to keep alive the passions of the war. The confederacy was dead, and they did not propose to exhume it. They had parted sadly with the dear old cross of stars, but they took with the true hand of Southern honor the staff that bore the stars and stripes. Ladies decorated with flowers the graves of the confederate and federal dead in the Augusta cemetery.

Grand Preparations.

NEW YORK, 26.—Great preparations are making at the cathedral for the ceremonies of imposing the beretta to-morrow. Carpenters are busy erecting a platform on a level with the floor of the sanctuary, which will extend from the chancel several feet out into the body of the church, and will provide accommodation for the archbishop and bishops who are to take part in the services. A throne has been erected on the right of the sanctuary, which will be occupied by Archbishop Bayley. On the left of the sanctuary is the cardinal's throne, a gothic structure fifteen feet in height, which has been newly gilded and its panels covered with scarlet velvet. The reredos will not be profusely decorated, as it is thought, by those having charge of the decoration, that the hangings of scarlet, which are to be arranged before the stained window and between the spaces above the screen, will, together with the masses of flowers to be used in bouquets and emblems, sufficiently beautify the sanctuary. The altar itself has been decorated with a rich back ground of hangings in scarlet and gold bullion, and will bear a huge vase of flowers. The vestments of the clergy will increase the brilliant effect produced by the decorative hangings and the floral display, and the scene will be made dazzling by a flood of light from all the altars. Vicar-general Quinn is besieged by a throng of applicants for seats, but all are turned away with the answer that none but those already invited can be admitted. Every foot in the cathedral will be occupied. The organ in the cathedral will undergo careful inspection; this p.m. a full rehearsal of the music will take place.

A Fatal Quarrel.

This p.m. Jno. Blake and Thos. Boylan quarrelled in a blacksmith shop, when Boylan threw a horse shoe at Blake, striking him in the neck and killing him instantly; Boylan escaped.

$30,000 Fire.

CHICAGO, 26.—A fire to-night at the corner of West Randolph and Jefferson Streets, damaged a large four story brick building, occupied by a number of manufacturers, including H. A. Pitts, threshing machines; the loss is estimated at $80,000, insured $20,000.

A Heavy Storm.

A heavy storm last night interferes badly with the working of the telegraph.

FOREIGN.

CENTRAL AMERICA.
Revolution in Bolivia.

PANAMA, 16.—Bolivian advices state that on the 18th of March last President Trias left La Paz for Oruro, taking with him one-half of battalion No. 1 of the line, the other half remaining in Viachia. The rebel citizens of La Paz, when they thought the President was far enough away, broke out into revolution. The council of ministers and a small force of young men of good families shut themselves up in the government palace, determined to resist any armed attack by the people, when a terrible and unyielding struggle took place. The people on their part tried to fire the palace, women even took part, in communist-like ferocity, and threw burning sheets dipped in kerosene on the roofs. While this was going on a messenger left for Viachia, and informed the commander of the half battalion that was there of what was taking place at La Paz. Granier at once put the force in motion, and pressed his men over six leagues at quick march, and arrived at La Paz just as the young men who defended the government house were about to surrender; he immediately charged the rebels and routed them, killing 58 and wounding a great number.
