

ARMENIANS WIPED OUT

Practically All of Those Residing At Antioch Were Massacred by Moslems.

SITUATION AT ALEXANDRETTE

It Continues Critical, Fugitives Telling How Armenian Villages Are Being Destroyed.

At Aleppo Intense Alarm Exists Last There Be a Recurrence of Attacks—Rioting at Tarsus.

Beirut, April 23.—The Armenian population of Antioch and vicinity has been practically wiped out in the massacres of the last few days by fanatical Moslems. There are thousands of destitute Armenian widows and orphans still in the district, unable to get away. There is no security of life near Antioch.

The situation in Alexandretta continues critical. Bolland is still holding out against the tribesmen that surround it. Beirut is quite as yet but there is great tension between the Christian and the Moslem populations. Troops are arriving here and the authorities are taking forceful measures for the preservation of order. Many people are leaving Beirut for the Lebanon. The British cruiser Diana came into port today.

SITUATION AT ALEXANDRETTE

Alexandretta, April 23.—Fugitives who arrived yesterday relate that all the Armenian villages and settlements in the Alexandretta district are being destroyed. Nearly every Armenian dwelling has been burned and the Armenians surviving are lying in the streets. A half starved and in great fear, especially of Friday and Sunday.

The village of Bolland, a short distance south of Alexandretta, is holding out with difficulty against the nomad tribesmen.

The British warship which sailed to relieve Deirul, an Armenian village on the coast returned to Alexandretta today without having accomplished anything. The commander of the vessel applied to the governor of the district for permission to land a relief party but he was refused.

Two more British war vessels are expected here shortly. One of the other foreign warships in port left today for Beirut.

ALEXANDRETTE FUGITIVES

Aleppo Asiatic Turkey, April 23.—Many refugees have arrived here from the Alexandretta district. Their condition is miserable. Intense alarm exists among the Armenians still of recurrence of the attacks upon them.

RIOTING AT TARSUS

Tarsus, Asiatic Persia, April 23.—The rioting that originated at Adana broke out here April 16. A few Armenians were killed, the whole Armenian quarter was burned and the churches were sacked. More than 4,000 refugees are still gathered in the yard of the American college. Their condition is pitiful. The missionaries at Tarsus are said but they are still apprehensive for the refugees.

Massacres are raging today in the neighboring villages and instant relief is needed.

AMERICANS KILLED

Constantinople, April 23.—A cablegram received here today from Mesopotamia forth conclusively that both Henry Maurer and D. M. Rogers, American missionaries, were killed during the rioting at Adana.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY VOTES TO DEPOSE SULTAN

Constantinople, April 23.—It is reported here today that at the secret session of the national assembly held at San Stefano yesterday, 159 deputies voted in favor of the deposition of the sultan.

There were about 220 deputies and 19 senators present at the session.

The question has been raised whether this vote can be considered legal, and whether the shiek-ul-islam will issue the necessary decision sanctioning the action of the assembly. The attitude of the shiek-ul-islam is said to be uncertain as he is under the influence of diverse elements.

COL. GUSTAVE PABST RUNS OVER LITTLE GIRL

Milwaukee, April 23.—Col. Gustave Pabst, while driving in an automobile today, accidentally ran down and killed Lillian Winkler, a 14-year-old girl. The accident occurred just as the girl stepped from a street car and walked in front of the rapidly moving automobile.

WRECK ON SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Redding, Cal., April 23.—A Southern Pacific freight train was wrecked early this morning between Delta and Smiths. Fourteen cars west of the track. The train crew is safe, but two tramps who were stealing rides are missing. The wrecked Oregon express is being held at Red Bluff. The southernmost at Dunsmuir, and the Norris and Howe circus trains at Smiths. Today's local trains have been canceled.

BLACK SEA FLEET OUT

Sebastopol, April 23.—The active squadron of the Russian Black Sea fleet, under the command of Admiral Denikin, put to sea today. The destination of the vessels is not known.

COL. ROOSEVELT RIGHT IN FRONT

From Mombasa to MacKinnon Road, Fifty Miles. He Rode On the Cowcatcher.

IMPRESSED WITH SCENERY.

His First Shooting Will be Buffalo at Hugh Heatley's Kamid Ranch.

