

A musical game, the prize being awarded to Mrs. Jennie Cheever. An elaborate lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ward entertained at dinner Thursday in honor of Mrs. Ramshaw of Logan. Covers were laid for 12.

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson entertained at dinner Sunday. Mrs. Matilda Olsen and Mr. H. L. James of Wilson, Wyo.

The congregational Aid society deftly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Buckler Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. Nunn. A delightful time was enjoyed by all present. Dainty refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

A reception and social was given Thursday evening in honor of President David John, by the members of the high school and partners at the First ward social hall. Short speeches, music and a sumptuous banquet were enjoyed by a large number. An elegant chair was presented to the guest of honor.

The Utah Sorosis met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. A. C. Lund. An interesting paper on "Laziness" was given by Mrs. C. Henry. The remainder of the time was spent in discussing the next year's work.

The Forum met Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Buckler, and spent the time in making arrangements for a banquet to be given in the near future.

The Emerson class met Friday evening with Miss Francella Adams and reviewed the essential points in the essay on Spiritual Laws.

Mrs. S. Schwab charmingly entertained the members of the Nineteenth century club members and friends at her home Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. J. J. Nunn. An excellent paper "Uncle Remus Stories" was given by Mrs. Schwab, followed by Miss Martine Niekke who delighted her hearers.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever.
Dr. R. T. Felix Goussard's Oriental Cream or Magical Beauty.

Remove Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth Patches, Blotches, and Skin Diseases in Beauty, and the skin's texture, it has about the texture of a baby's skin. It is so harmless as to be used by the most delicate. It is properly made. Accept no counterfeits. As you desire to have your skin as soft and smooth as a baby's, use Goussard's Cream. It is the best of all the skin preparations. It is sold by all druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers in the United States, Canada and Europe.

REID, T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Chestnut Street, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brinkhurst of Tooeville, spent the week in our city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Duffin.

Postmaster Peters of American Fork visited his son, Mr. Johnnie Peters and Family Thursday.

Mrs. Flora Bonham entertained at a tea party at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. J. Nunn, about 30 lady friends enjoyed a social afternoon. Lunch was served.

Mrs. S. P. Kimball is visiting her parents in Heber, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Towle announce the engagement of their niece Miss Maud Daniels to Mr. Irwin Zosbriskie. Marriage to take place early in June.

The Elks lodge No. 849, entertained at a very enjoyable musical at their rooms Monday evening. A musical treat and a social evening was enjoyed by all. Lunch was served.

A delightful musical was given Saturday evening at Olmshead. A large number of Telluride people and their friends going up for the occasion. Excellent numbers were given by Mr. Tassleria, Mr. Blain, Miss Niekke, Miss Annie Newel accompanied by Opal.

LOGAN.

Mr. A. H. Thompson entertained at a most enjoyable Kensington in honor of her mother, Mrs. Miner, on Tuesday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated with lilacs, and the guests were served with a very dainty luncheon. In an amusing game which was played, Mrs. Ralph Mitchell and Mrs. Champ won the prizes. Those present were, Mesdames Laura Miner, A. M. Flemming, J. M. McAllister, Ralph Mitchell, F. W. Thatcher, W. S. Langston, H. R. Perry, E. D. Ball, S. O. Stevens, G. W. Thatcher, Jr., J. A. Rexell, W. W. McLaughlin, Leo Campbell, Guy Thatcher, T. W. Naylor, D. H. Budge, D. C. Budge, L. S. Smith, A. L. Cole, Harold Lafant, J. E. Cardon, J. R. Shepherd, S. B. Thatcher, Will Sanders, of Salt Lake.

President and Mrs. Whitson entertained the graduating class of the U. A. C. at dinner on Wednesday.

The U. A. C. Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Whitson on Monday afternoon. The hostess had charge of the program and gave an interesting talk on Norway. Mrs. Nettie Sloan rendered a number of selections of Grieg's music, and Miss Huntsman reviewed Isen's play of "Peer Gynt." The refreshments served were typical of Norway, and the afternoon was extremely entertaining.

One of the pleasantest affairs of the week was the evening party given by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Rexell at the Robinson home on Thursday. The rooms were tastefully decorated with a profusion of spring flowers, and a large number of guests enjoyed the evening. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Moss Thatcher, Jr., entertained at a children's party on Monday, which was most enjoyable.

