ADJACENT CITIES

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - Dec. 1, 1893.

[illegible]

Fourth District News.

Wednesday the hearing of William Tyrell for adultery and E. L. Tyrell for fornication, was held in the Fourth district court and resulted in the former getting three months and the latter being discharged. William came to Ogden some time since and became acquainted with the woman giving her name as E. L. Tyrell, representing her to be his wife. Things went smoothly enough for awhile when the real Mrs. Tyrell put in an appearance and succeeded in getting the pair indicted for the above crimes.

W. L. Pugsley was arraigned before his honor Judge Miner, on the charge of assault. He pleaded not guilty and trial was set for Dec. 11.

The case of the Consolidated Implement company against the Cache Fuel Brick company was dismissed without prejudice.

The motion for new trial was denied in the case of L. A. Stiles vs C. D. Halsted.

The petition for a permanent injunction was denied in the suit brought by James Thompson against W. E. Holand and others.

Cattle Thieves in the Toils.

Cattle raisers in Ogden Valley some time since became suspicious that parties in Eden were killing and selling stolen cattle. Jesse Ferrel was arrested on this charge and enough evidence was adduced to certainly indict him but also three others—a brother Hyrum and Zera and Hyrum Brown. The last three, fearing the vengeance of the law, made their escape to the northwest, but Mosley, Gray were arrested at Baker City, Oregon and Sheriff Belnap at once left to obtain the prisoners. On his arrival there the sheriff identified the men as the men wanted here for the crime of grand larceny and telegraphed back that he would arrive in Ogden this morning with the trio, which he did at 8:30 and safely landed them in the county jail. The men will have a hearing at an early date.

A Grafting Operation.

About a year ago Ed Burton, while operating the elevator in the Utah Loan and Trust building, met with a very painful accident in getting his right leg caught in the shaft of the elevator and thereby stripping that member of the flesh from the knee to the ankle. As time progressed it was discovered that a portion of the wound did not heal over. Remedies of every description were tried but in vain until the grafting process was brought into requisition. A number of frogs were stripped of their skins and these were carefully engrafted into the boy's leg with the result that the wound is almost entirely covered with a new skin, and the boy will soon be able to get out and see the injured limb.

S. P. Shops.

The force on the Southern Pacific machine shops has been recently augmented by fifty men and the roof on the main building is nearly on. Work is being pushed although the weather of late has been exceptionally bad. As soon as the work is completed the machinery from Tucson will be brought and put in place.

Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving Day in this place was celebrated in a very quiet manner. A few of the churches held service and praised the Giver of all good for the multiplicity of blessings received during the year that is now drawing to a close. Business houses were mostly closed and have suspended, while those who were fortunate enough located on turkey and cranberry sauce.

Chicken "Charlie."

The two boys, A. M. Stephens and O. Peterson, who were nabbed early Wednesday morning by Deputy Sheriff Lamport for each having a sack of Thanksgiving ducks and chickens in their possession, the property of a Mrs. Dalton, have had a hearing before Commissioner Torrey on the charge of petty larceny, and were sentenced to thirty days in the city jail.

PROVO NOTES.

William Buckley has filed a suit against J. H. Bechard and J. E. Booth to recover $500 on a note.

Jeremiah Hatch, of Heber, Wasatch county, has withdrawn his plea of not guilty to the charge of unlawful cohabitation, and pleaded guilty. He was fined $50.

Joseph Tolsya, tried on the charge of stealing two horses, the property of Neal McMillan, of Heber county, has been found guilty.

The jury in the case of C. E. Lewis, ex-Deputy Sheriff, became Clerk of a, has returned a verdict for plaintiff of $200. A stay of proceedings was granted pending a motion for a new trial.

William Miles was tried on the charge of stealing a couple of horses from W. D. Van Noy, of Millard county, on July 29th of the present year. The jury found him guilty, and he has been sent to the penitentiary for three years.

An amended complaint will be filed in the case of the Capitol Building Co. vs A. O. Smoot et al., relative to fraud of the H. V. Arnholz. The plaintiff company seeks to recover from defendants $20,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained through plaintiffs failing to give a good title to the Capitol Building Co. [illegible] having original contracts in the name of the Capitol Building Co.

The Advertising.

O-Donald's Sarsaparilla is always within reach and of more benefit to the sick, it always appeals to the good, common sense of thinking people because it is tried and it is proven fairly authoritatively by enthusiastic testimony, to the financial world would be accepted without a moment's hesitation.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - Nov. 30, 1893.

Bearing a Damage Suit.

Judge Boreman has been busy for some days, acting as referee in behalf of C. C. Johnson vs Logan City. The plaintiff alleges that when the city changed the course of Logan river it caused it to overflow his land, compelling him to the expense of [illegible]. Mr. Williams, of Ogden, is for the plaintiff and Evans & Rogers in conjunction with City Attorney Maughan represent the city.

Cost Him $21.

On Tuesday afternoon Marshal Geo. W. Lowe arrested A. S. Rosenkrans, editor of the Nation, engaged in an altercation on Main street, during the course of which Editor Rosenkrans received blows in the face, for which he paid Justice Draughon $10 and costs, amounting in all to $21.

Lots of Wood.

More than 1000 loads of firewood have been hauled out of the Logan canyon since the completion of the new road, less than two months ago.

News Notes.

Pneumonia and la grippe are quite prevalent in Logan.

The improvements in the Bentley operahouse of the Logan Temple have been completed, and operations were resumed on Tuesday.

Fifteen men are now at work finishing the interior of the new Eccles & Howell business block, which will be ready for occupancy about December 15.

No clue has been obtained yet as to the identity of the man who was run over by the train at Cornish station last Friday night.

A number of Cache valley Sunday school teachers contemplate attending the Sunday school convention to be held at Ogden on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Justice Smith married John Crawley and Betsy A. Hull, both of Lewiston, on Tuesday. The county clerk has issued six licenses during the present week.

The Stripped by the Light of the Moon company produced to very many comedy here on Tuesday evening. This evening Mather Brothers' minstrels will furnish a Thanksgiving treat.

The recent change in the running of trains is highly appreciated by the residents of Logan, who can now receive their Salt Lake and Ogden mail at 8 p. m., instead of waiting until the next morning.

A conflagration was narrowly averted a few evenings ago at the Curtis boarding house. A little girl set the window curtains on fire, but prompt action extinguished the blaze without the aid of the firemen.

That the payment of taxes has had much to do with the scarcity of money here, is evidenced by the fact that now the books are closed we are commencing to see a little more of the circulating medium, and believe it improving.
