EXPOSITION AT OMAHA.

Letter From Governor Wells To the World-Herald.

Omaha World-Herald, Feb. 6—Salt Lake City, Utah, March 2.—To the Editor of the World-Herald: In response to your invitation, I have pleasure in saying, in reference to the proposition to hold at Omaha, in 1898, an exposition of the products, resources, manufactures, arts and industries of the trans-Mississippi states, that the same has my unequivocal endorsement. For many years I have been a thorough convert to the efficacy of fairs-building as a means of promoting the industrial advancement of a community, a commonwealth or a nation. The states in question, although the youngest in years, certainly have the resources to make them the greatest wealth-producers of any portion of the United States.

A fitting and accurate display of these resources will be extremely beneficial in the states in question, for very many reasons, chief among which is that their greatness is not sufficiently recognized by the people of the Eastern states, and the exposition, if properly patronized, would not only encourage this recognition, but would also be the means of presenting capital in a much greater volume than hitherto, for the development of the resources of this great region. So far as Utah is concerned, the question of holding a semi-centennial commemorative exposition at Salt Lake City in 1897, commemorative of the advent of the Mormon pioneers in 1847, is being agitated by the State Legislature now in session. If this is decided upon, of course, it would detract from the support which Utah might otherwise give the Omaha exposition. It is possible, too, that consideration the extra burdens to be borne by our recent admission to statehood, and the fact that our public finances are not in the favorable condition that we might wish, the State Legislature may decide to entertain neither of the propositions for economical reasons. I am advised of yet another contemplated exposition to be held in Dallas, Tex., in 1897, in celebration of the semi-centennial anniversary of Texas, and acquisition by the United States of all those elder states and territories added to the American union by the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo. It would seem to me, if there could be a concentration of energy by the Western states, that it would be productive of better results, and one affair could be given that would be immensely creditable, while a diffusion of strength, like scattered shot, might prove inefficient and impotent. I have the honor to be, very truly yours,

HEBER M. WELLS,
Governor of Utah.

On the letter the World-Herald committee then sent Governor Wells's train letter observes the serious and prompt consideration of the promoters of the proposed exposition. He expressed his own great interest in the proposition, but he points out the serious danger that the great success of the exposition at Omaha may be threatened by a variety of other propositions.

"As Governor Wells says, 'Concentration of energy by the Western States would be productive of better results, and one affair could be given that would be immensely creditable, while a diffusion of strength, like scattered shot, might prove inefficient and impotent.' I have the honor to be, very truly yours,

GEORGE W. LININGER,
Secretary World-Herald Committee."

Arrested in Utah.

Special dispatch to the Denver Republican from Grand Junction, under date of March 7th: Under Sheriff Whitney arrived home from Little Castle Valley, Utah, last night, bringing with him Julius Burkhart, who stole a team from W. J. Smith in the city three weeks ago. The team was recovered at Thompson, Utah, a week ago, but Burkhart escaped and was a day or two since found working on a ranch at Castle Valley, south of Moab. He was placed in jail here to await hearing.

The Coming Eisteddfod.

Denver Republican, of Sunday: The Eisteddfod association management states that the financial standing of the association at this time is sound although the expenses have been large. There are no debts, the treasury is supplied with some funds and there are several first-class contracts and indications that will be forthcoming at the date stipulated. Most referred tales, if not better than have ever been given to Denver from any point within the state, have been awarded by all competitive listening Denver. An enormous building is now under plans of construction which will probably be located at one of the contestant centers, City park, Arbutus park or Athletic park. The site will be decided very soon and the work of construction thus immediately commenced.

The Welsh people promise to give the eisteddfod of the year to Denver.

SALT LAKE STAKE CONFERENCE

Timely Instruction to the Saints at the Three Specific Sessions.

At the morning session of the conference, Sunday, March 8, the choir and congregation sang the hymn:

The time is far spent, the night is nearly ended.

Prayer by Elder Jos. E. Taylor.

Choir and congregation sang the hymn:

How firm a foundation.

Elder Lorenzo Snow was the first speaker. He said that we had learned through the revelations given from heaven that we had passed successfully through a former probation or first estate and that we were now passing through a second estate in order to more fully prepare ourselves for our future destiny, to receive a fullness of knowledge and intelligence and to be able to enjoy all that our nature were subjected to enjoying. It is absolutely necessary to pass through a second probation, for equally on for the enjoyment of a high position to the life to come. Yet there are some of the Latter-day Saints who continually complain because of the hardships and trials which they are called to pass through. These trials are for their good, and they should learn to endure everything that is required of them. God will have a tried people. Even Job, who was considered to be without a perfect man, was very much tried, and because of some misconduct had in order to strengthen and perfect him. The Saints should endeavor to endure each day the trials and difficulties placed in our way, in order that they might be prepared to enter successfully into the future state.

Elder J. G. Kimball was the next speaker. He said he felt that the Latter-day Saints were improving. While he had been his travels among the people the song had been carried away by the spirit of Babylon, there was a tendency on their part to repent of their sins and to sustain the Priesthood. The bitterness that had existed against the people in years past was almost ineffable, and the speaker believed that we were going to be tried with poverty, wealth and luxury; and he felt that the people were throwing down their idols, and were learning to respect the Priesthood as they ought to do. One of the greatest lessons that this people have got to learn is to honor the Priesthood. The Five Decays of the Church have spent their whole lives in the Lord's service, and if it were necessary for the Church they would even lay down their lives. Yet there are many of the Saints who doubt their integrity and faith and willingness to serve God and bless the people. When Latter-day Saints hear men speak against the authority of God, they should be humble and submissive, show them the error of their way, and they will soon be performing one of the greatest missions that is being performed on the earth.

Elder George Teasdale was the next speaker. He said in substance: The doctrines that God is revealing to us are very simple—that we love the Lord God with all our might, mind and strength and love our neighbor as ourselves. If we do this we will be redeemed from the darkness that covers the earth, and will have the privilege of walking in the light as God is in the light. This is promised to those who will love Him and keep His commandments. Our Father is kind and indulgent to his children, and will listen to us if we desire to be led by His counsel and will. It will cause a great deal more happiness for us if we seek to do right and avoid what is wrong, than for us to do otherwise. The reason for all the trouble in the world is because people prefer darkness to light. We should turn to God, worship Him and walk in His paths, that we may eventually become like Him.

The choir sang the anthem,

Light and Truth.

Benediction by Bishop Wm. B. Preston.

At the afternoon session the choir sang the hymn

O God, our help in ages past.

Prayer by Elder Wm. C. Dunbar. Choir sang the hymn

One great the wisdom and the love.

Sacrament was administered, the Presidency of the Ninth Ward, Salt Lake City, officiating.

Reports of the Stake were then read.

Home missionaries for the Stake were called, as follows, after an examination that many names had been omitted because of a desire to limit the number, and some of those who had been long in the service, and had many calls upon their time in other directions were released at the present.

Home From Australia.

Elder A. J. Helper, of this city, called at the News office on Saturday, having returned home a prisoner to Australia, for which part of the missionary field he left on August 12, 1895. He says he has enjoyed good health during his absence and been exceedingly well treated among the people to whom he has brought the last news of the Gospel. Australia is a large field, he says, and very much in need of faithful Elders. Some of the people are falling away, and there is a marked desire for the truth. Elder Helper returned home on February 28, having enjoyed his labor in the mission quite very much.

Lippman Won the Case.

The jury brought in a verdict this morning for defendant in the case of Harvey Dennison vs Joseph Lippman wherein the plaintiff prayed for judgment in the sum of $1,000 for evicting his (Dennison's) tenant from the empty of the Salt Lake Abstract company.

A Rental Judgment.

The case of G. H. Holmes vs William Chestre came up for hearing in Judge Street's court late morning, in which the defendant refused to pay the rent of certain property on Commercial street to defendant. Judgment for $75.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A proper use of this medicine has often averted long and fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents a bottle. Z. C. M. I. drug department.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderson, of Minneapolis, Minn., we are permitted to make the extract "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Hires Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if the doubt and suffering would be ended by a fatal termination. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Z. C. M. I. drug department. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

The local treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, so thousands can testify. Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but many if not most of the remedies in general use afford but temporary relief. A cure certainly cannot be expected from snuffs, powders, douches and washes. Ely's Cream Balm, which is so highly commended, is a remedy that combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power, with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient.

Of those unhappy people who are suffering with weak nerves, starting at every slight sound, unable to endure any unusual disturbance, feeling it impossible to sleep? Avoid opiate and nerve compounds. Feed the nerves upon blood made pure and nourishing by the great blood purifier and the nerve tonic, Hood's Sarsaparilla.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter County, California, was taken with a very heavy cold. The parents knew he was severe enough to lead spasms and was threatening with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by druggists.

"It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very severe cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy. Chas. M. Gutfield of Reedley, Fresno County, California." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs. For sale by druggists.

How to Cure Rheumatism.

ARGOS, LAKE COUNTY, OREGON, November 26, 1894.—I wish to express you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies without benefit. Two weeks ago I got from us relief until she used the Pain Balm, one bottle of which has entirely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. BURLINGAME. 50 cent and $1.00 bottles for sale by druggists.

Miller & Miller—All kinds of coal.

It is not to be wondered at that Ayer's Pills are in such universal demand. For the cure of constipation, biliousness, or any other complaint needing a laxative, they are unsurpassed. They are sugar-coated, easy to take, and every dose is effective.

While no physician or pharmacist can conscientiously warrant a cure, the J. C. Ayer Co. guarantee the purity, strength, and medical virtues of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It was the only blood purifier admitted at the great World's Fair in Chicago, 1893.

To restore gray hair to its natural color as the years come on, to make it grow abundant and strong, there is no better preparation than Ayer's Hair Renewer.

By ordering your coal from C. S. Martin, you get it clean and promptly delivered. Office under McCornick's Bank.