On Wednesday evening, the last of the series of concerts given by the U. A. C. string quartet was given in the Pavilion, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. One of the most enjoyable numbers was given by Prof. G. W. Thatcher, who sang three charming songs.

Mrs. E. W. Robinson and Mrs. Maud Robinson entertain at an evening party on Saturday.

The Eccles home was the scene of a very pleasant evening party on Wednesday, the occasion being Mr. Eccles' birthday. An elaborate supper was served, after which music and games were enjoyed. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames J. E. Cardon, Lorenzo Hanson, Robert Anderson, Le Roy Eccles, Wright, Antoine Anderson, Fred Turner, D. C. Budge, M. J. Ballard, S. B. Milton, Richard Ballantine, Howard Thomas, Ernest Cole, Jos. Quincey, Maughan, Jos. Osell, Mesdames Julia Nibley, Emma Stoddard, Ellen Nibley, Lizzie Stoddard, Sarah Stoddard, Sarah Scott, Martha Haslam.

Mrs. M. J. Ballard was the hostess at the regular meeting of the Daughters of the Pioneers Literary society on Wednesday afternoon. The program consisted of a life sketch of Heber C. Kimball, by Mrs. Lee Thatcher.

San Francisco, where he has been for some time.

Miss Florence McAllister entertained the following friends at dinner on Monday, the Mesdames Harriet Thatcher, Irwin, Hendrickson, Messrs. Elmer Stoddard, Wesley Anderson and Clem Rawlins.

The Shakespeare recital given under the direction of Miss Huntsman of the U. A. C. was a splendid success and largely attended on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Will Sanders, who was up from Salt Lake as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Campbell, returned home on Friday.

Miss Gretha Cardon is back from a visit to Ogden.

Mrs. Ralph Mitchell is here from Rexburg visiting with her mother, Mrs. Yeats.

Mr. Leo Campbell spent part of the week in Salt Lake.

Ray Campbell has returned from a pleasant visit in Salt Lake.

Mr. Luther Howell spent Sunday and Monday in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Margaret Caine is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Mitchell.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING TODAY.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN McDONALD, SR.

Fifty years ago today Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, Sr., were married, and the anniversary will be celebrated in fitting manner at an entertainment to be given this evening at the Lion House. Through the courtesy of President Joseph F. Smith, that historic building was tendered as a place where the friends of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald might gather to do them honor. About 100 invitations have been issued for the occasion Monday afternoon next, from 2 to 6 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will hold a reception for their friends at the family residence, 18 east Fourth South street, at least 300 persons having been invited to attend.

Mrs. McDonald was one of Salt Lake's earliest merchants and manufacturers, having entered upon business in those lines more than half a century ago. His and his wife are well known and both are noted for the genuine spirit of hospitality frequently manifested in the entertainment of friends.

which the public is invited. There will be amusements of various kinds and the members will give their famous drill.

The grand ball at Elks' pavilion Tuesday night, given by Eureka (Oreans) band, was a distinct social and financial success, about $170 being realized from the sale of tickets.

LEHI.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings the Fourth ward Relief society gave a bazaar in the bank building, which was most successful. Supporters were served, programs rendered and a large assortment of donated articles were sold.

Mr. Ira D. Wines returned Thursday from a short trip to California.

Last evening the bishopric and Relief society officers of the Second ward

SATIN COSTUMES SERVICEABLE THE YEAR ROUND.

Although its first cost is considerable, no fabric is more serviceable for year-round use than a really good satin of some fashionable color—blue, pink, mauve or brown. A demi-trained dinner gown of such a character may readily be transformed into a costume suitable for afternoon reception by wearing a guimpe and sleeve of lace and net underneath the draped satin bodice, which, to be effective, should be trimmed with oriental or Japanese embroidery, figured chiffon and embroidered cabochons. The sleeves, of course, are a prominent feature of the costume and are generally of the Japanese type, giving the long shoulder effect and picturesquely draping the upper portion of the arm.

by several selections from "Uncle Remus." A social time was enjoyed by all. An elaborate lunch was served.

The Priscilla club gave a linen shower Thursday evening at the home of Miss Grace Paxman in honor of Miss Anna Egertson. A delightful social evening was passed. Many beautiful pieces of linen were received by the popular young bride-to-be. A dainty lunch was served.

Misses Nort Bullock and Minnie Strubbe delightfully entertained at a surprise birthday shower last Friday evening in honor of Miss Myrtle Miller. Miss Henrietta Heat at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller. Music, games and a merry time was enjoyed by a large number of friends. Lunch was served.

Master Ed. Lowe has returned from his trip with the cadets from California. He reports a most delightful trip.

Noon, dainty refreshments were served a social time as well as a musical treat was enjoyed by all.

Miss Mae Billings was the guest of honor at a chafing-dish surprise party at her home Monday evening.

The Franklin teachers enjoyed a day's outing in Provo canyon Saturday. Leaving town early in the morning and returning by the light of the moon, made a very pleasant day.

Mrs. Sarah Robinson of Salt Lake is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Holdaway this week.

Murray Snow of Salt Lake is visiting friends in Provo this week.

The LaCotrie club attended a select dance given in Spanish Fork Friday evening.

Mr. Frank Ward has returned from

LADIES!

If you have been wearing your winter hat while the spring showers were playing their part, you have, no doubt, earned your summer hat, and next week will be the best time to get it.

WE WILL MAKE OUR SPECIAL DISPLAY OF SUMMER MILLINERY ALL NEXT WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY.

Don't miss seeing it, even if you have bought your hat. COME IN.

O. D. Banks & Co. Inc.
116 So. Main St.
Salt Lake City

KEITH O'BRIEN Co.

Announcement of Annual Sale in Shoe Section

New Shoes--Good Shoes--Stylish Shoes--Smart Shoes--That Fit Shoes

Every pair of oxfords and shoes represent thought, skill and the best leather. Not a pair is cheaply made. We pay top prices and insist upon wearing qualities, style features, and foot-form lasts. Experienced salespeople pay particular attention to the selection of comfortable and proper fitting footwear. Fit is the central idea, the distinguishing feature.

These essentials are embodied in the footwear offered, and in the service extended, you.

A SHOE IS ONLY AS GOOD AS ITS FIT

If it pinches—squeezes—chafes—burns—tortures the feet—you change your shoe store.

Therefore, to have and to hold trade our footwear reveals quality of leather, smartness of shape, craftsman's skill.

ABOVE ALL THEY FIT AND HOLD THEIR SHAPES—FIT ALL OVER.

No one factory makes all the good shoes—so we select from the best of the different good lines.

THE STRONGER THE BARGAINS THE BIGGER A SALE. THE VALUES AT THE REDUCED PRICES ARE DECIDED BARGAINS.

The reductions can be depended upon.
See Windows. Sale Starts Monday.

$2.65 WOMEN'S OXFORDS, patent, vici kid, gun metal. Regular $3.50 grade. A splendid assortment of styles and lasts. All sizes and widths.

$3.65 WRIGHT & PETERS OXFORDS for women; $5.00 and $6.00 grades; twenty-five styles; every pair new and this season's styles.

$3.50 MEN'S RIDING PUTTEE LEGGINGS—in tan. Worth $5 and $6.00.

$3.95 Women's Elk Skin Mountain High Top Boots—regular $5.00. Many splendid bargains in shoes, oxfords and slippers that we cannot mention.

$2.20 BOYS' SHOES. Sizes 2-12 to 5 1-2—shoes that we know will wear; plain, lace or blucher in Box calf or Kangaroo. Regular $2.50; smaller sizes at $1.95

$1.45 MISSES SHOES. Box calf or vici kid, button and lace. Regular $1.75 values. Sizes 1 1-2 to 2 at $1.45, sizes 8 1-2 to 11 at $1.20, sizes 5 to 8 at $1.00

$1.95 MISSES SHOES. In button and lace shoes for school.

$1.65 WOMEN'S SAMPLE oxfords $3.50 to $5.00—placed on tables for your selection.

$1.95 MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S oxfords and strap slippers; over twenty styles in tans and blacks. Patents and vici kid.

$1.00 INFANT'S SHOES, oxfords, ties and strap slippers; all colors.

