OBITUARY NOTES.

PIONEER IN BANNOCK.

Lehi, Idaho, May 25, 1894.—Professor William Burton, of this place, died May 21, 1894, in the presence of his husband, of one of his children. He was born in Lancashire, England, January 25, 1819, at Bentley, Wilts. He was converted to the Gospel in Tewkesbury, England, and was baptized in Cellar, Wilts, by John Hill, and was ordained to Amos C. Rudd. Soon after he was called to Zion by Elder Lorenzo Snow, and prepared for being Laborday Saints, and, leaving in various places in Wales, they went each found Joseph Bentley, Elders Hill and Snow, and arrived in Salt Lake City Sept. 1851, in Gurdon Mathews's company and continued having his family, and he was a member of the Nineteenth Ward. They moved from South Cottonwood March 1, 1860, and took up a home here in Lehi.

While in Idaho Falls, where she had gone to do some visiting, she had a spell of sickness and pain in her loins, and felt as if she was dying. She was May 4 she was taken to her daughter's, Elder A. Jones, in Idaho Falls, where she had the best attention, but she passed away quietly, having been unconscious for some hours. She bade her husband and children goodby, and died at 9 a.m. May 21, aged 75 years and 4 months. She was buried at Sunday, May 24, by Elders John S. Hansen, speakers Jesse Gardner, John S. Howard and William Cragun, and her remains were followed by a long train of friends to the cemetery.

ZABIN F. HANSEN.

Millennial Star, please copy.

JAMES MILLER.

LAWRYLLE, Fremont county, Idaho, May 28, 1894.—Elder James Miller, a much respected citizen, and an old veteran in the Church, died at his residence in Lawrville Ward, Fremont county, Idaho, on the 25th of May, 1894, in the 72nd year of his age. He died in full faith and in the hope of a glorious resurrection.

He was born at St. Ann's South Bend, Devon, February 3rd, 1822, married Miss Lydia Dowdell October 5th, 1842, joined the Gospel together in Devonshire in 1844, and was baptized into the Church in Exeter in 1845. He moved with the Saints to Winter Quarters in 1846, and was ordained a Seventy and subsequently an Elder. He came to Utah in July, 1852, with the ox team from the Missouri River across the western part of the territories to California, stopped with them in Salt Lake Valley and was one of that company who were overtaken by the snow in Cottonwood Canyon, and had to return to Council Bluffs in December, 1852. After remaining with his family there some time he came to Salt Lake City and took to teamstering. After working some about six weeks he returned to his family. Late in the spring he moved out to Salt Lake and purchased a small piece of land, and, being all the money he had, he was obliged to take the land with the crop on it, and he was obliged to work out to pay for it. He was a good farmer, and was one of the first settlers of Cottonwood, Big Cottonwood, Little Cottonwood, Mill Creek, Bingham, Tooele, Rush Valley, Grantsville, Kanosh, Fillmore, Beaver, Parowan, Cedar City, Iron County, Santa Clara, Washington, Dixie, Muddy, Bunkerville, Pioneer Fort, Lehi, Cedar Fort, Eagle Rock, Ammon, Lorenzo, Ucon, Menan, Teton, Newdale, Lewisville, Ashton, Marysvale, Salina, Richfield, Glenwood, Fremont, Lawr