MUNICIPAL MATTERS

A Scene of Turmoil and Strife at the City Council Meeting.

A DISCREDIT TO THE CITY.

President Newell and O'Meara Engage in a Wordy Warfare—Stewart Also Takes a Hand.

Last night's session of the City Council, as was generally expected, was a scene of turmoil and strife from beginning to end. President Newell had come to the conclusion during the week that he had made an erroneous ruling at the previous session, and that he was justly entitled, by virtue of his position as president, to name the standing committees, and as soon as the roll was called, which showed all members present, and before the reading of the minutes, a issue was stirred up, as the following will attest:

THE HORSE HOUSE.

President Newell arose and spoke of a ruling made by him last week in regard to amending the rules, and stated that the stand taken by him at that time was erroneous. He cited from Roberts's Rules of Order, wherein it states that all motions to amend rules should be submitted in writing, one week's notice of such intention being given. He therefore ruled that the action taken by him last week was illegal and void, thus giving him the privilege of appointing committees, which he had done and would read to the Council.

O'Meara at this point sprang up, presumably to enter a protest, but the president ordered him to take his seat, as he had not finished speaking.

NEWELL'S STANDING COMMITTEES.

O'Meara yielded obstinacy, and President Newell announced the standing committees as follows:

Municipal Laws—Dale, O'Meara, Morris, Stewart and Elliott.

Streets—Allen, Morris, Wilcomb, Mulvey and Romney.

Public Grounds—Wilcomb, Hayward, Stewart, O'Meara and Callister.

License—O'Meara, Hayward and Callister.

Claims—Romney, Mulvey and Allen.

Waterworks—Dale, Dale, Wilcomb, Callister and Hayward.

Ways and Means—Ellis t, Buckle and Allen.

Revision—Callister, Stewart and Buckle.

Sanitary Rules and Quarantine—Hayward, Le Probon, Dale, Dahl and Buckle.

Markets—Ellis t, Stewart and Callister.

Police and Fire—Dale, Wilcomb, Dahl, Buckle and Hayward.

Cemetery—Hayward, Buckle and Allen.

Improvements—Mulvey, Dale and Le Probon.

Prisons—Callister, O'Meara and Hayward.

Finance—Romney, Dale, Morris, Dahl, and Mulvey.

Public Works—Le Probon, Allen and Elliott.

Jordan Canal and Irrigation—Morris, Buckle, O'Meara, Stewart and Allen.

Enrollment—Stewart, Mulvey and Le Probon.

Unfinished Business—Callister, Buckle and Stewart.

Sewerage—Buckle, Allen, O'Meara, Hayward and Stewart.

Joint City and County Building—Dahl, Newell and Morris.

Street Sprinkling—Le Probon, Wilcomb and Mulvey.

The Rest—named on each committee are as chairmen.

MOVED TO TABLE COMMUNICATION.

At the close of reading the committees, the recorder was instructed to read the minutes of the previous session, when O'Meara sprang to his feet.

"Mr. President, I move that the communication just read be tabled."

"I second the motion," shouted both Buckle and Stewart.

"The motion is out of order," said the president. "There is nothing before the house."

"Well, then, I appeal from your ruling," remarked O'Meara. "The communication just read is before the house."

"I reiterate the statement that there is nothing before the house, and Mr. O'Meara is take his seat," said the president.

"I'll take my seat, but I have this to say, Mr. President, that if you act arbitrarily and refuse to recognize an appeal, I'll ask that the recorder take your place and put the appeal to a vote."

O'MEARA TOOK HIS SEAT.

O'Meara sat down and the recorder read the minutes of the last regular session, during which time, the Republican members of the Council were busily engaged in whispering conversation with each other, to the apparent chagrin Home of his president, who requested that order be restored.

STEWART MOVES TO TABLE IT.

After the approval of the minutes the president asked for the presentation of petitions and miscellaneous business, when Stewart took the floor and moved the taking of the president's appointment of standing committees. The motion seemed to be one of surprise, when O'Meara referred his former remarks, but in an aside, as the president looking upon the regular order of business, and it prevailed.

ARE YOU A CITY OFFICER?

