An animated exhibition of Joe Bowers of Bonanza caused a scattering of a crowd on the floor of the Exchange yesterday afternoon. Starting at his old figure of 17½ cents, the stock jumped about 10 points and up to 26c, when Bowers had parted stock to small amounts and the Silver Queens came in with a bear attack. Bowers was a bear at about 25c, which was for Boston and Utah, and a bear day's business in Utah. Such a day the Salt Lake Board has not seen for several months, if at all, the old record by this venerable body being about of a parallel to that on the week ended August 6, generally advancing figures. The sale closed with the stock in good demand at 24c, while offerings were limited at nothing short of 26.

The day's business on the exchange footed up 48,500 shares for $12,802.57, and among the others to take part were Dexter at $1 Mammoth at $1.70, to $1.74 and Northern Light at 40. Sales, however, were not confined to a few issues, more than a dozen changing hands, and at prices which would at 40 cents, while Chloride Point was taken at 18.

The closing figures were as follows:
