LOCAL BRIEFS.

Local dealers in electrical supplies report unusual fine sales for August, and this month, so far.

The city is preparing to lay cement sidewalks on the north side of Third South street, in places between State and West Temple.

The Rebekahs will celebrate the fifty-fourth anniversary of the founding of their order, this evening, in Odd Fellows' hall on Market street.

The street railway management is laying a double track on West Temple street, between Second South and Market streets, in connection with the Salt Lake & Ogden proposition.

The Butchers' association of this city attended the funeral this afternoon of George Francis Newhand, as he was a charter member of the association and has always been active in its affairs.

The First Methodist church people are moving their furniture from the old church edifice on east Third South street, and will store the same until it can be used again in the new building.

The Republican city committee will meet at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the rooms of the Young Men's Republican club for the purpose of definitely determining upon the date for the city convention.

John B. Fielding, who died from injuries received from falling from a street car, will be buried tomorrow at 2 p. m., from the Twenty-second ward meetinghouse, with interment in the city cemetery.

Sergt. Robert M. Staley, hospital corps, who was sent from Fort Douglas to the government hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., for treatment, will report for duty at Fort Keogh, Mont., as soon as he is fit for duty.

No boy who uses tobacco is allowed to enter the Salt Lake High school. That was definitely stated in a Sunday school talk last Sunday, by Prof. Gillian. And if a boy is detected using the weed he will be requested to get his education elsewhere.

The Real Estate association proposes a real estate congress to be held in this city, and correspondence will be opened with this in view. The association is getting out a booklet called "Salt Lake, from our point of view," and which presents the city in a very attractive manner.

The sun crossed the equator at noon today, at the point called the autumnal equinox, and will not stop in "the downward path" until the winter solstice is reached, Dec. 21, the furthermost point south in the sun's course. The days and nights are today equal all over the world.

A local machinery firm has turned out a 1,000-pounds iron cage to be used in swinging passengers and horses across the river of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, near where the Santa Fe has built its fine hotel. The capacity is 10 people, or one horse, at a time, and the cage costs about $350.

The sprinkling cart drivers will be given half pay during the time they are not working, but report under orders. This will amount to $2 per day, or $1,800 in all. This expense is deemed only fair because of the fact that the men are required to keep their horses in condition, and that they keep themselves in readiness to respond to orders.

County Surveyor Joseph B. Swenson has been directed by the county attorney's office to establish the southwest corner of section 16, township 1 south, range 3 west. This is the corner that is involved in the smelter dispute with the purchasers of lots at Crescent Beach and Garfield. The work will be begun at once.

An executive meeting of the Daughters of the Pioneers, to which all members of the society are invited, will be held on Friday at 3 p. m. in the new headquarters of the society in the Deseret News building. Members are cordially requested to bring a low chair or any other article of furniture which can be used in furnishing the room.

The first assembly of the year at the University of Utah occurred yesterday. It was in the nature of a greeting to the new and old students by President Kingsbury, in which he outlined for them the course of conduct they would be expected to pursue. The assemblies will be held weekly during the year at 11 o'clock each Wednesday morning.

The city food inspector has been reading the riot act to the suburban dairymen detected watering their milk, and if he detects them in this sort of a performance again, their milk will be seized and emptied into the gutters. This is what the inspectors do in New York City; and in addition to that, the offenders are arrested and fined; and of late the justices have been sending them to jail.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon, of the city school principals, Miss Johanna H. Sprague, city librarian, made an interesting address on "Co-operation of the Public Schools and the Public Library." Miss Sprague made a point of having children form the library habit while in school, and stated that when the new library building was opened, there would be a special department for school work.

The Blues won the sham battle of yesterday from the Browns at Fort Douglas. The latter were composed of 3, H and L companies, Twenty-ninth infantry, and the Twelfth battery, all under Captain Stuat of the Twenty-ninth; while the victorious forces were composed of E and F companies, Twenty-ninth infantry, and the Twenty-second battery, commanded by Lieut. Soiseau of the artillery corps.

Warren Foster has accepted the challenge of John Basil Barnhill to debate the following proposition in the Federation of Labor hall next Saturday night: "Resolved that Socialism will destroy liberty." Mr. Foster defends Socialism. Two further debates will be held on Monday and Tuesday night next at the same place. These debates are open to the public without charge. About one hour will be given each evening for questions from the audience.

The Orpheus club held one of the best meetings in its history Tuesday night, with 35 vocalists present for the first meeting, and did so well that a Colorado vocalist present said that the Orpheus had the Denver Apollo club "skinned a mile." The club will meet every Tuesday evening, in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, and expect to have 40 voices lined up next time. The singers adjourned after rehearsal to the association cafe, where coffee and other light refreshments were indulged in.

The right of way contracts for the Big Cottonwood conduit were executed yesterday in all but two cases, and in these condemnation proceedings will at once be instituted. Engineer in Charge George M. Bacon has given the necessary data to the assistant city attorney, Mr. Bramel, and he will at once complete the work of preparing the papers and filing the same. The total amount paid out for the contracts has not yet been figured, but it is said that it will come very close to the amount set apart for the purpose, $5,000.

A detachment of the Twelfth U. S. cavalry passed through this city last night, en route to Chickamauga, after service in the Philippines. With the troops are First Lieutenant Gordon S. Kimball of Ogden, with troop L, and Second Lieutenant Charles M. Telford of Bountiful. Lieut. Kimball was second lieutenant in the First Utah cavalry during the Spanish war, and afterward held the same rank in the Thirty-fifth U. S. infantry, being commissioned second lieutenant in the Third cavalry, in 1901. He was made first lieutenant in the Twelfth, the same year. Lieut. Telford graduated from West Point in 1903, and was at once appointed to the Twelfth cavalry.

Warren Foster, the Socialist speaker, and John B. Barnhill will appear in joint debate next Sunday evening in Federation of Labor hall, when the topic for discussion will be, "Resolved, that Socialism will destroy Liberty." There will also be two further debates in the same hall on the following dates and subjects: Sept. 25, "Resolved, That Socialism will fail, because it involves a misconception of human nature. It will fail because it cannot change man from that which he always has been—an essentially competing, war-like, profit-making animal." Sept. 26: In this debate Mr. Barnhill asserts that money is the life-blood of society and defends money against the attacks of Socialism. These debates are open to the public without charge.

CADETS BEGIN WORK.

Captain Webb Has Large Turnout at High School.

Cadet drill has commenced at the Salt Lake High school for the year, and will continue until next June, three afternoons a week. The squad this year numbers 215 men, of whom 150 are "raw recruits" and the balance are from last year's companies. It is planned to have a squad of 17 trumpeters in addition to four companies of 50 men each, and Capt. William C. Webb, who has charge of the drill work, is already making preliminary organizations so as to get the greatest value from the experience of the older boys. The outlook is that the Cadet corps will have better success than ever this year.