The petitions and communications were then read by the city clerk, as were also the reports of the city officers, at the conclusion of which O'Meara again arose and inquired "if the president considered himself a city officer."

"Yes," drawled out the president.

"Then I ask that your communication be treated as the city officer's report and read now," roped O'Meara.

"That matter has already been disposed of, as President of this Council I had a right to appoint the standing committees and have done so," remarked Newell.

STEWART TRIES AGAIN.

Another portion of the regular routine business was transacted, and when "unfinished business" was called for, Stewart, in his readiness to take the president's appointment of standing committees, thought he saw an opportunity so to do, and immediately jumped to his feet, at the same time throwing his left hand skyward that the president might be more able to notice him.

Stewart—Would it now be in order to move the reference of your communication?

The Chair—I have presented no communication, I simply submitted my appointment of standing committees.

Stewart—But you had no right to do that; that power was taken from you at our last meeting, which the reading of the minutes will show. I ask that the minutes be read.

MULVEY AS A PEACEMAKER.

The president ruled Stewart's request out of order, when an appeal was taken, but the chair refused to put it, and Dale moved for an adjournment. The motion, however, was lost, and it for lat was included in for some time, when Mulvey, who was apparently inclined to be a peacemaker, asked that City Attorney McKay be allowed to submit his opinion as to whether or not the chair had a right to change as arrangements ruling.

The Chair—The city attorney may be heard.

O'Meara—I object to his being heard at this time. We don't want to hear him, and have a perfect right to object.

WOULDN'T HEAR M'KAY.

The chair insisted that he should be heard, and O'Meara argued against it and finally moved that the city attorney be not heard. This motion the chair ruled out of order, and O'Meara took an appeal, but President Newell sternly refused to put the appeal to a vote.

O'Meara put it, however, and it was sustained by a strict party vote.

FINALLY LAID ON THE TABLE.

O'Meara then moved to take up the president's communication, which the chair ruled out of order. Again an appeal was taken, and sustained by a strict party vote, when Stewart immediately moved to lay the document on the table, which motion was duly seconded by O'Meara, but was ruled out of order by the chair. Another appeal was taken and sustained, after which Stewart's motion to table the communication was carried by the following vote:

Ayes—Burnie, Callister, Dahl, Ellis t, Le Probon, O'Meara, Romney, Stewart—9.

Nays—Allen, Dale, Hayward, Morris, Mulvey—5.

Here the disreputable babble terminated, and business was gotten down to in earnest.

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS.

The Herald Publishing company asked for privilege to erect a bulletin board in front of the Western News and Stationery company on East Temple street. Granted.

John O. Mallon, city pound keeper, asked permission to remove his office building from its present location, corner of Fourth South and First East streets, to the city hay market, on Second East between Third and Fourth South streets. Committee on streets.

Mathonia Thorn applied for the exclusive privilege to sell refreshments at Liberty Park during the coming season. Committee on public grounds.

E. T. LLOYD'S PROTEST.

Benjamin T. Lloyd the recently ousted committee clerk filed the following communication:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Members of the City Council of Salt Lake City and William Silver:

I, the undersigned, respectfully represent that on the 13th day of December, 1895, I was appointed by the City Council of Salt Lake City to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Joseph M. Wasson, and on the 15th day of December, 1895, duly qualified and took the oath of office as a member of the City Council of Salt Lake City, in succession of the said Joseph M. Wasson, and have ever since performed the duties of said office and am now ready and willing to perform the same and entitled to act as a member of the City Council of Salt Lake City from the Third precinct, as the successor of the said Joseph M. Wasson, and am so entitled to act until his successor is duly elected and qualified, and respectfully protest against this honorable body seating William Silver, who pretends to have been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the said Joseph M. Wasson and against the said William Silver participating in any manner in any of the business or proceedings of said Council.

Received and filed.

SEIDER, DEPUTY RECORDER.

Recorder Emery notified the Council of the appointment by him of Albert E. Seider to the position of deputy recorder. Also the appointment of George A. Davis as deputy dog tax collector.

Both confirmed unanimously.

OTHER APPOINTMENTS.

The appointment of P. O. Pettine as deputy City Engineer, was unanimous by Treasurer May and one Stewart. Harry Lloyd's appointment as deputy Sexton, which was submitted a week ago, was also confirmed.

City Attorney McKay informed the Council that he had appointed David H. Hampshire as his assistant, vice W. A. Van Horne resigned.

Callister moved the reference of the appointment to the committee on municipal laws, which was duly seconded.

Dahl moved to amend by referring the appointment, but Callister raised a point of order, stating that a motion to refer could not be amended.

The chair ruled that the point of order was not well taken and Callister took an appeal, which was sustained. The motion, however, was lost, and a motion by Dahl to confirm, carried unanimously.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Six month's requisitions for supplies were submitted by the city engineer, waterworks, superintendent of waterworks, chief of police, park keeper and health commissioner, all being referred to appropriate committees.

The street superintendent gave notice of his inability to submit a requisition for supplies at present, but would do so at an early date. Filed.

The police justice's report for the month of December was filed and is as follows: Fines assessed, $1,854.50; paid to date, $1,695.50; paid in relief, $254. Cases tried, 218.

FIRE AND POLICE REPORTS.

The fire and police boards sent in reports of the respective departments under their jurisdiction, which were accompanied by a communication reviewing and commenting upon the work done by the departments.

The police officers are highly commended for the willingness and alertness shown by them in attending to the sale of their special officers for extra duty on days requiring additional force; the board returns its protest against the use of the present city jail, which is in a deplorable condition, and unsafe for the purpose for which it is used; the necessity of employing a matron to take charge of female prisoners at the city jail is strongly urged, and it is suggested that the estimated cost for maintaining the department for the year—$9,310—be set aside at the beginning of each fiscal year, as done in other cities.

In speaking of the fire department the board says: The expenses of the fire department for the past year have only reached $22,338.13, which included the purchase of hose and horses, and the improvements at hose No. 2, aggregating $1,800. Probably no other city of this size in the United States maintains its fire department at so small a cost. The department answered 141 alarms against 123 the year before. Fires were extinguished on property valued at $1,840,089, carrying insurance aggregating $1,000,700. The total insured and uninsured loss for the year was $99,816.11, of which $9,000 was outside the city limits.

The total fire loss, insured and uninsured, is shown for the past five years as follows:

1891	[illegible]
1892	[illegible]
1893	[illegible]
1894	[illegible]
1895	[illegible]

The recommendations in the chief's report for the erection of a station in the Fourth precinct and the revival of the "old horse" at headquarters are concurred in. The board expects that $47,855, the cost of the department for the ensuing year is estimated by the chief, be placed to the credit of the board output is in effect. This estimate included $5,500 for the "old horse," and $4,000 for a station in the Fourth precinct. The securing of the annual convention of fire chiefs for 1896 is noted with pleasure by the board, who gives the credit therefore to "the efforts of Chief Devine, and the countless attractions of our city."

SEWER VETO REFERRED.

The Council in turning its attention to the Mayor's sewer veto, which was under consideration by a committee of the whole last Thursday, thought the matter should be further considered by the whole body, but Mulvey moved to refer it to special committee, which motion prevailed and President Newell appointed Romney, Dale, Hayward, Mulvey and Allen to look into the matter.

A payment of $1,800 due to the Union Pacific Railroad company on a portion of waterworks in Parley's canyon, was referred to Romney, Burnie and Morris, and the Council adjourned.

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the ten mile road race, in which Mahoney finished third, taking third prize and third place, Jim Black came the track race, Jim Black taking second in the novice, Fowler third, Bishop second, and Thatcher third in the open scratch, class B, all "Ramblers" you will note. In the half mile class A, Hay took second, Corey third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a man in a yellow sweater got his head and fell, Cummings and Weiler being immediately behind him, the result was a spill for these parties, and the race went to Evans. The five mile, class A, was another Rambler event, Hay taking first, Joe Black second and Mahoney third. Fourteen prizes in one day is glory enough for any one.

Prices may reach and people may cry,
And days may howl of lost prizes,
But Rambler's win in spite of everything
Regardless of how others try.

Moral—Buy a Rambler! Ride a winner and you'll be a happy winner.