Makindu, British East Africa, April 23.—The special train that left Mombasa at 2:30 yesterday afternoon bearing Theodore Roosevelt and the members of his party to the ranch of Sir Alfred Pease on the Athi river, pulled in here at 6:30 this morning. All the members of the party are well and had a good night. They are enjoying the trip immensely. Mr. Roosevelt, F. J. Jackson of the protectorate, F. C. Selous and Maj. Mearns rode on a broad seat attached to the cowcatcher of the locomotive from Mombasa as far as Mackinnon Road, a distance of about 50 miles. The visitors were delighted with the experience and Mr. Roosevelt was deeply impressed with the marvelous scenery that unfolded itself to view. No was reached at 11 o'clock last night after which the party turned in.

The other passengers on the special train included Mr. Sandilford, local superintendent of the railroad line; Mr. Crookshank, the traffic manager; W. J. Monson, secretary of the administration; J. H. Wilson of the legislative council and R. J. Cunningham, manager of the Roosevelt expedition.

GRAIN PITS ARE BADLY DEMORALIZED

Chicago, April 23.—Demoralization was general today in the grain pits on the board of trade, heavy speculation which caused the sensational slump in wheat prices yesterday having extended to the grain futures market.

Two more British war vessels are expected here shortly. One of the other foreign warships in port left today for Beirut.

PROSPERITY FAIR AGAIN

Meeting of Merchants in Chamber of Commerce Results in Plan for Another Exhibit.

At a meeting held last night in the chamber of commerce, plans were made for a prosperity fair to be held during the Grand Army encampment next August. A report of the recent prosperity fair was read, showing that it was a success and that as a result orders were being received by local manufacturers from numerous sources.

AGED WOMAN STRUCK BY SAN PEDRO TRAIN

Elizabeth Kelly of American Fork Hurled Into the Ditch and Escapes Practically Unhurt.

Passengers on the Salt Lake Route local train from the south this morning, to say nothing of the engineer, were given a decided thrill when American Fork when Elizabeth Kelly, a woman of 60, walked slowly across the track immediately in front of the advancing engine. The train stopped and the engine was backed up a few feet and what was thought to be a pitiful body, tenderly picked up. Dr. C. C. Pleasant, who happened to be on the train, proceeded to examine the woman, when, to the amazement of all, the woman sat up and began to talk.

Apparently the pilot of the engine had caught her skirt and with the force of impact thrown her to one side. Not a bone was broken and the woman was scarcely bruised.

She was engaged in throwing rocks at her cow to scare it off the track, when the train came along from behind and struck her.

PRES. TAFT HEARS OF DIAN POLITICS

Republican Prohibition League Advises Him of Activity of Federal Officials.

SEND COPY OF RESOLUTIONS

Those Adopted in February Mass Convention Are Transmitted for the Information of the Executive.

The following letter was sent to President Taft yesterday by Chairman Wesley K. Walton and Secretary Nephil L. Morris of the Republican Prohibition League of Utah. With it was sent a copy of the resolution adopted at the mass meeting of the Republican prohibitionists in the Salt Lake theater, Feb. 25, 1909, which referred to the activity of federal officers in politics as being contrary to the expressed wishes of President Roosevelt. The letter follows:

To the President:

Sir—We herewith transmit to you copy of resolutions adopted by a mass convention of the Republicans of Utah, held at Salt Lake City, Feb. 24, 1909. Your attention is respectfully called to the resolution affecting the interference of federal appointees of this state in local politics. Practically the Republican party of Utah spoke as one voice on this matter, and it has become so grievous in this state that the Republican party will surely be disrupted if they are not restricted in their pernicious activity.

Subsequent to the mass convention an executive committee was appointed, and we were authorized by them to transmit this advice to you.

Very respectfully yours,
WESLEY K. WALTON, Chairman.
NEPHIL L. MORRIS, Secretary.
Hon. William H. Taft, President of the United States, Washington, D. C.

STEAMERS COLLIDE

Nineteen Persons Drowned by Sinking Of Norwegian Steamer Edith.

Christiania, April 23.—Nineteen persons were drowned off Christiania last night by the sinking of the Norwegian steamer Edith after collision with the British steamer Oxford. Those who went down with the Edith are the captain and his wife, one passenger and 16 members of her crew.

CASTRO SITS UP IN BED AND TAKES NOTICE

Rails Against United States—Had He Been Allowed to Land in Venezuela Would Have Overthrown Foes.

St. Nazaire, April 23.—The steamship Versailles, with Cipriano Castro, the deposed president of Venezuela, aboard, arrived here at daylight. Before Senator Castro left his cabin, he sent for a newspaper correspondent, and sitting up in bed with a night cap on his head, delivered a long and rambling harangue. His remarks were directed against the United States for refusing to let him land in Venezuela.

He declared Venezuela was lost if the people submitted like slaves to foreign meddling.

When asked regarding his future plans, the deposed president said he had made none, as he considered himself a prisoner of war. When informed that the French government gave him full liberty he replied:

"But I am not free if I desire to return to Fort de France and cannot. France should respect the rights of man proclaimed a century ago."

In spite of his assertion that he did not know what he was going to do, it later became clear that Castro had planned to go to Paris. His baggage was taken ashore and placed on a train and he left at once for the capital.

Passengers on the Versailles said that when Castro was brought on board the steamer at Fort de France, he declared that if he had been allowed to make his way to Venezuela he would soon have raised an army to overthrow his enemies.

RUSSIAN TROOPS ORDERED TO TABRIZ

St. Petersburg, April 23.—It was announced here today that the shah of Persia, having failed to notify the royalist commander at Tabriz that an armistice had been granted, Russia has ordered the shah to withdraw his troops to that point by forced marches.

ILLINOIS MUD STOPPED WESTON'S WALKING TOUR

Dwight H. Weston, Editor, Eastern Westerner, was stranded in the mud here yesterday. The going was too heavy and the veteran was forced to spend the day here instead of proceeding to Bloomington. The day previous Weston walked in Illinois mud up to his knees in the midst of a soaking rain.

A ROBBER'S FATE.

Soon After Release from Prison Caught at Old Tricks.

Chicago, April 23.—Jersey Marshall, colored, released yesterday from the Bridgeway where he had served a year for robbery, has been arrested on a charge of burglary, within 50 feet of the scene of his former capture, and by the same policeman who took him into custody.

Policeman Powers was passing the place and saw the negro breaking in. "Come out here; I want to see you," shouted Powers, drawing his revolver. "Is that you, Mr. Powers?" asked the intruder.

"Yes, it's me," replied Powers, as he placed the negro under arrest. The latter declares he broke into the place to get food and will keep clear of Powers' beat in the future.

Hunting Ahead Of Roosevelt

First of a series of illustrated articles by world famous hunters who have shot big game in Africa appears in

THE SATURDAY NEWS

TOMORROW.

Another illustrated feature will be in the days when news came to Salt Lake months late.

As told by a Utah Pony Express rider.

Other illustrated articles include Korea's new railways, by Frank G. Carpenter.

Maid of Orleans conquers centuries after her death.

German people aroused over the extravagance of the Kaiser.

Popular American hostess faces queer social problem.

The regular literary and dramatic letters from London, etc., etc.

EX-SENATOR W. M. STEWART IS DEAD

Great Champion of Free Silver Dies from Effects of Operation.

SAT IN U. S. SENATE 28 YEARS

It Was He Who Characterized the Demonization of Silver as "The Crime of '73."

Washington, April 23.—Former United States Senator William M. Stewart, died at the Georgetown hospital here today following an operation. The body will be taken to Nevada Sunday.

Mr. Stewart had been at the hospital since March 30. On March 31 he underwent an operation, the nature of which the physicians have not made public. A week ago his condition became worse and he sank steadily until this morning when at 7:05 o'clock he passed away.

Mr. Stewart was 82 years old and had been a familiar figure in this city during the better part of the last half century. For 28 years, altogether, he represented Nevada in the senate, a lapse between 1872 and 1873 intervening to prevent a continuous service record from 1895 to 1905.

"Stewart Castle," his former home on Dupont Circle in this city, was long one of the landmarks of the national capital, but it is today, in the center of the fashionable residence section, a bare lot with only the cellar structure on the site, but after the razing of the old residence and a disagreement over the plans, never replaced it and built the Clark home.

Stewart made many notable speeches on the floor of the senate in advocacy of silver and his characterization of the demonization of silver as "the crime of '73" is a marker in political history. After his retirement from Congress he devoted his time between Washington where he had many influential friends, and his Nevada home, where he was a successful miner.

Most of the old residents of Washington and many of the new knew Stewart either personally or by sight. For his tall figure, topped with a wide brimmed soft hat and his long white beard, and his complexion as clear as a youth, were conspicuous on the streets of the city.

His career.

William Morris Stewart was born at Lyons, New York, Aug. 8, 1827. His early childhood was spent in Ohio, where he received an academic education. He entered Yale college, but before completing his course was attracted by the gold discoveries in California and arrived in San Francisco in search of fortune.

Stewart was married to Annie E. Foote, daughter of ex-Governor and ex-Senator Foote of Mississippi. He mined in Nevada county and accumulated some money, and commenced the study of law, being admitted to the bar in 1852. He was chosen district attorney the same year, and was elected attorney-general of California two years later. In 1860 he removed to Nevada, where he practiced law, and became interested in the celebrated Comstock lode silver mine. He was a member of the Nevada territorial council in 1861; was a member of the state constitutional convention in 1862; served as United States senator from 1863 to 1875, after which he resumed the practice of law. In 1887 he was again elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

Mr. Stewart was the living incarnation of the state constitutional convention in 1862, when he was elected to the United States senate, from Nevada, serving until 1905. Senator Stewart took a prominent part in the fight for free silver in 1896.

CLARENCE FLEMING IS RESPONSIBLE

Another Demented Passenger Taken from Train from Los Angeles Today.

FLEMING RETURNS HOME.

Actions of Mr. Sherman Cause Conductor on Salt Lake Route Pullman To Telegraph for Police.

The actions of a temporarily demented passenger, understood to be a Mr. Sherman and traveling from Los Angeles to St. Paul, caused the conductor on the Los Angeles Limited this morning to telegraph ahead for the police to meet the train.

Upon his arrival here at 6:30 o'clock Sherman was taken to police headquarters and appeared to be perfectly rational, and was permitted to continue his journey on Denver & Rio Grande train No. 6.

Mr. Sherman explained to the police that he was the victim of intermittent fits of insanity, these taking the form of religious delirium. He had suffered from several attacks recently in Los Angeles, none of which, however, was of long duration, and had been seized again as he came in to the higher altitude. He was a well-dressed man of about 45 years of age and said he was going to visit a brother in St. Paul.

FLEMING'S SECOND TRIP.

Charles R. Fleming, the Los Angeles man whose strange affliction has twice proven an enigma to physicians and the police of Salt Lake, was again returned to his home in California last night.

Fleming, it will be recalled, while en route to Washington, D. C., a few weeks ago, stopped over in Salt Lake, and almost immediately upon his arrival here was seized with a peculiar malady which deprived him of the use of speech and at times made him the victim of dementia. He was taken to his home in Los Angeles by Detective Chase, and after crossing the mountain, recovered from the unusual attack.

Yesterday morning, as told in the "News," while again on his way east Fleming called at police headquarters to visit Chief of Police S. M. Barlow and other officers who had cared for him on his previous visit.

While engaged in chatting with Chief Barlow, Fleming was again suddenly stricken, and while unable to understand all that was said to him, could give no utterance. His dementia recurred, and without being observed he wandered out of the station. After a search he was found roaming about the streets near the Y. M. C. A. building.

TAKEN TO DEPT.

Later in the evening he recovered his understanding and agreed to the suggestion of the chief that he should be taken to Los Angeles. He was taken to the depot by Percy, the Chief Clerk Peterson, and given into the care of the Pullman porter on the Los Angeles Limited, with instructions that he should be watched and not permitted to leave the train until his arrival in Los Angeles.

Before leaving headquarters, Fleming, by means of pencil and paper, explained that he had again been on his way to Washington to perform the duties on some of his inventions, and that he still intended to go, but would take the southern route next time, feeling that his trouble here was due to the high altitude.

SCOTT A DOUBLE DOUBLE.

Uncle Joe Cannon has a double in Salt Lake. He is A. Scott, floor walker at Keith-O'Brien's. In fact, the resemblance is so striking that hardly a man in the city could tell the difference between the two. The Scotts are both from New York city, and both are well known in the city.

Scott's support of all members of the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution over Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York. Mrs. Scott's election was a victory for the administration faction. A number of delegates refused to make the election of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, a resolution was adopted making Mrs. Donald C. McLean the retiring president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution