SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 9.—In the Senate, Trumbull moved to take up the bill specifying the form of oath to be taken by Miller as the Senator from Georgia.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 9.—In the House, today, Whitley, member-elect from the 2d District of Georgia, took the oath of office.

On motion of Hooper, the House went into committee of the whole on the naval appropriation bill.

Hooper moved that all general debate in committee and in one minute.

Debate appealed to Hooper not to persist in his attempt to get at the income tax bill.

The yeas and nays to limit the debate to one minute were: 135 yeas to 55 nays.

The vote was then taken on the motion to go into committee on the general calendar in order to take up the bill to repeal the income tax, and resulted in 103 yeas and 108 nays.

So the House refused to go into committee. This vote was regarded as a test question on the sentiment of the House in regard to the repeal of the income tax.

NEW YORK.

San Domingo commission—Ferdinand—Almost another accident—American Sea trade.

NEW YORK.—There is still much apprehension felt for the safety of the Tennessee, though there seems no ground for fear, since, if her engines, which are new, broke down, it would take her twenty-five days to reach San Domingo under sail, and she is now but twenty-three days out. Those best capable of judging are confident of her safety.

In addition to the Commissioners and prominent journalists aboard, there were Cadet Wade, private Secretary to the father, General Siegel, private Secretary to Dr. Howe, Prof. Crane, private Secretary to Prof. White, Prof. Blake, Geologist to the Commissioners, Allen O. Burton, Secretary to the Commissioners, H. Brunell, and C. Wright, Botanist; Fred. Douglas, Sen., Assistant Secretary to the Commission, and Fred. Douglas, Jr., private Secretary to New York.

The Japanese Prince and suite have arrived here.

The Stock Exchange has voted five hundred dollars for the relief of the French.

Three more bodies have been taken from the wreck of the cars at New Hamburg.

New York, 9.—Still another narrow squeak on the river yesterday. The accommodation train which left this city at 10:30 a. m., carrying the Tennessee, was being plunged into the Spuyten Duyvil creek, through the carelessness of the watchman at that point. He had hoisted the signal that there was no danger. Fortunately the engineer discovered that the draw was open just in time to stop the train from going down with a load of passengers.

From a tabular statement, compiled by Joseph Minnis, of the bureau of statistics, it appears that prior to 1862, the tonnage of American vessels entered at British ports was 1,000 tons. Since that time it has increased to 1,000,000 tons.

It is estimated that the tonnage of British vessels entered at ports of the United States; but since 1863 the tonnage of British vessels entered at ports of the United States has been 1,000,000 tons.

The reception to the Fenian exiles, to-day, promises to be one of the grandest pageants ever seen in this city.

Last night the Fenian party issued an important address to their countrymen, exhorting them to unite and harmonize among themselves, to aim at the reorganization of all Associations, in view of the great national emergency, and to unite to effect the great object in view.
