LOCAL BRIEFS.

There was another meeting between miners in this city during the week calling today.

An effort is being made to create a sentiment in favor of annexing Farmington's ward to Salt Lake City.

There is talk of the Daniel Triesch Brewed Car company making a branch car order on the Rio Grande and Pacific car tracks.

The man on the street says that a majority of the Council will sustain the action of Chief Hilton in enforcing the other Sunday. Andrew K. Smith and Joe Mirer are mentioned as likely to side with the tenderloin brigade.

Mr. William Nesbit, the young sculptor of Eureka who was taken to the Knight-Bennion hospital yesterday, is in quite serious condition, according to much better today. The doctors have decided that an operation will be necessary.

The body of Elder Hyrum S. Hanson, who was drowned in New York State some days ago, left Chicago last evening. Elder John S. Hyde accompanies the remains, he expects to arrive in Ogden either tomorrow night or Monday morning.

A private telegram from Hon. George Q. Cannon today states that he will probably stay over to attend another meeting of the electric light franchise holders on Monday. It is expected that Mr. Lorenzo D. Grant Young and Manager S. A. Kenyon will be home sometime next week.

The seven-year-old son of James H. Knight, the thermometer, whose accident in the Knight-Bennion hospital on Friday, breaking his right arm, had to be broken by set his age and side, and injured his head. The little lad was run under the cars by Sexton Jack Young, who made him fast as soon as forthcoming.

A fight from the sheriff of Salt Lake has been filed with the county recorder by which John Hick et al transfer to Lorenzo Snow, as trustee for the Zion Savings Bank and Trust company, the land-office house. The consideration was $6,000. Judgment for the amount has obtained in the bank against Hick about six months ago.

The report of the board of health for the week ending June 23, 1899, shows 18 births, 11 females, 7 males; 3 deaths, 2 males, 1 female; 1 bodies brought from other places for burial, 1 adult; 1 contagious diseases, 1 type diphtheria; 11 reporting 12 cases of scarlet fever, no further diseases, 1 case of whooping cough.

Frank Lynn the notorious individual who has turned in so many cottonwoods and who was arrested last night that April on the charge of stealing an iron fence from Sexton Young, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail by Judge Morris yesterday afternoon. He was held to bond the action of the District court in the sum of $300.

It was with regret that the information of the city learned of the sudden death of William J. Cullingham at Bingham Junction last night. The deceased was one of the Pacific Express company's local men for the Southern Pacific company, and was well and favorably known in the office of the company for the Western.

Dick Dickey, J. Grant Hoe, Minor Theodore Kelsey, Ed Ward and Ed Ward, jr., met together on Summer Hill, south of Sugar City, Friday evening, and formed a club for the purpose of mutual improvement and good cheer. Mr. Hoe is almost interested from Salt Lake, and he helped a lot of the boys, for he was a good hand at baking hot cakes.

Judge Orlando Powers, who is the author of the bill now before the Legislature for the Bonneville Lake to be drained into Great Salt Lake, was in the city yesterday. He says he is very confident that the bill will be passed at the present session of the Legislature. The Judge is a good talker, and he knows how to make people believe what he says.

Mrs. Mary Ann Lewis, who was injured by a fall from a ladder while picking cherries in her orchard, Friday morning, is still very low at her residence, 1 Ninth street. Her son, Mr. Lewis, who is a well known and popular young man, is very anxious about his mother's condition.

Mr. Thomas Ashton will visit the various conferences between Elder Brigham Young, President Elder Moses F. Cowley, Elder Stephen Elder Anthon H. Lund will attend the Scandinavian mission in South Sunday. Elder Abraham Hoop will journey to Salt Lake to indicate the new mission house in that city. Elder John Henry Smith will go to Omaha and Elder Joseph F. Smith to Denver. Elder George Teasdale will attend conference at Pleasant Grove.
