FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Senate, after passing the pension appropriation bill, proceeded to the business on the calendar and passed, among other bills, the following:

The Senate bill to establish a public park in Colorado to be called Royal Arch Park.

The Senate then proceeded to executive business. After the doors were reopened the Senate resumed consideration of the calendar and passed the following:

Senate bill appropriating $200,000 for a public building at San Diego, California.

After passing three bills, the Senate adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Henderson (Iowa) presented the conference report on the centennial exposition bill, and it was agreed to.

The house went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill.

Peters (Kansas) argued that if it was true, as asserted by the gentleman on the other side, that protective tariff was a robbery, the Mill bill only sectionalized that robbery.

Anderson (Illinois) antagonized the protective system for having enriched the chosen few and for having accumulated in the treasury a dangerous surplus, and controverted the position that a return to a revenue basis would result in a reduction of the rates of wages to labor.

Breckenridge (Arkansas) opened his speech with a reference to and eulogy of the President's annual message, and declared that it had met with great popular favor; that the political adversaries of the democratic party had sought some point of attack along the democratic line, and that the chief of the opposing forces had rushed valiantly into the fight and sent a letter which was practically a letter of resignation, withdrawing entirely from the contest. After a brief reference to the proceedings of the ways and means committee, in which he claimed that the majority had even refused the right of petition and criticised the minority for having made extravagant statements in regard thereto, he passed into an exhaustive analysis of the provisions of the bill.

Stewart (Vermont) spoke against the bill.

Cox (New York) said he would be willing to reduce the taxation in almost any way. He would do almost anything to which menaced and paralyzed the industries of this country. The gentlemen on the other side said that the Mills bill was a radical measure. He did not see that a reduction of 7 per cent. was much of a free trade reduction. Cox referred to Burrows' speech, and especially to that gentleman's proposition where like Silas Wegg he "dropped into poetry." The gentleman after eloquent language picturing the advancement and progress of the South, quoted "Hull its coming tongue and pen"—quoting Charles Mackey's corn law rhyme for the incoming of absolute free trade. In conclusion Cox said the country had grown from sea to sea and from gulf to lake, expanding in its progress.

Mason (Illinois) then made a lengthy speech against the bill. Mason's speech abounded in humor throughout. In closing he said that of the majority of the committee on ways and means, six out of the eight came from States lately in rebellion, and when he went through his district and saw the prosperous manufacturing and business men there and realized that the gentlemen on the committee had no sympathy and no interest in them, it ground him to think that the affairs of his district should be in the hands of such men. A few years ago when the brigadiers got back into Congress the worked "very well but now it did not fit their case." Said he, "You are back in your father's house because he caught you by the nape of the neck and the seat of your pants and brought you back. You do not say Father, I have sinned against thee, I am not worthy to be one of the family, make me a hostler." This is the kind of prodigal you are. You come in at the front door, wipe your feet on the carpet, and try to drink out of the fire extinguisher. You don't wait for the fatted calf. You put your feet on the table and say, 'What I want is veal.'" [Laughter].

Mr. Mason closed by saying the sleeping giant, the republican party, would awaken, and standing in every harbor and port of entry would say to the importers of goods produced by cheap and pauper labor, "Thus far and no farther," and under the influence of a republican administration the country would have new life and new hopes, and make greater strides in the march of civilization, than has heretofore been accomplished in the history of the world.

Herman (Oregon) spoke in opposition to the bill, dwelling upon the necessity for coast defenses on the Pacific, and pointing out that much of the surplus might profitably be used for that purpose. San Francisco and its great wealth dissipated as well as that of other cities on the Pacific, by means of foreign powers through lack of protection. He admonished them to heed the words of the fathers of the republic, who had declared for protection.

The committe rose and the House took a recess till evening.

At the evening session, Felton (California), expressed himself as opposed to the proposition to place quicksilver on the free list. The industry of quicksilver mining needed the fostering arm of the government. Under the tariff the people were getting cheaper commodities than they would if the importation of quicksilver was made free, for the reason that if the industry was wiped out in the United States, the nations of Austria, Italy and Spain would practically have a monopoly.

Speeches were also made by Messrs. March (Pennsylvania), Spooner (Rhode Island), Romeis (Ohio), Sawyer (New York), Michaels (North Carolina), and Lane (Illinois).

Adjourned.

Feasting the Master Workman.

PITTSBURG, May 17.—A reception was given this evening to Hon. Wm. H. Jordan, of San Francisco, the Supreme Master Workman of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Speaker of the California House of Representatives, by the resident officers of the grand lodge of Pengsylvania and the local subordinate lodges and select Knights A. O. U. W., at the Grand Central Rink before an audience of 3,000. The address of welcome was made by Hon. Harvey Henderson, of Allegheny City. In his response Jordan gave a sketch of the rise and progress of the order. Although not yet twenty years old its membership in the United States and Canada now numbers about 25,000. New York leads in point of strength, with Illinois, Missouri, California and Pennsylvania following in the order named. The disbursements on account of benefits average now $10,000 for every day of the year, or $3,700,000 per annum. The large expenses for donations for sick benefits will increase the annual outlay of the order to more than $4,500,000. The growth of the order, Jordan states, is healthy and in every way encouraging, and indicates its popularity. He paid a high tribute to the late John Jordan Upchurch, the founder of the order.

In an interview tonight he cheerfully said he had been well received at all points along his route as a representative of the A. U. O. W. and everywhere found the feeling among the members satisfactory and active for its well being and glad to extend the lines of the order.

Killing by a Pinkerton Man.

OMAHA, May 17.—Last night at Plattsmouth a Pinkerton man employed by the Burlington road was assaulted by several Brotherhood engineers. He shot Peter Rogers fatally, and started to run with a crowd after him yelling, "hang him!" The Pinkerton man shot again, the bullet passing through the leg of Bills and wounding Kane. The detective escaped. There is great excitement.

Female Horse Thieves.

AKRON, Ohio, May 17.—Katie Phillips of Cleland, and Annie Johnson of Atlanta, elegantly dressed and pretty girls of 18, were today arrested for horse stealing.

The Scofield-Hatch Tragedy.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Late this afternoon Ferris secured a bondsman in Wm. K. Ferris and was released.

Lawyer Jerome Buck declares he is no longer counsel for Mrs. Scofield. He is disgusted with her conduct and has abandoned her case. He will make no effort to obtain bail for her.

Mrs. Lillian Scofield is completely prostrated and is apparently bordering on insanity. The keepers at the house of detention said this morning that she passed the time alternately tossing on a cot and pacing her room with her hair all tangled and her attire disordered. Her speech is incoherent and from time to time she bursts out in torrents of abuse of the coroner, police and the newspapers. She eats nothing and has not slept for thirty-six hours. She is unable to get bail, though she has more that $11,000 to her credit with W. T. Hatch & Sons. The papers in the case have not reached the district attorney's office. Assistant District Attorney Lindsay said today there was no likelihood of the grand jury finding an indictment against either Mrs. Scofield or Ferris. The case will be submitted to the grand jury with the statement that in the opinion of the public prosecutor no crime has been committed in connection with the death of W. T. Hatch.

CASE OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Complicated with Gravel. How Help came at last. A Lucky Woman.

I have long resolved that I would apprise you of the deep sense of obligation which I feel. There is nothing which I now enjoy that I do not owe to the happy chance of having used Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy at a time when I was suffering all that a human being could endure. My troubles began in my Kidneys over nine years ago and from which I never expected to recover. First there was increasing pains in the small of my back and in my loins. I was feverish with no appetite and no sleep. I was compelled to use a cane when I walked, and I finally got so weak that I could not stand alone. The distress in my back was terrible, I was burning up with a fever of constantly shivering as if cold. In a few months my physicians said I had Bright's disease, which was indeed alarming information. To add to my affliction after I had been ill about two years, I had a bad attack of gravel. When this made its appearance my physician gave up my case and I resigned myself to die. Up to this time I had four different doctors attend me, the best in the country, yet I constantly grew worse. Six years ago, last June, now well I remember the day, I saw Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy of Rondout, N. Y., advertised in our paper. I purchased a bottle, paying the price of One Dollar, and used it faithfully. After using one bottle I threw away my cane and went to New York on a visit, and three bottles cured me, this was six years ago. I have never had a return of gravel, nor of the pains or weakness in the back, and though I am over sixty years of age I am now vigorous and strong as I was in my prime.—Mrs. Emeline P. Minner, Burg Hill, Ohio.

Avoid making a mistake, by remembering the name of medicine, Favorite Remedy. Price $1.00, made at Rondout, N. Y.
